Fan Cultures Matthew Hills, 2003-09-02 Emphasising the contradictions of fandom Matt Hills outlines how media fans have been conceptualised in cultural theory Drawing on case studies of specific fan groups from Elvis impersonators to X-Files and Trekkers Hills discusses a range of approaches to fandom from the Frankfurt School to psychoanalytic readings and asks whether the development of new media creates the possibility of new forms of fandom. Fan Cultures also explores the notion of fan cults or followings considering how media fans perform the distinctions of cult status.

Teleparody Angela Hague, David Lavery, 2002 In a cautionary attempt to dissuade those who might be tempted to write such material, Teleparody is a compilation of reviews of fictional but all too possible contributions to academic Television Studies.

Teaching Yourself Social Theory David Harris, 2002-12-13 Social theory is a very difficult subject to teach and it is one that students generally find hard to get to grips with. Teaching Yourself Social Theory offers a highly original and comprehensive resource that will be welcomed by students and teachers alike. Barry Smart, University of Portsmouth. I have no hesitation in recommending Harris' text to students and teachers of social theory. Sociology This refreshing and accessible text demonstrates how social theory can be made into an intelligible discourse that touches upon key aspects of everyday life. The abstraction and formalism of much contemporary social theory is criticized as unnecessarily scholastic for the beginner. The author maintains that the main problems in studying the subject are not intrinsic to social theory but derive from how the subject is taught as a university discipline. This lively book uses non-specialist terms to introduce more complex themes and incorporates a Website with questions and reading guides to some of the classic works.

Haunting Inquiry Robert Nellis, 2009-01-01 The NFB's mandate is to make and distribute films designed to help Canadians in all parts of Canada to understand the ways of living and the problems of Canadians in other parts. NFB Founding Commissioner John Grierson. It is only by our lack of ghosts we're haunted. Canadian poet Earle Birney. Haunting Inquiry. Classic NFB Documentary. Jacques Derrida and the Curricular. Otherwise reintroduces significant if sometimes forgotten National Film Board of Canada documentaries into contemporary curriculum conversation. Author Robert Christopher Nellis employs an inflection of Derridean deconstruction to mobilize historical political and intellectual themes emerging from the films as elliptical curricular opportunities. The work explores hauntings in and around the documentaries to open toward Others neither fully present nor absent within the Canadian imagination. They remain troublingly illicit as is the character of haunting. This book's contribution to the literature of curriculum is a unique and innovative conceptual framework, reintroduction of many classic NFB documentaries and the use of a productive language and outlook to mobilize fresh perspectives and hopeful possibilities.

Beyond Subculture Rupa Huq, 2007-01-24 Using case studies and first-hand interviews with consumers and producers including Noel Gallagher and Talvin Singh, Rupa Huq investigates a series of musically centred global youth cultures and re-examines the link between music and subcultures.

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale. Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism, the social, the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story Learning and Teaching Across Cultures in Higher Education D. Palfreyman,D. McBride,2007-10-17 Learning and Teaching Across Cultures in Higher Education contains theoretical rationale resources and examples to help readers understand and deal with situations involving contact between learners or educators from different cultural backgrounds as well as giving insights into the new global context of higher education Understand Postmodernism: Teach Yourself Glenn Ward,2010-10-29 Understand Postmodernism is an indispensable guide to this sometimes challenging domain Using contemporary examples to further your understanding it takes a broad look at theorists in a range of disciplines Whether you re encountering postmodernism for the first time or you need a quick reference to support your studies this guide offers a comprehensive introduction to the key ideas in this thought provoking philosophy NOT GOT MUCH TIME One five and ten minute introductions to key principles to get you started AUTHOR INSIGHTS Lots of instant help with common problems and quick tips for success based on the author s many years of experience TEST YOURSELF Tests in the book and online to keep track of your progress EXTEND YOUR KNOWLEDGE Extra online articles at www.teachyourself.com to give you a richer understanding of psychology FIVE THINGS TO REMEMBER Quick refreshers to help you remember the key facts TRY THIS Innovative exercises illustrate what you ve learnt and how to use it Self-taught Art Charles Russell,2001 The first book to give self taught art the same degree of scholarly attention and critical thinking that mainstream art traditionally receives Social Justice Research Methods for Doctoral Research Throne, Robin,2021-12-10 Doctoral researchers are increasingly focusing on the social justice aspects of dissertation research problems and are often uncertain on how to incorporate societal change issues within a dissertation format Due to the current climate this interest in social justice is likely to continue to increase Many aim to affect change within their discipline workplace or communities as they conduct dissertation research across doctoral program areas Social Justice Research Methods for Doctoral Research presents contemporary social justice research method strategies and incorporates the aspects of social justice into research design This major reference work illustrates how why and where to incorporate conventional and creative social justice research methodologies across both qualitative and quantitative approaches from various theoretical and conceptual perspectives Covering topics such as community based research educational leadership and cancel culture this book serves as a dynamic resource for researchers post graduate students researcher supervisors librarians methodologists research program developers and education
