The Fleury Playbook Essays And Studies:

The Fleury Playbook Thomas P. Campbell, Clifford Davidson, 1985 Growing out of a symposium on the Fleury Playbook at the International Congress on Medieval Studies this book includes essays from the symposium as well as additional papers written by scholars whose specialties were not represented at the conference Each essay covers a unique topic in the study of the Playbook utilizing a diverse set of methodological tools and interdisciplinary approaches for subjects which have not heretofore received adequate scholarly attention The topics at hand are each of significant interest to the field at large

The Elemental Passion for Place in the Ontopoiesis of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-04-18 Continuing the pioneering work in the field laid bare by the uncovering the Creative Condition of the human being in literature and fine arts the elemental passion of place leads us through the creative imagination into the labyrinths of the onto-poiesis of life itself Tymieniecka in her inaugural study Essays by A T Tymieniecka Mary Catanzaro W Smith Jadwiga Smith L Dunton Downer Jorge Garc a Gomez Ch Eykmann Marlies Kronegger Eldon N van Liere Hans Rudnik make this collection a unique contribution to literary studies as well as to the metaphysics of life and of the human condition The Christina Psalter Marina Vidas, 2006 This book is the first detailed analysis of an exquisitely illuminated thirteenth century Parisian manuscript The Royal Library Copenhagen which was owned by Christina of Norway 1234-1262 daughter of Hkon IV and wife of Philip of Castile and Leon New information is provided about the Psalter's medieval and later components its liturgical and other functions missing illuminations and texts as well as its provenance and date Furthermore the stylistic and iconographic similarities between the Psalter and some of the most important manuscripts illuminated in Paris in the Period like the three volume Moralized Bibles are discussed Suggestions also are made about the meanings the texts and images might have had for their intended audience ROMARD: Research on Medieval and Renaissance Drama, vol 52-53 Robert L. A.

Clark, 2014-07-05 ROMARD Research on Medieval and Renaissance Drama is an academic journal devoted to the study of Medieval and Renaissance drama in Europe Previously published under the title of Research Opportunities in Renaissance Drama RORD the journal has been in publication since 1956 ROMARD is published annually at Western University www.uwo.ca For further details please visit the ROMARD website at www.romard.org The Ritual Life of Medieval Europe Papers By and For C Clifford Flanigan Guest Editor Robert L A Clark Chief Editor Mario B Longtin Volume 52-53 is a double issue honouring the memory of C Clifford Flanigan It consists of the unpublished articles of Professor Flanigan and articles in tribute by his friends and colleagues in the field Living with Disfigurement in Early Medieval Europe Patricia

Skinner, 2016-12-21 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book examines social and medical responses to the disfigured face in early medieval Europe arguing that the study of head and facial injuries can offer a new contribution to the history of early medieval medicine and culture as well as exploring the language of violence and social interactions Despite the prevalence of warfare and conflict in early medieval society and a veritable industry of medieval historians studying it there has in fact been very little attention paid to the subject of head wounds and facial damage in the course of war and or punitive justice The impact of acquired disfigurement for the individual and for her or his family and community is barely registered and only recently has there been any attempt to explore the question of how damaged tissue and bone might be treated medically or surgically In the wake of new work on disability and the emotions in the medieval period this study documents how acquired disfigurement is recorded across different geographical and chronological contexts in the period

Staging History, 2021-02-08 Staging History unites essays by nine specialists in the field of late medieval and early Renaissance drama Their focus is on English Dutch and Humanist German drama as well as on a modern Swiss adaptation of Shakespeare's Henry V Featuring prominently in this book are plays by among others John Bale Jacob Schoepper Johannes Agricola and Jacob Duym Special attention is also paid to the Croxton Play of the Sacrament and the Dutch abele spelen So far this topic has not received wide attention within the world of medieval and early Renaissance studies This exploration aims at arousing more interest in this field by scholars working on European drama from the late Middle Ages and the early Renaissance

Gender and Power in Medieval Exegesis T. Tinkle, 2010-10-18 After establishing a feminist historicist perspective on the tradition of biblical commentary Tinkle develops in depth case studies that situate scholars reading the bible in three distinct historical moments and in so doing she exposes the cultural pressures that medieval scholars felt as they interpreted the bible

From Criminal to Courtier David Kunzle, 2021-10-11 The art of the Netherlands Dutch and Flemish is unique in Early Modern Europe in its concern for military cruelty against civilians principally the peasantry Decimated by time and changes in taste this popular iconography proves varied and extensive stretching from Bruegel to and past Rubens Massacres of the Innocents continue to be a favourite subject through the Eighty Years War in contrast to ruling class glorifications of war Dutch patriotic siege prints lay claim to scientific precision in landscapes free of military terror while the idea of military conquest is presented as generous rather than cruel in the ever popular figure of Scipio Africanus Most of the pictorial material is unfamiliar some of it even to specialists and never before published new light is shed on the more familiar phenomena of the civic guard groups and Ter Borch courtier officers good soldiers overcoming a bad image

Difference and Identity in Francia and Medieval France Meredith Cohen, Justine Firnhaber-Baker, 2016-12-05 Difference in medieval France was not solely a marker for social exclusion provoking feelings of disgust and disaffection but it could also create solidarity and sympathy among groups Contributors to this volume address inclusion and exclusion from a variety of perspectives ranging from ethnic and linguistic difference in Charlemagne's court to lewd sculpture in B arn to prostitution and destitution in Paris Arranged thematically the sections progress from the discussion of tolerance and intolerance through the clearly defined notion of foreignness to the complex study of stranger identity in the medieval period As a whole the volume presents a fresh intriguing perspective on questions of exclusion and belonging in the medieval world

emergence of plainsong to the end of the fourteenth century this Companion covers all the key aspects of medieval music Divided into three main sections the book first of all discusses repertory styles and techniques the key areas of traditional music histories next taking a topographical view of the subject from Italy German speaking lands and the Iberian Peninsula and concludes with chapters on such issues as liturgy vernacular poetry and reception Rather than presenting merely a chronological view of the history of medieval music the volume instead focuses on technical and cultural aspects of the subject Over nineteen informative chapters fifteen world leading scholars give a perspective on the music of the Middle Ages that will serve as a point of orientation for the informed listener and reader and is a must have guide for anyone with an interest in listening to and understanding medieval music

The Broadview Anthology of Medieval Drama Christina M. Fitzgerald, John T. Sebastian, 2012-12-05 The past generation has been an extraordinarily active one in medieval drama scholarship our appreciation of the range of medieval drama has been significantly broadened and our understanding of certain medieval genres most notably biblical drama has been fundamentally altered The Broadview Anthology of British Literature has been widely praised for the degree to which it has taken this scholarship into account in its selection of and presentation of medieval plays Now Broadview launches a new anthology that takes those plays as its base while expanding very substantially beyond them to represent the full range of drama in English and where strong connections exist in French Latin Cornish and Welsh as well through to 1576 In all over forty plays are included Each work has been fully annotated and is prefaced by a substantial introduction In many cases the language is to some extent modernized in order to make the plays more accessible to readers today

The Massacre of the Innocents Warren Carter, 2023-01-30 In The Massacre of the Innocents Studies in the Cultural Afterlife of a Gospel Scene Warren Carter examines some fifty instances of the interpretation of the Matthean Massacre of the Innocents Matt 2 16 18 He emphasizes the agency of interpreters who in their particular contexts and media think with the shocking Matthean scene to address the often tragic circumstances of their audiences He argues throughout that the structure of the Gospel scene facilitates this thinking with The scene is structured as a triad of power relations with a tyrant Herod victims infants and parents and violent means of tyranny the massacre Interpreters use this triad of power relations to identify tyrant s victims and means of tyranny in their own situations Carter illustrates the use of this triad of power relations across two millennia in numerous socio political contexts and media as diverse as sermons images poems and hymns dramas and festivals films novels Christmas carols and Children s Bibles

Music and Medieval Manuscripts Randall Rosenfeld, 2017-07-05 The interdisciplinary approach of Music and Medieval Manuscripts is modeled on the work of the scholar to whom the book is dedicated Professor Andrew Hughes is recognized internationally for his work on medieval manuscripts combining the areas of paleography performance liturgy and music All these areas of research are represented in this collection with an emphasis on the continuity between the physical characteristics of medieval manuscripts and their different uses Albert Derolez provides a landmark and controversial essay on the origins of pre humanistic script while Margaret Bent proposes a new interpretation of a famous passage from a fifteenth century poem by Martin Le Franc Timothy McGee contributes an innovative essay on late medieval music text and rhetoric David Hiley discusses musical changes and variation in the offices of a major saint s feast and Craig Wright presents an original study of Guillaume Dufay Jan Ziolkowski treats the topic of neumed classics an under explored aspect of the history of medieval pedagogy and the transmission of texts The essays that comprise this volume offer a unique focus on medieval manuscripts from a wide range of perspectives and will appeal to musicologists and medievalists alike

The Drama of Masculinity and Medieval English Guild Culture C. Fitzgerald, 2007-06-25 This study argues that late medieval English mystery plays were about masculinity as much as Christian theology modes of devotion or civic self consciousness Performed repeatedly by generations of merchants and craftsmen these Biblical plays produced fantasies and anxieties of middle class urban masculinity many of which are familiar today
