INTRODUCTION This book provides an encompassing analysis of Subject Clitics SCLs by giving a detailed description of these elements in two varieties of Piedmontese a Northern Italian Dialect Astigiano and Turinese spoken in the areas of Asti and Turin respectively It accounts for the structural position and function of these elements inside the computational system and for their morphological and distributional properties It also provides an empirical and theoretical comparison between Piedmontese SCLs and SCLs in other Northern Italian Dialects NIDs of SCLs types in the NIDs have been regarded as Since the 1980s the majority elements of agreement in that they contribute to the realisation of subject verb agreement by expressing features of the subject similar in a way to verbal inflection Nonetheless SCLs are not to be assimilated to verbal affixes as they exhibit different properties Most distinctively they can be separated from the verb by other clitic elements and in the case of the varieties considered here SCLs are optional in all contexts and may be omitted in coordination A more refined identification of SCLs separates SCLs which encode agreement features from those which do not and are related to pragmatic factors as originally observed by Beninca 1994 with respect to the clitic a in Paduano The different morphological and syntactic properties that characterise SCLs across the NIDs have justified numerous accounts which regard them as head of their own projection

Examines the Reading Room of the British Museum using documentary theoretical historical and literary sources Roomscape explores a specific site the Reading Room of the British Museum as a space of imaginative potential in relation to the emergence of modern women writers in Victorian and early twentieth century London Drawing on archival materials Roomscape is the first study to integrate documentary historical and literary sources to examine the significance of this space and its resources for women who wrote translations poetry and fiction This book challenges an assessment of the Reading Room of the British Museum as a bastion of class and gender privilege an image established by Virginia Woolf's A Room of One's Own Roomscape also questions the value of privacy and autonomy in constructions of female authorship Rather than viewing reading and writing as solitary Roomscape investigates the public social and spatial dimensions of literary production The implications of this study reach into the current digital era and its transformations of practices of reading writing and archiving Along with an appendix of notable readers at the British Museum from the last two centuries the book contributes to scholarship on George Eliot Amy Levy Eleanor Marx Clementina Black Constance Black Garnett Christina Rossetti Mathilde Blind and Virginia Woolf Good Furniture Magazine ,1926 Good Furniture and Decoration ,1927 The Economy of Renaissance Italy Paolo Malanima,2022-05-11 Drawing on a wide range of literature and adopting a macroeconomic approach this book provides a comprehensive overview of the Italian economy during the Renaissance focusing on the period between 1348 the year of the Black Death and 1630 The Italian Renaissance played a crucial role in the formation of the modern world with developments in culture art politics philosophy and science sitting alongside and overlapping with significant changes in production forms of organization trades finance agriculture and population Yet it is usually argued that splendour in culture coexisted with economic depression and that the modernity of Renaissance culture coincided with an epoch of epidemics famines economic crisis poverty and destitution This book examines both faces of the Italian economy during the Renaissance showing that capital per worker was plentiful and productive capacity and incomes were relatively high The endemic presence of the plague curbing population growth played an important role in this It is also shown that the organization of production in industry and finance consumerism human capital and mercantile rationality were the forerunners of modern day capitalism This book is an invaluable resource for scholars and students of the Renaissance and Italian economic history The Studio ,1905 The International Studio Charles Holme,Guy Eglington,Peyton Boswell,William Bernard McCormick,Henry James Whigham,1913
