Computer-assisted Investigative Reporting Margaret H. DeFleur, 2013-11-26 Conducting computer analyses for the purposes of revealing information of significance to the press represents an extension of one of the most important forms of American journalism into the contemporary era of new technologies Investigative reporting had its start with the establishment of the metropolitan newspaper during the early decades of the 1900s At the time it was a continuation of the evolving tradition of freedom of the press that had characterized American political life since colonial times As it developed investigative reporting stressed facts rather than the opinions of the editor or reporter In turn that tradition had its own intellectual roots Today computer assisted investigative reporting CAIR extends that marketplace of ideas into systematic examinations of the electronic records of government In addition computer analyses of other kinds of information systematically gathered by journalists can provide the press with insights into trends and patterns unlikely to be revealed by other means This unique volume addresses procedures and issues in investigative journalism that have not been explained in other publications It sets forth for the first time a detailed and specific methodology for conducting computer assisted investigative analyses of both large and small scale electronic records of government and other agencies That methodology consists of the logic of inquiry strategies for reaching valid conclusions and rules for reporting what has been revealed by the analyses to the public in clear ways Such systematic methodologies are essential in social and other sciences and the development of a counterpart for investigative journalism has been badly needed That systematic methodology is developed within a context that explains the origin and major characteristics of those elements that have come together in American society to make computer assisted investigative reporting both possible and increasingly a part of standard newsroom practices These include the development of traditional investigative journalism the evolution of computer technology the use of computers by government to keep records the legal evolution of freedom of information laws the rapid adoption of computers in newsrooms the increasing importance of precision journalism and the sharp increase in recent times of computer assisted investigative reporting by American newspapers both large and small The issues addressed in this book are discussed in a very readable context with an abundance of examples and illustrations drawn from the real world of journalism as it is practiced daily in newsrooms around the country Explanations of concepts principles and procedures are set forth in layperson s terms that require very little in the way of knowledge of computers or statistical methods New Federal Courthouse, Seattle ,1998 The Tip of the Sword H. Eddie Fields, 2025-06-18 The religious and faithful aspect of our Christian forefathers fight for freedom is a fascinating struggle especially when studied from the proper perspective The facts demonstrate God s hand and influence upon the colonies and our nation s founders It is a history that should be diligently studied and understood How can we as a nation ever determine where we are going if we do not understand our past How do we grasp and hold onto our nation s fundamental beliefs values and principles if we do not understand what they are or how they came to be Do not our beliefs values and principles make us this great nation that has been blessed by Almighty God All Americans should know their forefathers pursued liberty and fought for reasons far beyond economic freedom and political power American secular historians who simply list a desire for religious freedom as one of many causes of the revolution fail us at every level of understanding the persecution that colonists endured Consider the majesty and faith of the words of the founding fathers in the profound commitment of the signatories at the end of the Declaration of Independence And for the support of this Declaration with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence we mutually pledge to each other our lives our fortunes and our sacred honor There is no question upon whom they relied and no doubt about their faith or commitment to one another The early American statesman Daniel Webster clearly and concisely stated his beliefs when he said History is God s providence in human affairs Webster could never have conceived that anyone would write a history excluding God from the story If it is truthful history must acknowledge God s role in it That is the driving theme in this history of the pioneers patriots and preachers of Sinking Creek Baptist Church and the Watauga Settlement It is my hope that every reader will recognize and embrace the influence of God in the lives and circumstances of our founding fathers
