The French Revolution And Intellectual History:

The French Revolution and Intellectual History Jack Richard Censer, 1989-01-01 Revolutionary Ideas Jonathan Israel, 2015-09-22 Historians of the French Revolution used to take for granted what was also obvious to its contemporary observers that the Revolution was caused by the radical ideas of the Enlightenment Yet in recent decades scholars have argued that the Revolution was brought about by social forces politics economics or culture almost anything but abstract notions like liberty or equality In Revolutionary Ideas one of the world's leading historians of the Enlightenment restores the Revolution's intellectual history to its rightful central role Drawing widely on primary sources Jonathan Israel shows how the Revolution was set in motion by radical eighteenth century doctrines how these ideas divided revolutionary leaders into vehemently opposed ideological blocs and how these clashes drove the turning points of the Revolution Revolutionary Ideas demonstrates that the Revolution was really three different revolutions vying for supremacy a conflict between constitutional monarchists such as Lafayette who advocated moderate Enlightenment ideas democratic republicans allied to Tom Paine who fought for Radical Enlightenment ideas and authoritarian populists such as Robespierre who violently rejected key Enlightenment ideas and should ultimately be seen as Counter Enlightenment figures The book tells how the fierce rivalry between these groups shaped the course of the Revolution from the Declaration of Rights through liberal monarchism and democratic republicanism to the Terror and the Post Thermidor reaction In this compelling account the French Revolution stands once again as a culmination of the emancipatory and democratic ideals of the Enlightenment That it ended in the Terror represented a betrayal of those ideas not their fulfillment book jacket Revolution Enzo Traverso, 2021-10-19 Brilliant and beautiful Now this book exists it's hard to know how we did without it China Miéville author of October A cultural and intellectual balance sheet of the twentieth century's age of revolutions This book reinterprets the history of nineteenth and twentieth century revolutions by composing a constellation of dialectical images Marx's locomotives of history Alexandra Kollontai's sexually liberated bodies Lenin's mummified body Auguste Blanqui's barricades and red flags the Paris Commune's demolition of the Vendôme Column among several others It connects theories with the existential trajectories of the thinkers who elaborated them by sketching the diverse profiles of revolutionary intellectuals from Marx and Bakunin to Luxemburg and the Bolsheviks from Mao and Ho Chi Minh to Jos Carlos Mariátegui C. L. R. James and other rebellious spirits from the South as outcasts and pariahs And finally it analyzes the entanglement between revolution and communism that so deeply shaped the history of the twentieth century This book thus merges ideas and representations by devoting an equal importance to theoretical and iconographic sources offering for our troubled present a new intellectual history of the revolutionary past French Political and Intellectual History Samuel Bernstein, In this collection of remarkable essays initially published in 1955 and now available in paperback for the first time Samuel Bernstein elucidates the meaning of human striving for improvement with regard to the problems raised by one of the most turbulent periods of history Written with profound conviction and literary acumen these essays will give the reader in the author's words a sense of a kinship of ideas and the mutual sympathies of peoples in matters concerning human betterment These essays represent the fruits of twenty years of careful research in the political and intellectual history of the Atlantic civilization particularly as it relates to the leading movements and men of France Bernstein's expert knowledge of the history of political movements and social policies places him among the ranking authorities in that field Contents Marat Friend of the People Robespierre and the Problem of War British Jacobinism Jefferson on the French Revolution Babeuf and Babouvism Saint Simon's Philosophy of History From Social Utopia to Social Science French Democracy and the American Civil War The First International in France 1964 1871 The Paris Commune The American Press Views the Commune The First International and a New Holy Alliance Kropotkin, Read, and the Intellectual History of British Anarchism M. intellectuals the question of their conceiving a specific liberal approach through Catholicism is also investigated More generally it prompts a vital reappraisal of the political ideological and philosophical pressures that the religious question caused in the redefinition of Western European post revolutionary liberalism

Islam, Orientalism and Intellectual History Mohammad R. Salama, 2011-03-30 Debates on the relationship between Islam and the West rage on from talk of clashing civilizations to political pacification from ethical and historical perspectives to distrust xenophobia and fear Here Mohammad Salama argues that the events of 9 11 force us to engage ourselves fully without preconditions in understanding not just the history of Islam as a religion but of Islam as a historical condition that has existed in relationship to the West since the seventh century Salama compares the Arab Islamic and European traditions of historical thought since the early modern period focusing on the watershed moments that informed the two traditions ideas of intellectual history and perceptions of one another He draws attention to European intellectual history s entangled links with the Islamic philosophy of history especially the complexities of orientalism and modernity Recent critical reflections on the work of Ibn Khald n confirm this intertwined and troubled relationship reflecting major disparities and contradictions At the same time recent Arab writings on Europe s intellectual history reveal a struggle against erasure and intellectual superiority Calling for a new understanding of the relationship between Islam and the West Salama argues that Islam has played a major role in enabling and positioning various paths of Western historiography at crucial moments of its development leaving palpable imprints on Islamic historiography in the process He proposes an answer to a fundamental question how to make sense of the mechanics of production in Arab Islamic and Western historiographies or how to identify the ways in which they have both failed to make sense of themselves and of each other in an increasingly disenchanted postnationalist world Spanning an impressive array of recent writings on these themes as well as older foundational texts in both traditions including al Tabar Ibn Khald n Hegel al Jabart Toynbee Foucault Edward Said and Hourani this book is both timely and crucial for all those interested in Islamic and Middle Eastern studies Western and Islamic philosophies of history modernity and the relationship between Islam and the West

Palti,2024-05-09 How does long term intellectual change occur Can we develop a theoretical framework for understanding past systems of knowledge In this ambitious study El as Jos Palti seeks to reassess the main concepts in the field of intellectual history Evaluating modes of thought from the seventeenth century to the present this book aims to prevent an anachronistic understanding of the texts of the past Palti rejects the idea of conceptual change as a coherent process deriving from one single source Instead he offers a convincing explanation of converging developments emanating from three different sources namely the Cambridge school the German school of conceptual history or Begriffsgeschichte and French politico conceptual history Intellectual History and the Problem of Conceptual Change also closely examines the temporality of concepts questioning how and why political languages mutate European Intellectual History from Rousseau to Nietzsche Frank M. The Austrian Dimension in German Intellectual History David S. Luft, 2021-05-20

Tracing Austrian intellectual life from Maria Theresa to Hitler's annexation of Austria and Czechoslovakia, this innovative book offers a precise and engaging account of Austrian intellectual history since the Enlightenment. Here David S. Luft begins by locating his narrative in the region known as Cisleithanian Austria, the area to the west of the Leitha River that was the basis for the modern Austrian state after 1740. Chapter 2 provides a history of the German-speaking intellectual life of these central lands of the Habsburg Monarchy, Austria and Bohemia, from the Enlightenment to annexation by Nazi Germany. Chapters 3 to 5 identify the most important philosophers, writers and social thinkers who contributed to Austrian intellectual life in the period between 1740 and 1938/1939 and address the intellectual significance of their work. Elegantly written and meticulously researched, Luft's book brings out the contributions of major figures such as Wittgenstein, Hofmannsthal, Musil, Kafka, Rilke and Freud, but also draws attention to less well-known figures such as Bolzano, Brentano, Grillparzer, Stifter, Broch and Hayek.
