Learning by Teaching Literature Christine Angela Eastman, 2016-04-19 This book investigates the integration of literary writing into work based or business writing It proposes ways of how to help people with considerable work experience use literature to engage with the problems they face in their work Many people like to read for pleasure but their skills in reading could always be improved This book makes an original contribution to the fields of education work based learning and business by encouraging students to explore history memoir fiction and non fiction to model their own writing and widen their knowledge beyond the work place and their customary reading Inside are onsite experiments with fiction and non fiction prose that show how people in the workplace respond and grow from contact with significant literature and culture that relates broadly to their work As a Coaching Master s student observes I have not been a prolific reader It has been a weakness and a gap I have probably read more in the last year during the project course than I have read in the past twenty years So that says something My ability to attend to what in a book has weight or relevance has markedly improved In the past I banked largely on my opinions because not being a prolific reader I had to It can be incredibly empowering to see that there are so many assets outside of my own mind When something comes up now I tend to weigh it I am more specific about how I use words Issues in English Education in the Arab World Rahma Al-Mahrooqi, Christopher Denman, 2014-11-19

Though diverse the Arab world boasts a unique culture and native language both of which are unlike those found in English speaking countries Perhaps due to the nature of these differences Arab Western relations have been described as existing on one of the world s great cultural fault lines Debate about the potential effects both positive and negative of English medium education and the learning of English in the region s schools and universities is one expression of this Even as debate continues issues of politics culture social mobility and identity are played out in the English language classrooms of the Arab world on a daily basis The current volume explores some of the concerns related to the place of English and English medium education in the Arab world It examines issues of the relationship between English Arabic cultural identity and power in the region within a historical and contemporary framework the experiences of learners from Arabic medium secondary schools adjusting to English medium colleges and the challenges and potential rewards of promoting student centered classrooms and technology in traditionally teacher centered environments These issues are explored from the perspectives of teachers students researchers and other stakeholders in Oman Saudi Arabia the UAE and Sudan Teacher Research and School Improvement Rob Halsall, 1998 This book is about the key role which the teaching profession has to play in school effectiveness and improvement The contributors argue that for genuine school improvement strategies and approaches must evolve from teachers themselves Thinking Skills and Early Childhood Education Patrick J. M. Costello, 2013-11-26 This text offers a rationale for the popular idea among teachers and researchers that young children should be taught critical thinking and argument in the early years of their education Enhancing Social Presence in Online Learning Environments Marmon, Michael, 2018-03-16 The use of media to create and maintain a public presence has become a ubiquitous aspect of daily life Such interactions should be used to enhance other aspects of life that have become heavily technology driven such as education Enhancing Social Presence in Online Learning Environments is a critical scholarly publication that explores the different perspectives of public latency and the creation of electronic educational formats that mimic the experience of traditional classrooms Featuring a wide range of coverage on topics that include active learning teacher authority and computer mediated communication this publication is geared toward educators professionals school administrators researchers and practitioners in the field of education E-schooling Roger Austin, John Anderson, 2008-03-25 This book looks at how an entire school system is starting to transform learning through ICT and asks what it takes to change learning through technology in what we call e schooling considering the costs and benefits of such an e education
