The First Hundred:

The Life of Margaret Alice Murray Kathleen L. Sheppard, 2013-08-01 The Life of Margaret Alice Murray A Woman's Work in Archaeology is the first book length biography of Margaret Alice Murray 1863 1963 one of the first women to practice archeology Despite Murray's numerous professional successes her career has received little attention because she has been overshadowed by her mentor Sir Flinders Petrie This oversight has obscured the significance of her career including her fieldwork the students she trained her administration of the pioneering Egyptology Department at University College London UCL and her published works Rather than focusing on Murray's involvement in Petrie's archaeological program Kathleen L. Sheppard treats Murray as a practicing scientist with theories ideas and accomplishments of her own This book analyzes the life and career of Margaret Alice Murray as a teacher excavator scholar and popularizer of Egyptology archaeology anthropology linguistics and more Sheppard also analyzes areas outside of Murray's archaeology career including her involvement in the suffrage movement her work in folklore and witchcraft studies and her life after her official retirement from UCL

Understanding a New Presidency in the Age of Trump Joseph A. Pika, John Anthony Maltese, Andrew Rudalevige, 2017-11-10 From the authors of The Politics of the Presidency comes this new supplement examining the unprecedented administration of Donald J. Trump With their trademark balance between historical context the current political environment and contemporary scholarship on the executive branch Joseph A. Pika, John Anthony Maltese and Andrew Rudalevige offer students in American politics a brief but thorough overview of the Trump presidency's first year of office From the transition to the Russia investigation Understanding a New Presidency in the Age of Trump grounds the ongoing news cycle in a deeper analysis of the executive branch encouraging you to draw connections between current events and broader political science concepts Whether packaged with another CQ Press title or used on its own Understanding a New Presidency will give you the insight you need

Hair Jr., Michael Page, Niek Brunsveld, 2019-11-05 In an era of big data and data analytics how can managers make decisions based on almost unlimited information not to mention hiring and retaining individuals with the required data analytics skills The new fourth edition of Essentials of Business Research Methods explains research methods and analytical techniques for individuals who aren't data scientists The authors offer a straightforward hands on approach to the vital managerial process of gathering and using data to make relevant and timely business decisions They include critical topics such as the increasing role of online research ethical issues privacy matters data analytics customer relationship management how to conduct information gathering activities more effectively in a rapidly changing business environment and more This is also the only text that includes a chapter on qualitative data analysis and the coverage of quantitative data analysis is more extensive as well as much easier to understand than in other texts A realistic continuing case used throughout the book applied research examples and ethical dilemma mini cases enable upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students to see how business research information is used in the real world This comprehensive textbook is supported by a range of online resources including instructors manuals PowerPoint slides and test banks

The Fullness of Time Matthew S. Champion, 2017-11-13 Over the course of the fifteenth century the Low Countries transformed Europe's economic political and cultural life Innovative and influential cultural practices emerged across the region in flourishing courts towns religious houses guilds and confraternities Whether in visual culture music devotional practice or communal rituals the thriving cultures of the Low Countries wrestled with time both through explicit measurement and reflection and in the rhythms of social and religious life This book offers a deeper understanding of how time was structured and experienced by different constituencies through a series of detailed readings of diverse cultural objects and practices ranging from woodcuts and painted altarpieces to early print books and to the use of polyphony in the liturgy Individual chapters are devoted to life in the university towns of Louvain and Ghent the liturgical rituals at Cambrai Cathedral and the rich pageantry that marked the courts of Philip the Good and the new Burgundian rulers What emerges is a complex temporal landscape in which devotional and secular practices and experiences merged into a new fullness of time
