October Art Doug Wheeler Doug Wheeler, 2020-01-07 Over five decades Doug Wheeler has pioneered the art of light and space His work powerfully explores the way we perceive empty space the way light can affect our perception and make emptiness feel full and dense From his early experiences flying across the desert with his father a doctor in Globe Arizona Wheeler developed a passion for the intensity and stillness of vast expanses seeing in them a whole new set of possibilities for visual art Although Wheeler began his career as a painter his wall mounted artworks soon began incorporating light as a medium and quickly gave way to an unprecedented art historical breakthrough his construction of an absolute light environment crafted in his studio in 1967 Since that unparalleled moment Wheeler's work has been exhibited widely all over the world in the past decade with numerous major gallery and museum installations his reputation as the definitive light and space artist has been solidified This volume featuring new scholarship by renowned art historian Germano Celant traces the entire course of Wheeler's career to date from his first mature paintings to his immersive installations Writing on Wheeler's intense and direct engagement with the absoluteness in the optical fields he creates Celant provides a detailed account for Wheeler's development as one of the most original and influential artists of his generation Wheeler's work not only changes how we encounter reality after we see it but also how we envision what is possible more broadly in visual art

Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltomaki, 2014-02-14 The first book length study of this influential artist's work focusing on the participatory role of the human subject rather than the art object Michael Asher doesn't make typical installations. Instead he extracts his art from the institutions in which it is shown, pulling it from collections, histories, or museums' own walls. Since the late 1960s Asher has been creating situations that have not only taught us about the conditions and contexts of contemporary art but have worked to define it. In Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltomaki examines Asher's practice by analyzing the social situations that the artist constructs in his work for viewers, participants, and institutional representatives including gallery directors, curators, and other museum staff members. Drawing on art criticism, the reports of viewers and participants in Asher's projects, and the artist's own archives, Peltomaki offers a comprehensive account of Asher's work over the past four decades. Because of the intensely site-specific nature of this work, as well as the artist's refusal to reconstruct past works or mount retrospectives, many of the projects Peltomaki discusses are described here for the first time. By emphasizing the social and psychological sites of art rather than the production of autonomous art objects, Peltomaki argues Asher constructs experientially complex situations that profoundly affect those who encounter them, bringing about both personal and institutional transformation.

Directions 1986 Phyllis D. Rosenzweig, 1986 Artists included in the exhibition: Alice Fellows, Peter Fleps, Melissa Miller, Yolanda Shashaty, Robert Morris, Hope Sandrow, Frank Stella, James Turrell, Mark Rothko, David Anfam, 1998-09-10 This is the first volume of the catalogue raisonné of the work of Mark Rothko, the abstract artist. It documents Rothko's entire output of paintings on canvas and panel, reproducing all the works in colour. An introductory text investigates the essential features of Rothko's art.

Reconsidering the Object of Art Ann Goldstein, Anne Rorimer, Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles, Calif.), 1995 Reconsidering the Object of Art examines a generally underexposed and therefore often misunderstood period in contemporary art and highlights artists whose practices have inspired much of the most significant art being produced today. It illustrates and discusses many crucial ground-breaking works that have not been seen within their proper historical context, if they have been individually seen at all. By 1969 such artists as Michael Asher, John Baldessari, Marcel Broodthaers, Dan Graham, Douglas Huebler, Joseph Kosuth, Lawrence Weiner, and others had begun to create works using a variety of media that sought to reevaluate certain fundamental premises about the formal, material, and contextual definitions of art. This first comprehensive overview of Conceptual art in English documents the work of fifty-five artists' work that marked a significant rupture with traditional forms and concepts of painting, sculpture, photography, and film.

Also included are essays that elucidate the significant aesthetic issues that gave rise in both America and Europe to the highly individual but related modes of Conceptual art Lucy Lippard art historian writes on the broader sociopolitical milieu in which this work was made Stephen Melville Professor of Art History Ohio State University probes the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of Conceptual art and Jeff Wall artist discusses the relationship between Conceptual art and photography Anne Rorimer and Ann Goldstein curators of the exhibition the book accompanies respectively take up the role of language in this work and discuss each of the artists Copublished with the Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles
