French Consul's Wife Jeanne Allen, Patricia Clancy, 2013-06-18 What a subject for a film but not please Meryl Streep Together with Dr Patricia Clancy Melbourne University and Jeanne Allen s La Trobe University elegant translation and able notes the memoirs make for a piquant informative variegated and often startling read Miegunyah Press you ve done it again Derek Whitelock Weekend Australian A former Parisian courtesan circus performer and dancer C leste de Chabrillan scandalised Melbourne society when she arrived in 1854 as the wife of the French Consul These memoirs give a vivid firsthand account of the two and a half years she spent in gold rush Victoria C leste s arrival in Melbourne was preceded by the publication of her memoirs describing her illegitimate birth miserable adolescence and celebrity career as a courtesan bareback rider and polka dancer As a result she was dubbed the consul s harlot spouse and ostracised by society Despite this C leste did not avoid the public gaze and continued to employ her literary talents Her memoirs are of a life spent in the village of St Kilda the diplomatic and government house circle and the Ballarat gold fields Her descriptions of a public hanging Governor Hotham s beer ball and her own Ball for the Victims of Crimea reveal her as a woman of great energy and wilful temperament History of the French Consulate, Under Napoleon Buonaparte William Vincent Barré, 1804 The French in Singapore Maxime Pilon, Danièle Weiler, 2011 In 1819 when Sir Stamford Raffles founded Singapore he was accompanied by two French naturalists Ever since French missionaries merchants planters and other pioneers have contributed to its economic educational and cultural development Discover the colourful stories of personalities such as J Casteleyns who built the first hostelry the Hotel de l Europe in 1857 Father Jean Marie Beurel who constructed the Cathedral of the Good Shepherd and Alfred Clou t who started the well known Ayam Brand canned sardines business Superbly illustrated with photographs paintings sketches old documents and maps The French in Singapore is an invaluable resource for anyone seeking to discover the little known history of the French in the Singapore we know today The French Consul Lucien Bodard, 1977 Syria and Lebanon Under the French Mandate Idir Ouahes, 2018-07-30 French rule over Syria and Lebanon was premised on a vision of a special French protectorate established through centuries of cultural activity archaeological educational and charitable Initial French methods of organising and supervising cultural activity sought to embrace this vision and to implement it in the exploitation of antiquities the management and promotion of cultural heritage the organisation of education and the control of public opinion among the literate classes However an examination of the first five years of the League of Nations assigned mandate 1920 1925 reveals that French expectations of a protectorate were quickly dashed by widespread resistance to their cultural policies not simply among Arabists but also among minority groups initially expected to be loyal to the French The violence of imposing the mandate de facto starting with a landing of French troops in the Lebanese and Syrian coast in 1919 and followed by extension to the Syrian interior in 1920 was met by consistent violent revolt Examining the role of cultural institutions reveals less violent yet similarly consistent contestation of the French mandate The political discourses emerging after World War I fostered expectations of European tutelages that prepared local peoples for autonomy and independence Yet even among the most Francophile of stakeholders the unfolding of the first years of French rule brought forth entirely different events and methods In this book Idir Ouahes provides an in depth analysis of the shifts in discourses attitudes and activities unfolding in French and locally organised institutions such as schools museums and newspapers revealing how local resistance put pressure on cultural activity in the early years of the French mandate
