The First Hellcat Ace:

The First Hellcat Ace Cdr Hamilton McWhorter, Jay A Stout, 2024-03-15 Hamilton McWhorter was a WWII naval aviator and the first ever F6F Hellcat ace The First Hellcat Ace Hamilton McWhorter, Jay A. Stout, 2025-08-05 This memoir is a tribute to the author's service in World War II. It is a realistic look at the life of a carrier pilot eschewing any attempt at glory seeking instead delving into their concerns, duties and hardships. WWII History Magazine. Although he objected to being characterized as such, Hamilton McWhorter III's service to family and country make him a standout among America's Greatest Generation. A Georgia native whose family roots date from that region's settlement during the 1700s, Mac McWhorter was a naval aviation cadet undergoing training when Pearl Harbor was attacked by Japan on December 7, 1941. After earning his Wings of Gold in early 1942, Ensign McWhorter was trained as a fighter pilot in the robust but technologically outmoded F4F Wildcat. Initially assigned to VF-9, a fiercely spirited and hard playing fighter squadron, he saw first combat in November 1942 against Vichy French forces in North Africa. After returning to the United States, VF-9 became the first unit to convert to the new Grumman F6F Hellcat. This was the fighter the U.S. Navy would use to crush Japanese air power during the long offensive from the Southwest Pacific to the shores of Japan. From mid-1943, Hamilton McWhorter was constantly engaged in the unforgiving and deadly aerial warfare that characterized the battles against Imperial Japan. His fifth aerial victory in November 1943 off Tarawa Atoll made him the first ace in the Hellcat, and seven subsequent victories ensured his place in the annals of air-to-air combat. McWhorter's combat service from the beginning of the war to the last campaign off the shores of Okinawa makes his story a must read for the serious student of the Pacific air war. Hamilton McWhorter III retired from the Navy as a commander in 1969. He passed away in 2008. F6F Hellcat Aces of VF-9 Edward M. Young, 2014-03-20 In the course of two combat tours, VF-9 pilots shot down 250 Japanese aeroplanes and produced 20 aces. VF-9 was activated in March 1942 as part of Carrier Air Group CAG-9, one of the many air groups the US Navy was hurriedly forming in the aftermath of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. Equipped with Grumman F4F Wildcats, VF-9 first saw combat during the Allied invasion of North Africa in November 1942, where the squadron engaged Vichy French fighters over Morocco. Returning to the United States, VF-9 became one of the first squadrons to receive the Grumman F6F Hellcat and to deploy on the USS Essex, the first of its class of fleet carriers that would form the backbone of the US Navy's Fast Carrier Task Force. VF-9, the Hellcat, and the Essex all entered combat in the fall of 1943. This book details how, in the hands of the squadron's pilots and with other Navy fighter squadrons, the Hellcat proved superior to the Imperial Japanese Navy's A6M Zero, which had heretofore been the world's premier carrier fighter plane. F4F Wildcat and F6F Hellcat Aces of VF-2 Thomas McKelvey Cleaver, 2015-02-20 The first VF-2 was a prewar unit that had been dubbed the hottest outfit afloat due to the skill of their non-commissioned pilots. This first unit only saw combat at the Battle of the Coral Sea, although VF-2 pilots flying Grumman F4F Wildcats were able to rack up 17 claims there during the bitter 48-hour period.

of fighting The second Fighting Two was armed with the new Grumman F6F 3 Hellcat fighter Arriving in Hawaii in October 1943 the squadron so impressed Cdr Edward H Butch O Hare the Medal of Honor winning first US Navy ace of World War 2 that he requested the squadron replace VF 6 in his CAG 6 aboard USS Enterprise No unit US Navy unit created more aces than VF 2 whose pilots went into action over the Carolines Marianas Guam Iwo Jima and the Battle of the Philippine Sea Using exquisite photographs and first hand accounts from the elite fliers themselves this volume tells the story of the ace pilots who comprised the original VF 2 and the second The First Hellcat Ace Hamilton McWhorter, Jay A. Stout, 2009-09 After earning his Wings of Gold in early 1942 Ensign McWhorter was trained as a fighter pilot in the robust but technologically outmoded F4F Wildcat His fifth aerial victory in November 1943 off Tarawa Atoll made him the first ace in the Hellcat and seven subsequent victories ensured his place in the annals of air to air combat Aces In Combat Eric Hammel, 2020-12-05 ACES IN COMBAT The American Aces Speak Eric Hammel Adding to the acclaimed first four volumes of his exciting in the cockpit series The American Aces Speak leading combat historian Eric Hammel comes through with yet another engrossing collection of first person accounts by American fighter aces serving in World War II and the Korean War As are the four earlier volumes Aces In Combat is a highly charged excursion into life and death in the air told by men who excelled at piston engine and jet engine aerial combat and lived to tell about it It is an emotional rendering of what brave airmen felt and how they fought in the now dim days of America's living national history View the Battle of Midway through Lieutenant Jim Gray's eyes as he must balance the needs of fellow pilots against the needs of his nation Share the fear with Captain Charlie Sullivan as would be rescuers deep in the New Guinea jungle attempt to turn him into a blood sacrifice Crew a Canadian Mosquito night fighter as Lieutenant Lou Luma stalks the wily Hun and bags an ace over an airfield deep in Germany Share Lieutenant Bud Fortier's and Major George Loving's grief when on missions nearly eight years apart they look on helplessly as trusted wingmen dive to their deaths in treacherous ground attack runs And watch anxiously as Captain Tom Maloney hovers between life and death for ten lonely days after stepping on a mine on an enemy held beach These are America's eagles and the stories they tell are their own in their very own words Aces Against Japan Eric Hammel, 2020-12-05 ACES AGAINST JAPAN The American Aces Speak Eric Hammel In this superb originally conceived offering noted military historian Eric Hammel brings us first person accounts from thirty nine of the American fighter aces who blasted their way across the skies of the Pacific and East Asia from December 7 1941 until the final air battles over Japan itself in August 1945 Coupled with a clear view of America's far flung air war against Japan Hammel's detailed interviews bring out the most thrilling in the cockpit experiences of the air combat that the Pacific War's best Army Navy and Marine pilots have chosen to tell Meet Frank Holmes who defied death in an outmoded P 36 while still clad in a seersucker suit he had worn to mass earlier that morning Fly with Scott McCuskey as single handed at Midway he takes out two waves of Japanese dive bombers that are attacking his precious aircraft carrier Sweat out the last precious drops of fuel in a

Imperial Japanese Navy Aces 1937-45 Henry Sakaida, 2012-10-20 The outcome of the Pacific War was heavily influenced by the results of naval battles between the Imperial Japanese fleet and the US Navy One of the key elements was Japan's large fighter component which had gained experience over Manchuria China and Mongolia in the late 1930s Flying A5Ms at least 21 pilots achieved acesdom securing air superiority for the invaders Manufacturer Mitsubishi derived much from these campaigns producing one of the best fighters of the War the A6M Zero Sen Navy pilots proved to be highly skilled when engaged by the Allied forces This volume tells the story of pilots like Nishizawa Sagita and Sakai scoring more than 60 kills apiece
