The Female Eunuch Germaine Greer (journaliste et féministe australienne).),1970 Critical Childhood Studies and the Practice of Interdisciplinarity Joanne Faulkner,Magdalena Zolkos,2015-12-14 This book analyzes different figurations of childhood in contemporary culture and politics with a particular focus on interdisciplinary methodologies of critical childhood studies It argues that while the figure of the child has been traditionally located at the peripheries of academic disciplines perhaps most notably in history sociology and literature the proposed critical discussions of the ideological symbolic and affective roles that children play in contemporary societies suggest that they are often the locus of larger societal crises collective psychic tensions and unspoken prohibitions and taboos As such this book brings into focus the prejudices against childhood embedded in our standard approaches to organizing knowledge and asks is there a natural disciplinary home for the study of childhood Or is this field fundamentally interdisciplinary peripheral or problematic to notions of disciplinary identity In this respect does childhood force innovation in thinking about disciplinarity For instance how does the analysis of childhood affect how we think about methodology What role do understandings of childhood play in delimiting how we conceive of our society our future and ourselves How does thinking about childhood affect how we think about culture history and politics This book brings together researchers working broadly in critical child studies but from various disciplines in the humanities and social sciences including philosophy literary studies sociology cultural studies and history in order to stage a conversation between these diverse perspectives on the disciplinary or interdisciplinary character of the child as an object of research Such conversation builds on the assumption that childhood far from being marginal is a topic that is hidden in plain sight That is to say while the child is always a presence in culture history literature and philosophy and is often even a highly charged figure within those fields its operation and effects are rarely theoretically scrutinized but rather are more likely drawn upon surreptitiously for another purpose The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage,1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing Magritte Alex Danchev,2021-11-30 The first major biography of the pathbreaking perpetually influential surrealist artist and iconoclast whose inspiration can be seen in everyone from Jasper Johns to Beyonc by the celebrated biographer of C zanne and Braque In this thought provoking life of Ren Magritte 1898 1967 Alex Danchev makes a compelling case for Magritte as the single most significant purveyor of images to the modern world Magritte s surreal sensibility deadpan melodrama and fine tuned outrageousness have become an inescapable part of our visual landscape through such legendary works as The Treachery of Images Ceci n est pas une pipe and his celebrated iterations of Man in a Bowler Hat Danchev explores the path of this highly unconventional artist from his middle class Belgian beginnings to the years during which he led a small brilliant band of surrealists and famously clashed with Andr Breton to his first major retrospective which traveled to the United States in 1965 and gave rise to his international reputation Using 50 color images and more than 160 black and white illustrations Danchev delves deeply into Magritte s artistic development and the profound questions he raised in his work about the very nature of authenticity This is a vital biography for our time that plumbs the mystery of an iconoclast whose influence can be seen in everyone from Jasper Johns to Beyonc The female eunuch. Chinese ,1991 , Women's Movement Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson,2000 Women s Movement critically explores the transgressive potential of feminist escape narratives and argues that they are almost by definition radically different from paradigmatic male escape narratives While definitions of escape are necessarily broad they have too often excluded the ambiguous escape the escape most closely associated with the female Indeed feminist escape narratives often resist a happy ending and Women s Movement argues that these narrative closures reflect the changing face of feminism as it sheds its old certainties is faced with a monumental backlash and is refigured as the potentially less threatening postfeminism Resisting the automatic association of escape with escapist Women s Movement analyzes male adventure and quest narratives including Moby Dick The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Blood Meridian and Deliverance before turning to a range of feminist texts While being the first book to give critical attention to some postfeminist novels Women s Movement more often acts as a channel for offering different ways of approaching familiar feminist texts including among others Marian Engel s Bear Atwood s Surfacing and The Handmaid s Tale Joan Barfoot s Gaining Ground and Dancing in the Dark Anne Tyler s Earthly Possessions and Ladder of Years Marilynne Robinson s Housekeeping Erica Jong s Fear of Flying and Margaret Laurence s The Diviners The Age of Female Eunuchs Syed Amanuddin,1974 Navigating Across Emotional Ecologies in the Narratives of Ru Freeman, Faiqa Mansab, and Chitra B.
