Radulescu, Maria Stadter Fox, 2005-01-01 In a first of its kind collection The Theater of Teaching and the Lessons of Theater offers a riveting array of perspectives approaches and dialogues exploring the intersections between theater as text theater as performance and theater as pedagogy The essays in this book advance the idea that in their interactive qualities both teaching and theater have profoundly political and social dimensions Scholars and teachers from a variety of backgrounds present in this volume an intentionally improvisational and fluid examination meant to offer a model of how to discuss and engage in the practice of theater and teaching ultimately interweaving the two The Theater of Teaching will be equally useful to teachers students and practitioners of theater Disarming Words Shaden M. Tageldin, 2011-06-12 In a book that radically challenges conventional understandings of the dynamics of cultural imperialism Shaden M Tageldin unravels the complex relationship between translation and seduction in the colonial context She examines the afterlives of two occupations of Egypt by the French in 1798 and by the British in 1882 in a rich comparative analysis of acts fictions and theories that translated the European into the Egyptian the Arab or the Muslim Tageldin finds that the encounter with European Orientalism often invited colonized Egyptians to imagine themselves equal to or even masters of their colonizers and thus paradoxically to translate themselves toward virtually into the European Moving beyond the domination resistance binary that continues to govern understandings of colonial history Tageldin redefines cultural imperialism as a politics of translational seduction a politics that lures the colonized to seek power through empire rather than against it thereby repressing its inherent inequalities She considers among others the interplays of Napoleon and Hasan al Attar Rifa a al Tahtawi Silvestre de Sacy and Joseph Agoub Cromer Ali Mubarak Muhammad al Siba i and Thomas Carlyle Ibrahim Abd al Qadir al Mazini Muhammad Husayn Haykal and Ahmad Hasan al Zayyat and Salama Musa G Elliot Smith Naguib Mahfouz and Lawrence Durrell In conversation with new work on translation comparative literature imperialism and nationalism Tageldin engages postcolonial and poststructuralist theorists from Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak to Jean Baudrillard Walter Benjamin Emile Benveniste and Jacques Derrida The French Book and the European Book World Andrew Pettegree, 2007-09-30 This work offers a series of linked studies of European print culture in the sixteenth century focusing particularly on France and the regional provincial experience of print France in the sixteenth century was one of the great centres of the European publishing industry But in the second half of the century the established dominance of Paris and Lyon was increasingly challenged by other new printing centres stimulated in part by the religious and political crisis of the French Wars of Religion Drawing on the data collected by the St Andrews French book project the author reconstructs the enigmatic history of a number of previously unstudied printers The focus throughout is on popular print and the growth of mass market for news entertainment and religious instruction Customers interested in this title may also be interested in French Vernacular Books edited by Andrew Pettegree Malcolm Walsby and Alexander Wilkinson Jovial Bigotry Jana Verhoeven, 2012-03-15 This book revisits the debate over manners and morals that raged in France Britain and the United States in the late nineteenth century It was in essence a debate about gender and sexuality and one of the foremost figures in the transnational discussions was the French writer and lecturer Paul Blouet alias Max O Rell 1847 1903 Although largely forgotten today O Rell deserves remembrance as a major phenomenon of the fin de siècle publishing and entertainment world A Frenchman living in England but catering primarily to the American market he disseminated national and gender stereotypes in an unprecedented way Admired for the wit deployed in his lectures and his many best selling books he is a colorful exemplar of the many bourgeois commentators male and female most of them with mainstream political social and cultural views who engaged in these discussions producing dense webs of assertion and opinion across countries and even continents The elegant French salonniers the independent but trustworthy English girl the bitter American spinster activist meddling in public affairs these are just a few examples of the many caricatural representations of women thrust into the debate Max O Rell and his fellow observers commented on women's position in family and society their partnership in the couple their education their sexual fulfillment their right to paid work aspects of social etiquette feminism domestic abuse adultery and prostitution There were frequent disagreements and sometimes hostile exchanges but this analysis of the debate reveals a fundamentally common outlook among its participants an agreement on patriarchy as the foundation of bourgeois society and on the necessity to confine women in carefully stereotyped roles
