Hope, Courage & Triumph Connie Bent,2016-06-06 Hope Courage Triumph is the story about one young widows journey through adventures and madness Determination and love were the key elements of her being as she struggled to face the demons of the illness of her husband Jerry Tragedy was no stranger No one knew what horrors lay behind the closed doors of her life yet hope drove her on One evening after work Jerry held her in his arm confessing his love to her Suddenly a glaze covers his eyes and a look of hatred across his face Looking at her he began talking weird about things she knew nothing of He said Ive heard that before You know what Im talking about She couldnt move The glaze left his face as suddenly as it came and moving toward her he said I love you more than life itself Hope drove her as she struggled to pull him out of the pits of hell An earlier marriage between two teenagers is also addressed in Hope Courage Triumph One day after I said I love you he squeezed my hand opened his eyes and looked directly at me No more joy for hope and courage are lost and there is not triumph

The Key Master Jonathan R Bacher,2023-01-04 The blending of fairy tale fiction and history is not unique in any way as time travel stories have been told many times and in a variety of ways It is the fascination of living within another realm that draws both the reader and writer into the mystical possibilities of fantasy That seductive potential of transformation into another time pulling one to follow a path that will lead into uncharted territories and a collision between their past and that of others before them In this sense each story carries with it its own relevance just as one s remembrance of the past and fear of the future is viewed in specific individual terms that are different for all of us Based upon the hatred that existed between the English and both the Dutch and Swedish settlers of the new Americas this story takes place in New Castle Delaware which played a pivotal but rather unknown role in our nation s history as the original center of colonial government prior to William Penn establishing Philadelphia as such Ironically it was in New Castle where William Penn first touched the shores of the nation that would become the United States of America As a thriving port enterprise New Castle served as the residence and meeting place for many who were involved with both the striving for independence and for some the ultimate signing of the Declaration of Independence Among them were Benjamin Franklin John Dickenson George Read and Thomas McKean When a man is given a special gift that will allow for him to travel through time he awakens in the year 1773 in his hometown of New Castle Delaware Through the course of routine circumstance he finds himself accepted by some yet deceived by others Remembering his past which is really his future he longs for a return to those associated with his life in the year 1986 The story becomes complicated when he learns that his close friend s family is descendant of a plot and murder that took place in 1777 This would be a plot that would question the very existence of the family name and all that they had acquired In the end he must now make a choice Perhaps the most difficult choice of his many life cycles Does he return to be with his wife and maintain a tarnished relationship Or does he remain in a period where potential for true love awaits him
