Book of Revelation and Its Interpreters Ian Boxall, Richard Tresley, 2015-11-25 The Book of Revelation has fired the imaginations of theologians preachers artists and ordinary Christians across the centuries The resulting number of commentaries on the book is enormous and most studies can only touch upon at most a representative sample of this vast literature As a consequence many focus largely on the interpretation of the Apocalypse only within specific periods such as the patristic period or during the Reformation One result of this severe limitation given the vast literary corpus is how historical interpretations in critical commentaries of the Book of Revelations tend to prioritize authors from the modern period In The Book of Revelation and Its Interpreters Short Studies and an Annotated Bibliography editors Richard Tresley and Ian Boxall fill a significant gap in the scholarly literature At its heart is an extensive annotated bibliography covering commentaries on the book up to 1700 including most of the early illuminated Apocalypses Supporting the presentation of this survey of the historical interpretations of the Book of Revelation is an extended overview of Revelation's often colorful reception history by Christopher Rowland together with a number of short studies on various aspects of the book These include discussions of specific commentators such as Sean Michael Ryan's look at Tyconius and Francis X Gumerlock's exploration of Chromatius of Aquileia alongside a more general treatment of Revelation's impact on the figure of John of Patmos in an essay by Ian Boxall and the visual reception of Revelation in Natasha O'Hear's article The Book of Revelation and Its Interpreters provides a valuable bibliographical resource for those working in the field of Biblical Studies history of Christianity eschatology and apocalyptic studies The accompanying essays orient the authors recorded in the bibliography within a larger context offering specific examples of the Apocalypse's capacity to speak in fresh and often surprising ways to diverse audiences throughout history In the Shadow of Jezebel (Treasures of His Love Book #4) Mesu

The Book of Popular Science, 1926 The Scroll and Horsemen of the Book of Revelation Al Danks, 2020-02-04
God gave Jesus a revelation to show his servants things which must come to pass. In the revelation we see a scroll written on the inside and on the outside sealed with seven seals. As each of the first four seals are opened, we see a horseman. What is the scroll? Who or what are the horsemen? How will we discern what or who they are? How will we know we have discerned correctly? Many others have attempted to identify the scroll and horsemen. This book will not attempt to refute each and every identification they have made nor discuss every possible identification. The approach is to show that the evidence fits a single scroll and a single set of horsemen. If this approach is successful, then it will effectively rule out all other scrolls and horsemen. This book will not attempt to discuss the first horseman's bow and the green color of the fourth horseman, as there is too little information available to discern them. The scroll will be identified first using the evidence regarding the scroll. Then each horseman will be identified using the evidence regarding each horseman. The question about discerning correctly will be answered by showing how the horsemen fit together: the horsemen fit the scroll, the scroll and horsemen fit the book of Revelation, and show us things to come.

The Book of Revelation G. K. Beale, 2013-09-07
This commentary series is established on the presupposition that the theological character of the New Testament documents calls for exegesis that is sensitive to theological themes as well as to the details of the historical, linguistic, and textual context. Such thorough exegetical work lies at the heart of these volumes which contain detailed verse by verse commentary preceded by general comments on each section and subsection of the text An important aim of the NIGTC authors is to interact with the wealth of significant New Testament research published in recent articles and monographs In this connection the authors make their own scholarly contributions to the ongoing study of the biblical text The text on which these commentaries are based is the UBS Greek New Testament edited by Kurt Aland and others While engaging the major questions of text and interpretation at a scholarly level the authors keep in mind the needs of the beginning student of Greek as well as the pastor or layperson who may have studied the language at some time but does not now use it on a regular basis Gypsy Lady (The Reckless

International Commentary on the New Testament is a revision of Robert Mounce's original entry on the book of Revelation and reflects more than twenty additional years of mature thought and the latest in scholarship Daniel Revisited Mark Davidson, 2016-01-26 Daniel Revisited makes the case that the ancient book of Daniel reveals four specific events to occur in the Middle East in the end times prior to the Tribulation This new look at old assumptions about prophecy and plain reading of Scripture combines a comprehensive study of relevant history with the fresh perspective of today's current events Not only does it show that the Antichrist will be Muslim it also identifies four events the author calls Signposts which will occur in a series leading right up to the Tribulation The first event involving Iraq has already occurred The second of the four events will be the invasion of the whole Middle East by Iran The fourth event will witness the Antichrist's emergence The Apocalyptic History Contained in the Book of Revelation Solved Upon an Entirely New and Consistent Principle, Etc Harcourt BLAND, 1858 The Book of the Thousand Nights and One Night (Complete) Sir Richard Francis Burton, The present is I believe the first complete translation of the great Arabic compendium of romantic fiction that has been attempted in any European language comprising about four times as much matter as that of Galland and three times as much as that of any other translator known to myself and a short statement of the sources from which it is derived may therefore be acceptable to my readers Three printed editions more or less complete exist of the Arabic text of the Thousand and One Nights namely those of Breslau Boulac Cairo and Calcutta 1839 besides an incomplete one comprising the first two hundred nights only published at Calcutta in 1814 Of these the first is horribly corrupt and greatly inferior both in style and completeness to the others and the second that of Boulac is also though in a far less degree incomplete whole stories as for instance that of the Envier and the Envied in the present volume being omitted and hiatuses varying in extent from a few lines to several pages being of frequent occurrence whilst in addition to these defects the editor a learned Egyptian has played havoc with the style of his original in an ill judged attempt to improve it producing a medley more curious than edifying of classical and semi modern diction and now and then in his unlucky zeal completely disguising the pristine meaning of certain passages The third edition that which we owe to Sir William Macnaghten and which appears to have been printed from a superior copy of the manuscript followed by the Egyptian editor is by far the most carefully printed and edited of the three and offers on the whole the least corrupt and most comprehensive text of the work I have therefore adopted it as my standard or basis of translation and have to the best of my power remedied the defects such as hiatuses misprints doubtful or corrupt passages etc which are of no infrequent occurrence even in this the best of the existing texts by carefully collating it with the editions of Boulac and Breslau to say nothing of occasional references to the earlier Calcutta edition of the first two hundred nights adopting from one and the other such variants additions and corrections as seemed to me best calculated to improve the general effect and most homogeneous with the general spirit of the work and this so freely that the present version may be said in great part to represent a variorum text of the original formed by a collation of the different printed texts and no proper estimate can therefore be made of the fidelity of the translation except by those who are intimately acquainted with the whole of these latter. Even with the help of the new lights gained by the laborious process of collation and comparison above mentioned the exact sense of many passages must still remain doubtful so corrupt are the extant texts and so incomplete our knowledge as incorporated in dictionaries etc of the peculiar dialect half classical and half modern in which the original work is written. One special feature of the present version is the appearance for the first time in English metrical shape preserving the external form and rhyme movement of the originals of the whole of the poetry with which the Arabic text is so freely interspersed. This great body of verse equivalent to at least ten thousand twelve syllable English lines is of the most unequal quality varying from poetry worthy of the name to the merest doggerel and as I have in pursuance of my original scheme elected to translate everything good and bad with a very few exceptions in cases of manifest mistake or misapplication I can only hope that my readers will in judging of my success take into consideration the enormous difficulties with which I have had to contend and look with indulgence upon my efforts to render under unusually irksome conditions the energy and beauty of the original where these qualities exist and in their absence to keep my version from degenerating into absolute doggerel.

What God taught a muddled old man about; Our Triune God; Jesus Christ; The Bible, and the Book of Revelation Charles Pearson, 2024-03-25 Charles Pearson is an eighty five year old man who was raised by a single and very religious mother. She was a very religious person who was active in her church all her life. She remained single until Charles was a senior in high school devoting her life to Charles and his three brothers. She was the most influential person in Charles's early life. She tried her best to bring Charles up to be a believer in Christ and was mostly successful in that effort although Charles was not very cooperative in that endeavor. Fortunately Charles married a very wonderful wife who continued in that effort during their marriage which has now lasted for sixty years. Consequently Charles attended church most of his adult life and in fact ended up being a deacon in a Baptist church. This lasted ten years. Charles moved his family around a lot during his working years and they were members of several different denominations of churches. At different times they were members of Methodist Presbyterian Southern Baptist and Christian churches. He became an avid student of the Bible always seeking the truth of the words in it. This became a passion for him and although he was committed to his family he spent as much of his spare time pursuing that passion as possible. This book is the result of that lifetime of biblical study. Charles and Barbara have three children five grandchildren and two great grandchildren. They are the delight of their lives.
