This detailed Teacher's Guide for the Read Play and Learn curriculum helps teachers and program directors in choosing materials arranging their classrooms using the curriculum to enhance children's skills and identifying children's developmental levels so that appropriate modifications can be made. Key features include Discussion of research on emergent literacy with specific suggestions on how teachers can use the activities in Read Play and Learn to support learning and skill acquisition in their students. There are also guidelines on creating a literacy rich environment in the classroom and creating opportunities for reading and writing. An appendix contains a list of suggested materials for each stage of literacy development. Descriptions of the three levels of learning sensorimotor functional and symbolic with guidelines on how teachers can identify a child's learning level and modify classroom activities to meet his or her individual needs. There are also suggestions on how teachers can use curriculum activities to encourage each child's cognitive social emotional communication and sensorimotor development no matter their level of learning. An entire chapter devoted to ways you can involve families in their children's education. Aside from specific examples of ways to foster family involvement the chapter also contains photocopiable handouts teachers can give to parents that describe the curriculum and ways parents can support their children's learning. Master planning sheets to help teachers plan activities for each center and learning area for an entire week. List of resources on accommodations and curricula for early childhood classrooms. Suggestions on how to get your classroom ready to use Read Play and Learn with descriptions of each of the centers and guidelines for arranging the classroom and planning a daily schedule. List of materials recommended for each center and learning area. Step by step instructions for teacher teams on planning and implementation of the curriculum. Chapters on adapting the curriculum for students with visual or hearing impairments. This Teacher's Guide is part of Read Play and Learn an innovative play based curriculum for children 3-6 years of age that promotes general development and boosts cognitive sensorimotor communication language social and emerging literacy skills. Diamant-Cohen,Melanie A. Hetrick,2013-06-18 According to recent research the best way to make new connections in a child's brain is by building on something already known. A child who loves a book will listen to it repeatedly maintaining interest. Using a selected book in a number of consecutive preschool storytimes but presenting it differently each time can help children learn new skill sets. This book presents a new approach to storytime one that employs repetition with variety to create an experience which helps children connect and engage with the story on a higher level. Diamant Cohen recently awarded the 2013 ASCLA Leadership and Professional Achievement Award and Hetrick offer a year's worth of activities specifically designed to address multiple intelligences through a repetition-based process. Incorporating recent theories on developmental learning, this book includes Scripts for 8 different books with enough activities to repeat each one for six weeks, along with lists of optional alternative books. Planning aids such as outlines of storytime sessions, a fill-in-the-blanks planning sheet, questions for evaluation, and tips for enhanced storytimes using props and crafts. Detailed but straightforward explanations of theory and research that will help readers communicate effectively with parents, caregivers, and other stakeholders. From setup to execution, here's everything you need to create and implement a successful elevated storytime.
