The Gift in the Heart of Language Genevieve Vaughan, 2015-05-15T00:00:00+02:00 Genevieve Vaughan offers a paradigm shifting view of the structure of material and verbal communication based on mother child experience and confirmed by recent research in infant psychology This view justifies a relational epistemology that informs the material gift economy as well as the structure of language itself Provisioning economies give value to the receivers and the circulation of gifts consolidates community Understanding language as verbal gifting unites other orientation with reason to liberate us from biopathic patriarchal conceptions of humanity Sketched against this background Vaughan introduces a conception of monetized exchange as a gift denying and expropriating psychological mechanism which is an unintended collective by product of verbal communication This view stands as a warning against visions of the future in which the institutions of money and the market can be fixed to be more caring and sanitized business as usual can halt the destruction of Mother Earth Rather a gift economy which takes as its model the mother child interaction the gifting in language and the gifting in mother centered societies provides hope for a positive future

Straight to the Heart Daniel Blackaby, Mike Blackaby, 2024-08-06 Our approach to apologetics needs to change when the very idea of truth is controversial But as authors Daniel Blackaby and Mike Blackaby teach us we can still reach people if we understand what they value most This practical guide to our current landscape explores five effective communication pathways Story As people wired for narrative we can speak through the stories we live and tell Beauty In an increasingly industrialized world we can point people to pockets of beauty that reveal the attractiveness of God Art In a society that celebrates the arts we can cultivate creativity in the church then send artists out as cultural missionaries Desire To a people motivated by love identity and purpose we can show how Jesus is the perfect fulfillment of our deepest longings Community As relational creatures where connectivity is disappearing we can offer a community of unified diversity Culture may be in flux but God's Word remains true Straight to the Heart helps us speak to the passions that drive our culture
