better trained crews many of which were provided by British units During the Confrontation many of these vital helicopter assets were flown by pilots and crews who had gained their knowledge and experience firsthand during the Malayan Emergency one of the Cold War s first flash points which had begun in 1948 Without doubt the Malayan Emergency marked the formative years of the RAF s and Royal Navy s helicopter operations the very early days in fact when equipment and knowledge were much more basic It was a time when operational procedures were still under development even though the helicopters were already being flown on front line service Told in the main through their own words by the RAF and Royal Navy air and ground crews involved this is the story of how these guinea pigs undertook many of Britain s first rotary wing combat operations and therefore cemented their rightful place in the history of the helicopter SAS: The First Secret Wars Tim Jones,2005-04-22 The covert clandestine operations of the Special Air Service Regiment SAS from the jungles of Malaya Borneo and Brunei to the deserts and mountains of the Middle East have always been the focus of intense fascination stoked by the regiment s closed organization and secretive activities Yet no period of activity has remained more secret than the vital years in the immediate aftermath of World War Two Official histories have it that the SAS was disbanded in October 1945 and it took the Malaya emergency to resurrect it However Tim Jones s fascinating history pieces together the evidence to show that while the Malaya emergency undoubtedly re established the SAS as a unique source of counter guerilla expertise the regiment never disbanded and was covertly involved in the Greek Civil War 1945 49 on the anti communist side Here the SAS fought its most important and difficult battle the battle for survival when salvation depended on a few dedicated visionaries and persistent champions The author draws upon a mass of unpublished evidence and also reveals hitherto unknown plans for SAS forces in Libya and Iraq as well as covert activities in Palestine Korea and Malaya Revealing important military secrets and shedding new light on post war history this book will be essential reading for enthusiasts of twentieth century and military history The First Anglo-Sikh War Amarpal Singh,2010-08-15 The definitive account of the First Anglo Sikh War with maps that shed light on the action as never before The First Days of Man Frederic Arnold Kummer,2020-08-03 Reproduction of the original The First Days of Man by Frederic Arnold Kummer The First Impulse Laurel Fantauzzo,2017-10-20 The First Impulse is about the still unsolved murder of Filipino Canadian film critic Alexis Tioseco and his girlfriend Slovenian film critic and magazine editor Nika Bohinc as retold by Laurel Fantauzzo This book recounts the love and life of Alexis and Nika the circumstances surrounding their murder in September 2009 the investigations and what happened for the people related to the couple before and after the incident aside from some commentary on the Philippine film industry Proceedings of the First International Congress of Parasitology Augusto Corradetti,2014-05-12 Proceedings of the First International Congress of Parasitology Volume One focuses on the advancements of processes methodologies approaches and reactions involved in parasitology The selection first offers information on the role of molluscan hosts in trematode speciation ecological analysis of the fluke fauna of birds in the USSR

digenetic trematodes of fishes as indicators of the ecology phylogeny and zoogeography of their hosts and aspects of the biology of a monogenean skin parasite The text then examines bacterial flora as one of the etiological factors influencing the establishment of parasites in the bowel of their host responses of helminths to temperature gradients and reservoir parasitism in helminths The publication takes a look at the physical and biochemical characteristics of helminth glycogens effect of insulin on glucose uptake and glycogen synthesis in the liver fluke Fasciola hepatica L regulation of glycogen synthesis in the liver fluke Fasciola hepatica L and changes in catalase activity during embryonation of Ascaris eggs and its relationship to respiration and cytochrome oxidase activity The selection is a vital reference for researchers interested in parasitology

Eastern Figures Douglas Kerr, 2008-06-01 Eastern Figures is a literary history with a difference It examines British writing about the East centred on India but radiating as far as Egypt and the Pacific in the colonial and postcolonial period It takes as its subject the East that was real to the British imagination largely the creation of writers who described and told stories about it descriptions and stories coloured by the experience of empire and its aftermath It is bold in its scope with a centre of gravity in the work of writers like Stevenson Kipling Conrad and Orwell but also covering less well known literary authors and including Anglo Indian romance writing the reports and memoirs of administrators and travel writing from Auden and Isherwood in China to Redmond O Hanlon in Borneo Eastern Figures produces a history of this writing by looking at a series of figures or tropes of representation through which successive writers sought to represent the East and the British experience of it tropes such as exploring the hinterland going native and the figure of rule itself Eastern Figures is accessible to anyone interested in the literary and cultural history of empire and its aftermath It will be of especial interest to students and scholars of colonial and postcolonial writing as it raises issues of identity and representation power and knowledge and centrally the question of how to represent other people It has original ideas and approaches to offer specialists in literary history of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries cultural historians and researchers in colonial discourse analysis postcolonial studies and Asian area studies and history It is also aimed at students in courses in literature and empire culture and imperialism and cross cultural studies

Training Indigenous Forces in Counterinsurgency James S. Corum,2006 The author examines the British experience in building and training indigenous police and military forces during the Malaya and Cyprus insurgencies These two insurgencies provide a dramatic contrast to the issue of training local security forces In Malaya the British developed a very successful strategy for training the Malayan Police and army In Cyprus the British strategy for building and training local security forces generally was ineffective The author argues that some important lessons can be drawn from these case studies that are directly applicable to current U S counterinsurgency doctrine
