Bernard John Otten,1918 The Development of Dogma Guy Mansini,2023-10-27 The Development of Dogma examines the nature of dogmatic statements and the causes of development It devotes particular attention to the emergence of the form of dogmatic statements at the Council of Nicaea but notes how this form is anticipated in the New Testament It situates dogma and its development within the matrix of the great fundamental theological realities of Scripture Tradition and Magisterium Fr Mansini examines at some length how the Church comes to recognize a development as a genuine development rather than as a distortion of the word of God The Development of Dogma is especially valuable today for its discussion and defense of the philosophical presuppositions of dogma which are often simply presupposed but should not be ignored in a complete account of development These presuppositions touch on fundamental philosophical issues including the nature of knowledge the objectivity and trustworthiness of names and the various logical forms employed in understanding how development is related to a closed revelation The historicity of human knowledge is also addressed and the role of dogma itself in heading off the extreme relativism the historical nature of man is supposed to imply for ecclesial faith and life The Church's dogma about dogma enunciated at the First Vatican Council is also examined The role of certain fundamental concepts in understanding the possibility of the irreformability of dogma it speaks of is expressly addressed concepts in principle accessible to all human beings and that enable a trans cultural trans temporal proposal and reception of revealed truth A Manual of the History of Dogmas: The development of dogmas during the Patristic age, 100-869 Bernard John Otten,1922 A Manual of the History of Dogmas: The development of dogmas during the patristic age, 100-869 ; T. 02. Tuthill,1888 History of Dogma Adolf von Harnack,1897 History of Dogma D Volume I Dr. Adolph Harnack,2019-10-30 This brief but thorough treatment of the history of the doctrines of Christianity starts out by showing what the structure of belief was that started with Jesus teachings and how that affected the teachings and spread of the Gospel from Jesus through the Apostles to the early catholic church The next topic dealt with is the rise of one of the greatest heresies in the church Gnosticism Harnack is able to observe and lay out how the spread of the doctrines of the early church were able to create a breeding ground for the gnostic heresies and goes over the details of some of those heresies This treatment of the early church is a valuable tool to any true scholar Present Day Papers ,1902 History of the Development of the Doctrine of the Person of Christ Isaak August Dorner,1865 Lectures on the History of Christian Dogmas August Neander,1858 History of Dogma, 7 Volumes Adolf Harnack,1997-11-12 This classic by Harnack was an epoch making historical work that set the standard for any history of doctrinal development Harnack locates the origins and traces the development of the authoritative Christian

Berkouwer and Catholicism Eduardo Echeverria, 2013-04-28 Gerrit Cornelis Berkouwer 1903 1996 was a great master of dogmatic and ecumenical theology. He was a Reformed Protestant thinker with roots in Dutch neo Calvinism a holder of the Chair in Dogmatics 1945 1974 at the Free University Amsterdam a position previously held by his two illustrious neo Calvinist predecessors Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854 1921. Echeverria provides a much needed in depth analysis and critique of his theology particularly his evolving relationship with Catholicism in light of Vatican II. His contention is that Berkouwer's careful and nuanced examination of Catholic theology as well as possible responses to his critiques offers important clues for the contemporary ecumenical project.
