The Film Industry In Brazil Culture And The State:

The Film Industry in Brazil Randal Johnson, 2010-11-23 Looking back through the prism of the severe economic crisis for filmmaking in the 1980s The Film Industry in Brazil explores the unusual relationship between the state supported industry which often produced politically radical films and the authoritarian regime that had held sway for twenty years To ground his analysis Johnson covers the early years of the film industry 1898 1930 attempts at industrialization during the 1930s and 1940s film industry congresses and government film boards 1950 1966 the National Film Institute 1966 1975 and the expansion of the state's role from 1969 through 1980 Well conceived carefully researched and documented Johnson's study fills a major gap in film studies by tracing the development of this industry in Brazil focusing specifically on its relationship to the state

Post-Theory David Bordwell, Noel Carroll, 1996-02-15 With Post Theory David Bordwell and Noel Carroll challenge the prevailing practices of film scholarship Since the 1970s film scholars have been searching for a unified theory that will explain all sorts of films their production and their reception the field has been dominated by structuralist Marxism varieties of cultural theory and the psychoanalytic ideas of Freud and Lacan Bordwell and Carroll ask why not employ many theories tailored to specific goals rather than searching for a unified theory Post Theory offers fresh directions for understanding film presenting new essays by twenty seven scholars on topics as diverse as film scores audience response and the national film industries of Russia Scandinavia the U S and Japan They use historical philosophical psychological and feminist methods to tackle such basic issues as What goes on when viewers perceive a film How do filmmakers exploit conventions How do movies create illusions How does a film arouse emotion Bordwell and Carroll have given space not only to distinguished film scholars but to non film specialists as well ensuring a wide variety of opinions and ideas on virtually every topic on the current agenda of film studies Full of stimulating essays published here for the first time Post Theory promises to redefine the study of cinema

Culture and Customs of Brazil George Woodyard, 2003-06-30 Race religion language culture and national character are full of contradictions Brazil the largest country in South America embodies so much paradox that it defies neat description This book will help students and general readers dispel stereotypes of Brazil and begin to understand what country's bigness means in terms of its land people history society and cultural expressions This is the only authoritative yet accessible volume on Brazil that surveys a wide range of important topics from geography to social customs art architecture and more Highlights include discussions of the fluid definitions of race rituals of candomblé the importance of extended family networks beach culture and soccer madness A chronology and glossary supplement the text

Commerce in Culture A. Flibbert, 2007-09-03 Commerce in Culture is an innovative study of how states have responded to the globalization of the film sector Concerned with more than film content or substance the book exposes the ongoing political and economic struggles that shape cultural production and trade in the world The historical focus is on Hollywood's engagement with rivals and partners in two leading developing countries Egypt and Mexico beginning with the birth of their national film industries in the late 1920s State and market institutions evolved differently in each context acting like national prisms to mediate international competition and produce distinctive results As filmmaking has become a dynamic focal point in the new economy Commerce in Culture reveals a vital but neglected part of the global terrain Constructing Culture and Power in Latin America Daniel H. Levine,1993 A notable collection of complementary essays largely culled from the pages of Comparative studies in society and history examine the ways in which power exerted by capital markets peasants women elites and States and culture expressed in official policy institutions and communal life h Brazilian Women's Filmmaking Leslie L. Marsh,2012-10-31 This text focuses on women s film production in Brazil from the mid 1970s to the current era Marsh explains how women s filmmaking contributed to the reformulation of sexual cultural and political citizenship during Brazil s fight for the return and expansion of civil rights during the 1970s and 1980s Popular cinema in Brazil, 1930-2001 Stephanie Dennison,Lisa Shaw,2019-01-31 Brazil has one of the most significant and productive film industries in Latin America This ground breaking study provides an entertaining insight into the Brazilian films that have most captured the imagination of domestic audiences over the years The recent international success of films such as Central Station and City of God has stimulated widespread interest in Brazilian film but studies written in English focus on the auteur cinema of the 1960s This book focuses on individual films in their socio historical context drawing on extensive fieldwork in Brazil and Latin America It argues that Brazilian cinema has almost always been grounded in intrinsically home grown cultural forms dating back to the nineteenth century such as the Brazilian music hall the travelling circus radio shows carnival and later comedy television Combining a chronological structure with groundbreaking research and a lively approach Popular cinema in Brazil is the ideal introduction to Brazilian cinema Culture Wars in Brazil Daryle Williams,2001-07-12 Examines the role of the Brazilian government as it attempted to create a national culture during a fifteen year period of authoritarian cultural management A Cultural History of Latin America Leslie Bethell,1998-08-13 The Cambridge History of Latin America is a large scale collaborative multi volume history of Latin America during the five centuries from the first contacts between Europeans and the native peoples of the Americas in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries to the present A Cultural History of Latin America brings together chapters from Volumes III IV and X of The Cambridge History on literature music and the visual arts in Latin America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The essays explore literature music and art from c 1820 to 1870 and from 1870 to c 1920 Latin American fiction from the regionalist novel between the Wars to the post War New Novel from the Boom to the Post Boom twentieth century Latin American poetry indigenous literatures and culture in the twentieth century twentieth century Latin American music architecture and art in twentieth century Latin America and the history of cinema in Latin America Each chapter is accompanied by a bibliographical essay A Companion to Latin American Cinema Maria M. Delgado,Stephen M. Hart,Randal Johnson,2017-03-14 A Companion to Latin American Cinema offers a wide ranging collection of newly commissioned essays and interviews that explore the ways in which Latin American cinema has established itself on the international film scene in the twenty first century Features contributions from international critics historians and scholars along with interviews with acclaimed Latin American film directors Includes essays on the Latin American film industry as well as the interactions between TV and documentary production with feature film culture Covers several up and coming regions of film activity such as nations in Central America Offers novel insights into Latin American cinema based on new methodologies such as the quantitative approach and essays contributed by practitioners as well as theorists

Remapping Brazilian Film Culture in the Twenty-First Century Stephanie Dennison, 2019-10-25 Remapping Brazilian Film Culture makes a significant contribution not only to debates about Brazilian national cinema but more generally about the development of world cinema in the twenty first century This book charts the key features of Brazilian film culture of the first two decades of the twenty first century including the latest cultural debates within Brazil on film funding and distribution practices the impact of diversity politics on the Brazilian film industry the reception and circulation of Brazilian films on the international film festival circuit and the impact on cultural production of the sharp change in political direction at national level experienced post 2016 The principle of remapping here is based on a need to move on from potentially limiting concepts such as the national which can serve to unduly ghettoise a cinema film industry and audience The book argues that Brazilian film culture should be read as being part of a globally articulated film culture whose internal workings are necessarily distinctive and thus deserving of world cinema scholars attention A blend of industry studies audience reception and cultural studies Remapping Brazilian Film Culture is a dynamic volume for students and researchers in film studies particularly Brazilian Latin American and world cinema Honorary Mention Best Book in Humanities for the LASA Brazil Prize 2021

Media Laboratories Sarah Ann Wells, 2017-02-15 Winner LASA Best Book Published in 2017 Southern Cone Section Humanities category Media Laboratories explores a pivotal time for South American literature of the 1930s and 40s Cinema radio and the typewriter once seen as promising catalysts for new kinds of writing began to be challenged by authors workers and the public What happens when media no longer seem novel and potentially democratic but rather consolidated and dominant Moving among authors from Brazil Argentina and Uruguay and among the genres of fiction the essay popular journalism and experimental little magazines Sarah Ann Wells shows how writers on the periphery of global modernity were fashioning alternative approaches to these media Analyzing authors such as Clarice Lispector Jorge Luis Borges and Felisberto Hernandez along with their lesser known contemporaries Media Laboratories casts a wide net from spectators of Hollywood and Soviet montage films to inventors of imaginary media to proletarian typists who embodied the machine human encounters of the period The text navigates contemporary scholarly and popular debates about the relationship of literature to technological innovation media archaeology sound studies populism and global modernisms Ultimately Wells underscores a question that remains relevant what possibilities emerge

when the enthusiasm for new media has been replaced by anxiety over their potentially pernicious effects in a globalizing yet vastly unequal world

Becoming Brazilian Marshall C. Eakin, 2017-07-25 This book examines how Gilberto Freyre's notion of mestiagem (race mixing) became the overwhelmingly dominant narrative of national identity in twentieth century Brazil. It will be of interest to scholars and students interested in Brazil, Latin America, race, nationalism, national identity, and popular culture.

Brazilian National Cinema Lisa Shaw, Stephanie Dennison, 2014-05-01 Brazilian cinema is one of the most influential national cinemas in Latin America and this wide ranging study traces the evolution of Brazilian film from the silent era to the present day including detailed studies of more recent international box office hits such as Central Station (1998) and City of God (2002). Brazilian National Cinema gives due importance to traditionally overlooked aspects of Brazilian cinema such as popular genres ranging from musical comedies, the chanchada, to soft core porn films, the pornochanchada, and horror films, and also provides a fresh approach to the internationally acclaimed avant garde Cinema Novo of the 1960s. Lisa Shaw and Stephanie Dennison apply recent theories on stardom particularly relating to issues of ethnicity, race, and gender to both well known Brazilian performers such as Carmen Miranda and Sonia Braga and lesser known domestic icons such as the Afro-Brazilian comic actor Grande Otelo, Big Othello, and the uberblonde children's TV and film star and media mogul Xuxa. This timely addition to the National Cinemas series provides a comprehensive overview of the relationship between Brazilian cinema and issues of national and cultural identity.

Latin America in the World Antonia Garcia-Rodriguez, Daniel J. Greenberg, 2020-04-02 From the Foundations in Global Studies series, this text offers students a fresh, comprehensive, multidisciplinary entry point to Latin America. After a brief introduction to the study of the region, the early chapters of the book survey the essentials of Latin American history, important historical narratives, and the region's languages, religions, and global connections. Students are guided through the material with relevant maps, resource boxes, and text boxes that support and guide further independent exploration of the topics at hand. The second half of the book features interdisciplinary case studies, each of which focuses on a specific country or subregion and a particular issue. Each chapter gives a flavor for the cultural distinctiveness of the particular country yet also draws attention to global linkages. Readers will come away from this book with an understanding of the larger historical, political, and cultural frameworks that shaped Latin America as we know it today and of current issues that have relevance in Latin America and beyond.

Territories of the Visual in Spain and Spanish America Jo Evans, Julia Biggane, Nuria Triana-Toribio, 2017-10-02 While studying the theory and contemporary impact of embodied viewing, this book celebrates the emergence and development of Visual Studies as a major subject of research and teaching in the field of Hispanic Studies within the UK over the last thirty years. By exploring current routes of investigation as well as analysing future pathways for study in the field, seven highly distinguished Spanish and Latin American scholars examine their own entry into Visual Studies and discuss the major trends and changes which occurred in the field as matters of the visual gradually became embedded in higher education curricula and research trajectories. Each scholar also lays out a current research project or interest concerning Spain or Latin America within the visual field The projects variously explore different media including film sculpture photography dance and performance art spread across a wide array of geographical locales including Mexico Cuba mainland Spain and the Canary Islands Offering a map of current and future research in the field this book provides the first history of visual studies within UK Hispanism It will be of lasting value to a wide range of scholars and advanced students of Spanish and Latin American cultural visual and film studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the Bulletin of Spanish Studies

Postcards from Rio Kátia da Costa Bezerra, 2017-06-01 Through the analysis of a variety of favela based visual cultural productions by young people and contemporary theorists Postcards from Rio examines the complex relationship between citizenship and urban space in contemporary Rio de Janeiro By analyzing videos and photographs Kátia da Costa Bezerra illustrates how citizens of favelas are reshaping their sense of belonging as subjects and as a legitimate part of the city A groundbreaking study that examines more deeply the relationship between urban space citizenship and imagery originating in the favelas Postcards from Rio sheds crucial light on how contemporary lenses are defining and mediating the meanings of space and citizenship as strategies of empowerment The city emerges as a political space where multiplicities of perspectives are intertwined with demands for more inclusive forms of governance

Foundational Films Maite Conde, 2018-08-21 In her authoritative new book Maite Conde introduces readers to the crucial early years of Brazilian cinema Focusing on silent films released during the First Republic 1889-1930 Foundational Films explores how the medium became implicated in a larger project to transform Brazil into a modern nation Analyzing an array of cinematic forms from depictions of contemporary life and fan magazines to experimental avant garde productions Conde demonstrates the distinct ways in which Brazil's early film culture helped to project a new image of the country

Theorising National Cinema Valentina Vitali, Paul Willemsen, 2019-07-25 Why do we think of clusters of films as national cinema Why has the relationship between the nation and film become so widely and uncritically accepted Theorising National Cinema is a major contribution to work on national cinema by many of the leading scholars in the field It addresses the knotty and complex relationship between cinema and national identity showing that the nationality of a cinema production company and the films that it made have not always been seen as pertinent The volume begins by reviewing and rethinking the concept of national cinema in an age of globalisation and it goes on to chart the parallel developments of national film industries and the idea of a nation state in countries as diverse as Japan South Korea Russia France and Italy The issues of a national cinema for nation states of contested status with disputed borders or displaced peoples is discussed in relation to film making in Taiwan Ireland and Palestine The contributors also consider the future of national cinema in an age of trans national cultural flows exploring issues of national identity and cinema in Latin America Asia the Middle East India Africa and Europe Theorising National Cinema also includes a valuable bibliography of works on national cinema
