The Films Of Robert Bresson Movie Paperbacks:

The Films of Robert Bresson Ian Alexander Cameron, 1969 Robert Bresson Tony Pipolo, 2010-01-19 Perhaps the most highly regarded French filmmaker after Jean Renoir Robert Bresson created a new kind of cinema through meticulous refinement of the form's grammatical and expressive possibilities In thirteen features over a forty year career he held to an uncompromising moral vision and aesthetic rigor that remain unmatched Robert Bresson A Passion for Film is the first comprehensive study to give equal attention to the films their literary sources and psycho biographical aspects of the work Concentrating on the films cinematographic imagistic narrative and thematic structures Pipolo provides a nuanced analysis of each film including nearly 100 illustrations elucidating Bresson's unique style as it evolved from the impassioned Les Anges du péché to such disconsolate meditations on the world as The Devil Probably and L'Argent Special attention is also given to psychosexual aspects of the films that are usually neglected Bresson has long needed a thoroughgoing treatment by a critic worthy to the task he gets it here From it emerges a provocative portrait of an extraordinary artist whose moral engagement and devotion to the craft of filmmaking are without equal The films of Robert Bresson Robert Bresson, 1969 Notes on the Cinematograph Robert Bresson, 2016-11-15 The French film director Robert Bresson was one of the great artists of the twentieth century and among the most radical original and radiant stylists of any time He worked with nonprofessional actors models as he called them and deployed a starkly limited but hypnotic array of sounds and images to produce such classic works as A Man Escaped Pickpocket Diary of a Country Priest and Lancelot of the Lake From the beginning to the end of his career Bresson dedicated himself to making movies in which nothing is superfluous and everything is always at stake Notes on the Cinematograph distills the essence of Bresson's theory and practice as a filmmaker and artist He discusses the fundamental differences between theater and film parses the deep grammar of silence music and noise and affirms the mysterious power of the image to unlock the human soul This book indispensable for admirers of this great director and for students of the cinema will also prove an inspiration much like Rilke's Letters to a Young Poet for anyone who responds to the claims of the imagination at its most searching and rigorous The Films of Robert Bresson Bert Cardullo, 2009 The Films of Robert Bresson A Casebook spans Bresson's entire career with interviews and essays addressing the great auteur's oeuvre from every artistic angle The interviews presented here by such noted cineastes as Jean Luc Godard Paul Schrader and David Thomson elicited authorial comment from an auteur not known for his garrulousness and they are either as aesthetically inclusive or as journalistically pointed as possible For their part the essays in this volume are by such luminous figures as Andr  Bazin Susan Sontag and Fran ois Truffaut Each interview is followed either by an essay on the film discussed in the interview an essay on Bresson's work by the interviewer himself or an essayistic overview of Bresson's career when the preceding interview itself is survey like In this way the book bounces the essays and interviews off one another so as to stimulate a kind of semi continuous critical conversation about the films their maker and the interviewers themselves The result is something that may be as good as criticism itself enlightened authorial comment Film – An International Bibliography Malte Hagener, Michael Töteberg, 2016-12-16 Kommentierte Bibliografie Sie gibt Wissenschaftlern Studierenden und Journalisten zuverlässig Auskunft über rund 6000 internationale Veröffentlichungen zum Thema Film und Medien Die vorgestellten Rubriken reichen von Nachschlagewerk über Filmgeschichte bis hin zu Fernsehen Video Multimedia Robert Bresson, a Guide to References and Resources Jane Sloan, 1983

Script catalogue. Subject catalogue. Personality index. Film index British Film Institute. Library, 1975 The Holy Grail on Film Kevin J. Harty, 2015-02-28 This collection of new essays is the first to study film depictions of the quest for the Holy Grail the holy Christian relic of legend supposedly used by Jesus at the Last Supper Scholars from a range of disciplines discuss American Australian and European films that offer fresh perspectives on this enduring myth of the

Arthurian world and Western culture including The Silver Chalice 1954 Monty Python and the Holy Grail 1975 Excalibur 1981 The Road Warrior 1981 Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade 1989 The Fisher King 1991 The Da Vinci Code 2006 The Waterboy 1998 and Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Undead 2009 Cinema at the Margins Wheeler Dixon, 2013-12

More and more just a few canonical classics such as Michael Curtiz's Casablanca 1942 or Victor Fleming's Gone With The Wind 1939 are representing the entire film output of an era to a new generation that knows little of the past and is encouraged by popular media to live only in the eternal present. What will happen to the rest of the films that enchanted informed and transported audiences in the 1930s 1940s and even as recently as the 1960s? This collection of essays aims to highlight some of the lesser known treasures of the past, those titles that have been pushed aside by today's wave of cinema amnesia.

General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1971 Susan Sontag Leland Poague, Kathy A. Parsons, 2021-12-12

Susan Sontag: An Annotated Bibliography catalogues the works of one of America's most prolific and important 20th century authors. Known for her philosophical writings on American culture, topics left untouched by Sontag's writings are few and far between. This volume is an exhaustive collection that includes her novels, essays, reviews, films, and interviews. Each entry is accompanied by an annotated bibliography.

Religion in Film John R. May, Michael S. Bird, 1982

This carefully edited collection of essays explores in greater diversity and depth than has been attempted before the relationship between film and religion. Combining perspectives from traditional film criticism and from religious studies, Religion in Film asserts that it is no longer possible to view films simply in terms of their moral impact, nor is it reasonable to limit religious meaning only to those films that make an explicit appeal to religious elements. The essays offer a variety of theoretical reflections on the religious interpretation of film, explore particular cinematic variations on the archetypal images of savior and demon, analyze significant cultural trends of a religious nature related to film, and assess thirteen sensibilities: Altman, Bergman, Bunuel, Chaplin, Coppola, Fellini, Hitchcock, Jutra, Kubrick, Peckinpah, Russell, Truffaut, and Wertmuller. The contributors provide a firm basis for analysis while respecting a variety in interpretation. As the overall structure of the book leads from the universal to the particular, from theory to individual directors and films, so its concern with religious interpretation flows naturally from the universally religious to particular religious worldviews. Among world religions, Christianity claims attention in proportion to its dominant cultural influence in the West, where film has more obviously flourished. The insights and interpretations presented in these essays will be of importance to cinema scholars, film critics, and students of religion, and of interest to film buffs, particularly those who are sensible of the religious dimension of films.

In Love with Movies Daniel Talbot, 2022-04-13

All that I do is go out and look at films and choose the ones I want to play. Films that stimulate and give some insight into our lives. I hope that people will come, but if they don't, that's okay too. Daniel Talbot changed the way the Upper West Side and art house audiences around the world went to the movies. In Love with Movies is his memoir of a rich life as the impresario of the legendary Manhattan theaters he owned and operated and as a highly influential film distributor Talbot and his wife Toby opened the New Yorker Theater in 1960 cultivating a loyal audience of film buffs and cinephiles He went on to run several theaters including Lincoln Plaza Cinemas as well as the distribution company New Yorker Films shaping the sensibilities of generations of moviegoers The Talbots introduced American audiences to cutting edge foreign and independent filmmaking including the French New Wave and New German Cinema In this lively personal history of a bygone age of film exhibition Talbot relates how he discovered and selected films including future classics such as Before the Revolution Shoah My Dinner with Andre and The Marriage of Maria Braun He reminisces about leading world directors such as Semb ne Godard Fassbinder Wenders Varda and Kiarostami as well as industry colleagues with whom he made deals on a slip of paper or a handshake In Love with Movies is an intimate portrait of a tastemaker who was willing to take risks It not only lays out the nuts and bolts of running a theater but also tells the story of a young cinephile who turned his passion into a vibrant cultural community

Eastern Approaches to Western Film Stephen Teo, 2019-07-11 Eastern Approaches to Western Film Asian Aesthetics and Reception in Cinema offers a renewed critical outlook on Western classic film directly from the pantheon of European and American masters including Alfred Hitchcock George Lucas Robert Bresson Carl Dreyer Jean Pierre Melville John Ford Leo McCarey Sam Peckinpah and Orson Welles The book contributes an Eastern Approach into the critical studies of Western films by reappraising selected films of these masters matching and comparing their visions themes and ideas with the philosophical and paradigmatic principles of the East It traces Eastern inscriptions and signs embedded within these films as well as their social lifestyle values and other concepts that are also inherently Eastern As such the book represents an effort to reformulate established discourses on Western cinema that are overwhelmingly Eurocentric Although it seeks to inject an alternative perspective the ultimate aim is to reach a balance of East and West By focusing on Eastern aesthetic and philosophical influences in Western films the book suggests that there is a much more thorough integration of East and West than previously thought or imagined
