Hubin, 1984      Time, 1979-04      Our Missing Mike Smitley, 2012-01-03 For anyone who has ever raised a child there is a deep subconscious anxiety that lingers just under the surface of every joy and triumph That fear is the constant threat to that child from a multitude of sources such as accident illness corruption and most of all the threat of abduction To varying degrees we in America have become desensitized to the barrage of crime and corruption that bombard

us daily in the media but all ears perk up when it involved the disappearance of a small child Jon Lowe is one of those parents who is living the hell that we all dread His son Tommy is taken from his mother in a crowded mall thrusting both parents into a nightmare that never seems to end To add to his frustration Jon is a police officer and knows all too well the flaws of the justice system and the myriad of complexities that hamstring searchers for these lost children He is also aware of the heartbreaking fate that many of these children suffer Walk with Jon as he fights his way through the nightmare that all parents pray will never happen See first hand from inside the investigation how cleverly a cunning murderer can capitalize on the complacency of others and quickly put even grown adults under his control     Terrorism, 2002-2004 Edward F.
