McCullough, 2022-02-08 From the author of the acclaimed Blood Water Paint a new contemporary YA novel in prose and verse about a girl struggling with guilt and a desire for revenge after her sister's rapist escapes with no prison time Em Morales's older sister was raped by another student after a frat party A jury eventually found the rapist guilty on all counts a remarkable verdict that Em felt more than a little responsible for since she was her sister's strongest advocate on social media during the trial Her passion and outspokenness helped dissuade the DA from settling for a plea deal Em's family would have real justice But the victory is short lived In a matter of minutes justice vanishes as the judge turns the Morales family's world upside down again by sentencing the rapist to no prison time While her family is stunned Em is literally sick with rage and guilt To make matters worse a news clip of her saying that the sentence makes her want to learn how to use a sword goes viral From this low point Em must find a new reason to go on and help her family heal and she finds it in the unlikely form of the story of a fifteenth century French noblewoman Marguerite de Bressieux who is legendary as an avenging knight for rape victims We Are the Ashes We Are the Fire is a searing and nuanced portrait of a young woman torn between a persistent desire for revenge and a burning need for hope The Works of Jacob Behmen: The mysterium magnum:
