The Architecture of the Soul Albert J. LaChance, 2005-12-08 The Architecture of the Soul introduces and maps out a model of the human person that represents a new way of interpreting and treating human and by extension global dysfunction Arising from the transpersonal and integral schools of psychology this model provides an alternative to the view of the human person as a product of brain chemistry whose dysfunctional behavior can be treated through pharmaceuticals and traditional psychology Based on the author's years of clinical experience treating addiction the book posits a human psyche made up of three zones of awareness The first two are reached by present day psychology focusing on cognitive and affective disorders and therapies that treat addictive disorders The crucial third zone called Tertiary Awareness is the rudder of the human personality that contains deep bio and eco wisdoms that must be brought to consciousness and cultivated In explaining how to integrate self and spirit the author demonstrates how people must be made aware of this zone if we are to survive as a species and a planet

The Sloth Lemur's Song Alison Richard, 2024-05-31 A moving account of Madagascar told by a researcher who has spent over fifty years investigating the mysteries of this remarkable island Madagascar is a place of change A biodiversity hotspot and the fourth largest island on the planet it has been home to a spectacular parade of animals from giant flightless birds and giant tortoises on the ground to agile lemurs leaping through the treetops Some species live on many have vanished in the distant or recent past Over vast stretches of time Madagascar's forests have expanded and contracted in response to shifting climates and the hand of people is clear in changes during the last thousand years or so Today Madagascar is a microcosm of global trends What happens there in the decades ahead can perhaps suggest ways to help turn the tide on the environmental crisis now sweeping the world The Sloth Lemur's Song is a far reaching account of Madagascar's past and present led by an expert guide who has immersed herself in research and conservation activities with village communities on the island for nearly fifty years Alison Richard accompanies the reader on a journey through space and time from Madagascar's ancient origins as a landlocked region of Gondwana and its emergence as an island to the modern day developments that make the survival of its array of plants and animals increasingly uncertain Weaving together scientific evidence with Richard's own experiences and exploring the power of stories to shape our understanding of events this book captures the magic as well as the tensions that swirl around this island nation
