Unthinking Modernity Judith Stamps, 1995 In Unthinking Modernity Judith Stamps reinterprets the communications theory of Harold Innis and Marshall McLuhan as a Canadian variant of the critical theory associated with the early Frankfurt school Stamps argues that Innis and McLuhan used their studies of media to develop a critique of the thoughts and habits that characterize the West Like their European contemporaries Innis and McLuhan worked toward a theory of how westerners have developed classifications through which they perceive the world Moreover Stamps shows that they used insights derived from their North American experience to add a new media based perspective to such a theory Unthinking Modernity offers unique perspectives on the ways in which economics politics and
