The Fifth World Of Forster Bennett Portrait Of A Navajo:

The Fifth World of Forster Bennett Vincent Crapanzano, 2003-01-01 It is told that the ancestors of the Navajos journeyed through four worlds to reach the fifth or present one The pressing complexities and underlying wonder of their fifth world of modern reservation life are portrayed in this classic ethnographic account by Vincent Crapanzano As a young inexperienced anthropologist Crapanzano spent a summer with a Navajo man he calls Forster Bennett In his fifties Bennett was raised during the early reservation years fought in the South Pacific in the Second World War and like many carried a deep but not always openly expressed resentment toward whites Crapanzano s honest and gritty account of his time with Bennett and Bennett s community reveals a stark portrait of the flat slow quality of reservation life where boredom and poverty coexist with age old sacred rituals and the varying ways that Navajos react and adjust to changes in their culture The Fifth

Invisible Genealogies Regna Darnell, 2001-01-01 Invisible Genealogies is a landmark reinterpretation of the history of anthropology in North America During the past two decades theorizing by many American anthropologists has called for an experimental moment grounded in explicit self reflexive scholarship and experimentation with alternate forms of presentation Such postmodern anthropology has effectively downplayed connections with past luminaries in the field whose scholarship is perceived to be uncomfortably colonialist and nonreflexive Ironically as the American Anthropological Association nears its one hundredth anniversary and interest in the history of the discipline is at an all time high that history has been effectively presented as removed from and irrelevant to the new generation Invisible Genealogies offers an alternative compelling vision of the development of anthropology in North America one that emphasizes continuity rather than discontinuity from legendary founder Franz Boas to the present Regna Darnell identifies key interpretive assumptions and practices that have persisted sometimes in modified form since the groundbreaking work of A L Kroeber Boas Ruth Benedict Edward Sapir Elsie Clews Parsons Paul Radin Benjamin Lee Whorf and A Irving Hallowell during the founding decades of anthropology Also highlighted are the Americanist roots of postmodern anthropology and the work of innovative recent scholars like Claude Lévi Strauss and Clifford Geertz

Recapitulations Vincent Crapanzano, 2015-03-17 A distinguished anthropologist tells his life story as a wistful novelist would watching himself as if he were someone else This memoir recaptures meaningful moments from the author's life as his childhood on the grounds of a psychiatric hospital his psychiatrist father's early death his years at school in Switzerland and then at Harvard in the 1960s his love affairs his own teaching and his far flung travels Taken together these stories have the power of a nothing taken for granted vision fighting those conventions and ideologies that deaden the creative and inquiring mind

Telling a Good One Theodore Rios, Kathleen M. Sands, 2000-01-01 Telling a Good One is the first comprehensive examination of the collaborative process that creates a Native American life story Kathleen Mullen Sands draws on her partnership with the late Theodore Rios a Tohono O'odham formerly Papago narrator to address crucial issues surrounding the inscribing of a life story Sands examines the creative critical and cultural processes behind this increasingly popular mode of self expression The impetus initial negotiations interview process narrative content and style and the editing and interpretation phases of a Native American life story are all given equal scrutiny Of particular interest are Sands's successes and failings as a collaborator and the influence of Tohono O'odham culture and its tradition of storytelling on Rios's actions and words Sands examines the effects of her personal background and academic training on her actions and decisions how her experiences compare with other collaborative autobiographies and biographies and the role of academia and publishers in shaping expectations about the content and format of Native American biographies and autobiographies

Bibliography to the 1990s Howard M. Bahr, 1999-06 The Navajo are the largest tribe of Indians in the United States and due in part to a fascination with their relative isolation have been analyzed in numerous documentaries In this timely supplement to the Navajo Bibliography Howard M Bahr engages in a unique postmodern approach to his bibliography of the Navajo culture by combining health related artistic economic religious social scientific and other literature on the Navajo into one study The bibliography skillfully downplays disciplinary boundaries by unifying literature that has previously only offered separate classification and access The more than 6 300 entries are selectively annotated and cover Navajo literature from 1970 to 1990 as well as newly discovered literature including Franciscans literature that was not included in the original Navajo Bibliography This bibliography is not only the most comprehensive bibliography to date in its coverage of more than two decades of new material but the only source that supplements the professional literature with local and cultural works An exhaustive resource that effectively doubles the expanse of Navajo literature surveyed and indexed Din Bibliography to the 1990s is an invaluable tool that both highlights the literature already available and expands such data to include coverage of genres that have been previously underrepresented MultiCultural Review ,2004 The Journal of Arizona History ,1965 The Catholic Library World John M. O'Loughlin, Francis Emmett Fitzgerald, 1971 Dreaming and the Self Jeannette Marie Mageo, 2012-02-01 Drawing upon original fieldwork cultural theory and psychological research Dreaming and the Self offers new approaches to the self particularly to subjectivity identity and emotion Through an investigation of dreams in various cultures the contributors explore how people as subjects actually experience cultural life how they forge identities out of their cultural and historical experiences how the cultural and historical worlds in which they live shape even their bodily habits and responses and how the person as agent responds to and imaginatively recreates his or her culture These essays demonstrate that dreams reflect tellingly on topics of great currency in anthropology such as how people personally manage postcolonialism transnationalism and migration Actual dreams are examined including dreams of Samoan young people about race of a Haitian priestess about vodou deities of a Pakistani about spiritual teachers of psychoanalytic clients in Los Angeles and San Diego about cars witches and sex and of a young Balinese mother about a neglected dog Biographical Dictionary of Anthropologists William Stewart, 2024-11-05 This biographical dictionary provides information on 322 men and women who have made or are making significant contributions in the field of anthropology A short biography highlights each person s professional and private background and detailed analysis of the theories or approaches that each contributed to his or her individual field and a guide to their major published works are provided A chronological appendix lists each person s date of birth full name and primary field of study guiding readers to entries covering 1681 to 2006 An extensive glossary explains technical terms used throughout the work Culture, Subject, Psyche Anthony Molino, 2004 The 20th Century was marked by two profoundly different insights into human nature one views each person as the product of unconscious desires while the other sees the individual as the product of language and culture

While some still believe these two insights to be irreconcilable many social scientists are attempting to integrate psychoanalysis into their culturally bound research In this groundbreaking new work Anthony Molino has collected in depth interviews with seven renowned anthropologists and social theorists Marc Auge Vincent Crapanzano Katherine Ewing Gananath Obeyesekere Michael Rustin Kathleen Stewart and Paul Williams These dialogues alongside essays by Molino anthropologists Wesley Shumar and Waude Kracke and psychoanalyst Lucia Villela update the prevailing conceptions of psychoanalysis within anthropology exploring distinctive psychoanalytic contributions and ethnographic theory and practice
