The Family Of God A Symbolic Study Of Christian Life In America:

The Family of God William Lloyd Warner,1975      The Family of God W. Lloyd Warner,2003-01-01      Churches in the Family of God Dr Peter Uche Uzochukwu,2012-04-04      American Spiritualities Catherine L. Albanese,2001 This reader explores current interest in spirituality in the United States It traces the concept and presence of spirituality in the nation s past and explains the strong attraction to spiritual themes in the present with attention to questions of definition historical usage and connection to religion Twenty seven selections pursue the difference and diversity among Americans in terms of their spiritual styles here understood as modes of experiential knowledge Catherine L Albanese has organized these selections to reflect four approaches to spirituality knowing through the body or ritual based spiritualities knowing through the heart or evangelical and emotionally toned spiritualities knowing through the will or prophetic and social action spiritualities and knowing through the mind or metaphysically oriented spiritualities Taken together these essays make the argument that the spiritual is human made essentially religious and surely not the same at all American times and places The anthology includes selections by Catherine L Albanese Janet and Robert Aldridge Daniel Berrigan Joseph Epes Brown Charles W Colson Annie Dillard Virgilio Elizondo Tamar Frankiel Emma Goldman Charles E Hambrick Stowe B K S Iyengar Curtis D Johnson Martin Luther King Jr Chen Kung Jerena Lee Shirley MacLaine Aimee Semple McPherson Thomas Merton Carry A Nation E Burke Rochford Jr Jerry Rubin Molly Rush Starhawk Henry David Thoreau Ralph Waldo Trine Joachim Wach B Alan Wallace Steven Wilhelm and Dhyani Ywahoo Catherine L Albanese is Professor of Religious Studies at the University of California Santa Barbara She is the author of the widely used textbook America Religions and Religion now in its third edition and of numerous other articles and books including Nature Religion in America From the Algonkian Indians to the New Age Albanese is a former president of the American Academy of Religion 552 pages 6 1 8 x 9 1 4 bibl index cloth 0 253 33839 5 65 00 L 50 00 paper 0 253 21432 7 27 50 s 21 00      A World of Their Own Making John R. Gillis,1997 Discusses ritual events we regard as family traditions and how they must be open to perpetual revision so we can satisfy our human needs and changing circumstances      Home and Homeland Linda L. Layne,2019-01-15 In this provocative examination of collective identity in Jordan Linda Layne challenges long held Western assumptions that Arabs belong to easily recognizable corporate social groups Who is a true Jordanian Who is a true Bedouin These questions according to Layne are examples of a kind of pigeonholing that has distorted the reality of Jordanian national politics In developing an alternate approach she shows that the fluid social identities of Jordan emerge from an ongoing dialogue among tribespeople members of the intelligentsia Hashemite rulers and Western social scientists Many commentators on social identity in the Middle East limit their studies to the village level but Layne s goal is to discover how the identity building processes of the locality and of the nation condition each other She finds that the tribes creates their own cultural homes through a dialogue with official nationalist rhetoric and Jordanian urbanites while King Hussein in turn maintains the idea of the homeland in many ways that are powerfully influenced by the tribespeople The identities so formed resemble the shifting irregular shapes of postmodernist landscapes but Hussein and the Jordanian people are also beginning to use a classically modernist linear narrative to describe themselves Layne maintains however that even with this change Jordanian identities will remain resistant to all or nothing descriptions Linda L Layne is Alma and H Erwin Hale Teaching Professor of Humanities and Social Sciences in the Department of Science and Technology Studies at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Originally published in 1994 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Growing Up Thomas B Robb, William M Clements, 2013-01-11 Growing Up Pastoral Nurture for the Later Years is a sensitive volume devoted to helping older adults retain their status as meaningful members of their congregations and communities In an honest approach based on the foundations that old age is supposed to happen the future belongs to the old and vocation for people of faith is lifelong Thomas Robb provides personal and Biblical perspectives as well as research from over 20 years as a pastor on the life process and the feelings worries and expectations accompanying growing up and growing old He then molds these concerns into a challenge for congregations and their spiritual leaders to actively assist the aged in coping with and overcoming fears and barriers limiting the fullest expression of faith in God This insightful book describes the tasks and suggests programs for pastors and congregations everywhere in meeting the challenge making life for the aged more than shuffleboard and bingo pot luck dinners and day trips Dimensions of pastoral ministries that nurture women and men who at midlife and beyond seek to find their way through the unexpected and unplanned through the third of life following parenthood and careers are described in detail Pastors church leaders congregations professors of courses in ministry and aging aging church members and seminary students will benefit immensely from the wealth of information presented in Growing Up Pastoral Nurture for the Later Years The Divine Institution Sophie Bjork-James, 2021-03-12 The Divine Institution provides an account of how a theology of the family came to dominate a white evangelical tradition in the post civil rights movement United States providing a theological corollary to Religious Right politics This tradition inherently enforces racial inequality in that it draws moral religious and political attention away from problems of racial and economic structural oppression explaining all social problems as a failure of the individual to achieve the strong gender and sexual identities that ground the nuclear family The consequences of this theology are both personal suffering for individuals who cannot measure up to prescribed gender and sexual roles and political support for conservative government policies

Exposure to experiences that undermine the idea that an emphasis on the family is the solution to all social problems is causing a younger generation of white evangelicals to shift away from this narrow theological emphasis and toward a more social justice oriented theology The material and political effects of this shift remain to be seen      Meaning and Moral Order Robert Wuthnow, 1989-04-27 Meaning and Moral Order goes beyond classical neoclassical and poststructural theories of culture in its attempt to move away from problems of meaning to a more objective concept of culture Innovative controversial challenging it will compel scholars to rethink many of the assumptions on which the study of ideology ritual religion science and culture have been based      American Folklore and the Mass Media Linda Dégh, 1994-02-22 This book shows how folklore magic miracles and tales of enchanted princesses and genial giants is still alive and well in the modern mass media contains a wealth of facts and observations with which to conjure Journal of Communication D gh brings her decades of expertise in folk narrative to bear in this well researched provocative study of the interrelationship between traditional processes of folk narrative performances and modern mass media Highly recommended Choice Spanning folk cultural developments as old as feudalism and as new as today s TV ad American Folklore and the Mass Media demonstrates how vital folklore remains how often it absorbs rather than being absorbed by the most dramatic technological innovations and social realignments Carl Lindahl all six essays are meaty and informative contributions to vital folkloric issues Contemporary Legend      Religion and Family in a Changing Society Penny Edgell, 2013-12-03 The 1950s religious boom was organized around the male breadwinner lifestyle in the burgeoning postwar suburbs But since the 1950s family life has been fundamentally reconfigured in the United States How do religion and family fit together today This book examines how religious congregations in America have responded to changes in family structure and how families participate in local religious life Based on a study of congregations and community residents in upstate New York sociologist Penny Edgell argues that while some religious groups may be nostalgic for the Ozzie and Harriet days others are changing knowing that fewer and fewer families fit this traditional pattern In order to keep members with nontraditional family arrangements within the congregation these innovators have sought to emphasize individual freedom and personal spirituality and actively to welcome single adults and those from nontraditional families Edgell shows that mothers and fathers seek involvement in congregations for different reasons Men tend to think of congregations as social support structures and to get involved as a means of participating in the lives of their children Women by contrast are more often motivated by the quest for religious experience and can adapt more readily to pluralist ideas about family structure This Edgell concludes may explain the attraction of men to more conservative congregations and women to nontraditional religious groups      The Mother Town Gwen Kennedy Neville, 1994 Horses with riders trailed by foot processions silver bands and pipe bands furling medieval banners lavish costumes and singers and actors the Common Riding is an elaborate little studied ritual phenomenon of the border towns of Scotland In this vividly written and insightful analysis Gwen Kennedy Neville uses this civic ceremony as a window for glimpsing the process of ritual symbol and experience in the development of the concept of the town in Western culture Based on extensive fieldwork in the town of Selkirk The Mother Town looks at the Common Riding in detail uncovering pre Reformation symbolism and pageantry often medieval and Catholic in a region that has been Protestant for over four hundred years Neville shows how the ceremony is a model of the way civic ritual serves to construct a system of towns which gives rise to the modern world Further she contends that these civic rituals create a ceremonial setting in which the contradictions between tradition and modernity can be temporarily resolved and where past and present live side by side Neville offers a provocative and illuminating study of how the ritual of Common Riding makes a dramatic statement about local strife communal independence and Protestantism in the towns of the Scottish Borders
