The Flavour Of Hong Kong:

Between Mumbai and Manila Manfred Hutter, 2013-07-17 The volume offers a diversity of facets of Jewry between Mumbai and Manila While some of its papers make references to the important factor how politics and religions are often intertwined other papers are arranged along the lines of area studies from South Asia via Southeast Asia to China and the Far East Even if these articles at first glance concentrate on local minority communities they always take into account that the Jewish communities in Asia take part in interactions of religions which can help to foster mutual understanding The studies presented at the conference refer to an extended approach always bringing Jewish Studies into international links and crossing borders thus opening comparative perspectives to broaden our knowledge of Jewish history So we have to reconsider aspects of Jewish studies for the future which would include Asian and religious studies in a qualitative comparative and interdisciplinary way and thus can shift away from the Euro American centric point of view regarding Jewish Studies
