TEACHER EDUCATION M. Brindhamani, K. Marisamy, Teaching Core Practices in Teacher Education Pam Grossman, 2021-02-26 In Teaching Core Practices in Teacher Education Pam Grossman and her colleagues advocate an approach to practice based teacher education that identifies core practices of teaching and supports novice teachers in learning how to enact them competently Examples of core practices include facilitating whole class discussion eliciting student thinking and maintaining classroom norms The contributors argue that teacher education needs to do more to help teachers master these professional skills rather than simply emphasizing content knowledge Teaching Core Practices in Teacher Education outlines a series of pedagogies that teacher educators can use to help preservice students develop these teaching skills Pedagogies include representations of practice ways to show what this skill looks like and break it down into its component parts and approximations of practice the ways preservice teachers can try these skills out as they learn Vignettes throughout the book illustrate how core practices can be incorporated into the teacher education curriculum The book draws on the work of a consortium of teacher educators from thirteen universities devoted to describing and enacting pedagogies to help novice teachers develop these core practices in support of ambitious and equitable instruction Their aim is to support teacher educator learning across institutions content domains and grade levels The book also addresses efforts to support teacher learning outside formal teacher education programs Contributors Chandra L Alston Andrea Bien Janet Carlson Ashley Cartun Katie A Danielson Elizabeth A Davis Christopher G Pupik Dean Brad Fogo Megan Franke Hala Ghouseini Lightning Peter Jay Sarah Schneider Kavanagh Elham Kazemi Megan Kelley Petersen Matthew Kloser Sarah McGrew Chauncey Monte Sano Abby Reisman Melissa A Scheve Kristine M Schutz Meghan Shaughnessy

Andrea Wells Understanding Teacher Education James Calderhead, Susan B. Shorrock, 2003-09-02 This text reports a study of 20 student primary teachers 10 on a conventional PGCE course and 10 on a school based articulated teacher training course documenting their learning experiences over a two year period the authors explore the factors that facilitate or impede the students learning as teachers In drawing upon these case studies together with existing theoretical models of professional development the authors distinguish several key characteristics of learning to teach and discuss the implications of these for the design of effective school based teacher education courses Community Fieldwork in Teacher Education Heidi L Hallman, Melanie Burdick, 2015-04-10 In teacher education field work in community based spaces including foster homes and programs for homeless youth is frequently contrasted with traditional field experiences in classroom settings where beginning teachers are immediately introduced to teacher centered models of instruction This volume works against such a model presenting a counter narrative of new teachers understanding of the act of teaching By exploring their work with at risk youth in community based sites the authors uncover how non traditional spaces for teaching and learning have the potential to open new doors for reimagining the teaching act and teacher identity This volume examines how prospective teachers have used writing within unconventional spaces as catalysts for considering what it means to become a teacher as well as how the work of teaching can be conceptualized It unites the practical aspects of field work and with theoretical conceptions of teaching and envisions how the work and the definition of teaching can be broadened Teacher Education across Minority-Serving Institutions Emery Petchauer, Lynnette Mawhinney, 2017-03-21 The first of its kind Teacher Education across Minority Serving Institutions brings together innovative work from the family of institutions known as minority serving institutions Historically Black Colleges and Universities Tribal Colleges and Universities Hispanic Serving Institutions and Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander Serving Institutions The book moves beyond a singular focus on teacher racial diversity that has characterized scholarship and policy work in this area Instead it pushes for scholars to consider that racial diversity in teacher education is not simply an end in itself but is a means to accomplish other goals such as developing justice oriented and asset based pedagogies Developing Reflective TESOL Practitioners Through Teacher Education Andrzej Cirocki, Mark Wyatt, Xuesong (Andy) Gao, 2024-06-26 This textbook provides insights from Asian contexts into how reflective practice is nurtured on Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL and English Language Teaching ELT teacher education programmes There is increasing recognition worldwide that given the centrality of reflective practice to teachers ongoing professional development supporting teachers to become reflective practitioners should be integral to teacher education programmes Consequently tertiary level courses in areas such as TESOL and ELT tend to promote reflective practice supported by theoretical input from the burgeoning literature on reflection much of which is produced in the West Relatively under represented in the literature are global perspectives on reflective practice there are consequently relatively few accounts as to how reflective practice is embedded in teacher education programmes in different parts of the world including Asia Hence this book addresses a gap Contributing authors from fourteen countries provide insights into the ways in which teachers are helped to grow as reflective practitioners on their teacher education programmes in their unique contexts This textbook showcases how reflective teaching practices are developed supported by frameworks for critical reflection and in interaction with local educational policies These distinctive accounts aid readers in reflecting on the ways in which reflective practice is supported in their own teacher education contexts and in considering ways of enhancing the reflective dimension of their programmes This textbook showcases innovative reflective activities and can be used as a principal text or as supplemental reading on a range of TESOL and ELT teacher education courses perspectives to provide insight and evidence of current policy and practice in the field covering issues such as teacher supply preservice education continuing professional learning leadership development professionalism and identity comparative and policy studies as well as gender equity and social justice

A Companion to Research in Teacher Education Michael A. Peters, Bronwen Cowie, Ian Menter, 2017-05-31 This state of the art Companion assembles and assesses the extant research available on teacher education and provides clear guidelines on future directions It addresses an important need in a collection that will be of value for teachers teacher educators policymakers and politicians There has been little sustained long term or systematic research to provide empirical support for the broad aspects of teacher education policy largely because such research has been chronically underfunded and based on traditional practitioner knowledge Many of the changes to teacher education are contentious and yet are occurring in rapid succession These policies and movements have important consequences for education teacher quality and the future of the teaching profession At the same time the policies and initiatives that support these changes seem to be based more on ideology business interests and tradition than on research and empirical findings The nature quality and effectiveness of teacher preparation have increasingly become a central focus for education policy worldwide in a fiercely argued debate among governments think tanks world policy agencies education researchers and teacher organisations

Inclusive Education: Global Issues and Controversies, 2020-06-29 This edited book considers the main issues and controversies within the current educational context of inclusive education from an international perspective Authorities in the field such as Norwich Kauffman and Boyle amongst many other international scholars provide an enticing insight into many of the issues and controversies around inclusive education and whether it is achievable or not We have reached a point in time where inclusive education has been the prevailing doctrine for universal education policies However there are still many challenges facing those working within the inclusive education space with some countries actually becoming less inclusive International and national legislation has continued to move towards inclusive education yet there seems to be many gaps between the philosophy and the principles of inclusive education and systemic practice The book aims to address the current debates surrounding the implementation of inclusive education and also offers insights into the inconsistencies between policies and practices in inclusive environments Moreover it analyzes contemporary research evidence on the effectiveness of inclusion and identify directions for future research Contributors are Kelly Ann Allen Dimitris Anastasiou Joanna Anderson Adrian Ashman Jeanmarie Badar Christopher Boyle Jonathan M Campbell Heather Craig Leire Darretxe Julian Elliott Zuri e Gaintza Betty A Hallenbeck Divya Jindal Snape Marguerite Jones James M Kauffman George Koutsouris Fraser Lauchlan Gerry Mac Ruairc Sofia Mavropoulou Daniel Mays Brahm Norwich Angela Page Kirsten S Railey and Federico R Waitoller
