Teacher Induction and Mentoring Gary P. DeBolt, 1992-11-03 The ordeals and stresses of the first year of teaching have often been cited as reasons why many new teachers become discouraged and even abandon their teaching careers One strategy that has proven successful in providing support to novice teachers is to match them with experienced classroom teachers or mentors in order to ease their induction into teaching Mentoring also provides a meaningful challenge for experienced successful teachers As more districts begin to implement mentoring and induction programs they will need information and models to answer basic questions regarding how mentors are selected and how schools can provide training and support to all personnel involved in such programs This book provides an overview of the induction into teaching and mentoring processes describes five effective school based models and reports the results of a large scale study of those elements found to be most helpful by experienced mentor teachers

Comprehensive Teacher Induction E.D. Britton, L. Paine, S. Raizen, 2011-06-28 Based on a three year study the authors describe how comprehensive teacher induction systems can both provide teacher support and promote learning more about how to teach This book calls for re thinking what teacher induction is about whom it should serve what the curriculum of induction should be and the policies programs and practices needed to deliver it

Stories from Novice

Teachers Lisa Scherff, Mike Daria, 2010-08-14 Why do new teachers change schools or leave the profession Stories from Novice Teachers This is Induction attempts to address this question In this book we feature the stories of a dozen novice teachers and how they were or were not mentored or inducted by their schools Using data collected over a three year period close to 1 000 emails and face to face interviews the cases presented in this book can inform school principals and district level administrators of the situations that promote or hinder new teacher growth so that we can lower attrition rates and foster student achievement The cases presented in this book range from problems in the faculty lounge to unsupportive colleagues to too much induction
