The Flame and the Forsaken Sarah M. Cradit, 2024-12-10 A marriage neither wanted A passion too epic to deny Disappear into this magnetic tale of a stormy arranged marriage built on the backs of ruined lives and broken hearts Erran Rutland heir to the wealthiest region in the Southerlands would have surrendered his birthright for his first love until she was sold into a political marriage To alleviate the dishonor he brings upon his family when he tries to steal her back his father arranges a quick quiet betrothal with someone far beneath his station One day his heart is shattered the next he s married to the most unnerving woman he s ever met Mariel Ashdown is even more disgusted by the match The Rutlands and their lackeys first starved her people and then stole their land from under them leaving blight and death in their merciless wake From the heartache was born Obsidian Sky a band of rebels she founded at the young age of twelve They work under the subterfuge of darkness and masks slowly taking back everything pilfered from their people But her repulsive marriage affords her something they could never obtain on their own Access This next job could change everything but if they fail she and her five friends including her beloved brother will hang Erran is not the stupid dilettante she assumes him to be He s known from the start she s hiding something Motivated by the threat of being disowned if he cannot get his marriage in order he follows her one fateful morning and what he discovers he simply cannot believe Before he can even process it though she does something drastic to save her friends from the scaffold He s faced with a choice he has no time to ponder Though Mariel has offered her husband nothing but contempt Erran takes a leap of faith leaving them shipwrecked battered and fighting for their very survival The Flame and the Forsaken is an enemies to lovers female Robin Hood fantasy romance set in the Kingdom of the White Sea Universe featuring characters first introduced in The Sylvan and the Sand It is the second story in the Southerlands Cycle duology of The Book of All Things The Book of All Things is a series of fantasy romance tales set in the vibrant epic world first introduced by USA Today Bestselling Author Sarah M Cradit in the Kingdom of the White Sea trilogy

Jacques Tourneur Chris Fujiwara, 2015-05-07 At least three of director Jacques Tourneur s films Cat

People I Walked with a Zombie and The Leopard Man are recognized as horror classics Yet his contributions to these films are often minimized by scholars with most of the credit going to the films producer Val Lewton A detailed examination of the director s full body of work reveals that those elements most evident in the Tourneur Lewton collaborations the lack of monsters and the stylized use of suggested violence are equally apparent in Tourneur s films before and after his work with Lewton Mystery and sensuality were hallmarks of his style and he possessed a highly artistic visual and aural style This insightful critical study examines each of Tourneur s films as well as his extensive work on MGM shorts 1936 1942 and in television What emerges is evidence of a highly coherent directorial style that runs throughout Tourneur s works The Flame and the Arrow ,1950 Pressbook promoting the release of the 1950 motion picture The flame and the arrow Contains advertising material exploitation and publicity content and a small catalog of promotional materials Music in Films on the Middle Ages John Haines,2013-10-30 This book explores the role of music in the some five hundred feature length films on the Middle Ages produced between the late 1890s and the present day Haines focuses on the tension in these films between the surviving evidence for medieval music and the idiomatic tradition of cinematic music The latter is taken broadly as any musical sound occurring in a film from the clang of a bell off screen to a minstrel singing his song Medieval film music must be considered in the broader historical context of pre cinematic medievalisms and of medievalist cinema s main development in the course of the twentieth century as an American appropriation of European culture The book treats six pervasive moments that define the genre of medieval film the church tower bell the trumpet fanfare or horn call the music of banquets and courts the singing minstrel performances of Gregorian chant and the music that accompanies horse riding knights with each chapter visiting representative films as case studies These six signal musical moments that create a fundamental visual aural core central to making a film feel medieval to modern audiences originate in medievalist works predating cinema by some three centuries Ranshio T.D. Bent,2020-01-10 A meteorite filled with alien energy called Ranshio makes an impact landing on earth wiping out seventy five percent of the population The alien energy starts to infuse within the planet like a plague infecting creatures and humans alike with Ranshian Energy The ones that were infected are either granted with the ability to control one of the eight elements of Ranshio or are instantly transformed into creatures called fiends A young boy by the name of Koji Memotto has been infected by Ranshio and has been granted the ability to control the element fire In his travels He comes across various enemies along with many allies as he aims to further understand the mysteries of Ranshio and the history of the meteorite s collision With better understanding and knowledge of the power he holds he journeys to find the one responsible for the death of his father and the destruction of his city Fearing the Dark Edmund G. Bansak,2003-10-09 Cat People 1942 and I Walked with a Zombie 1943 established Val Lewton s hauntingly graceful style where suggestion was often used in place of explicit violence His stylish B thrillers were imitated by a generation of filmmakers such as Richard Wallace William Castle and even Walt Disney in his animated Adventures of Ichabod and Mr
