A Biography. J. C. Field, 1999 This volume constitutes a search for the identity of Malory author of the Morte Darthur Field considers all arguments and gives an account of the life of the man identified setting him in his historical context The Manuscript and Meaning of Malory's Morte Darthur Kevin Sean Whetter, 2017 An examination of the rubricated letters in the Morte makes a convincing case for the design being by Malory himself The red ink names that decorate the Winchester manuscript of Malory's Morte Darthur are striking yet until now no one has asked why the rubrication exists This book explores the uniqueness and thematic significance of the physical layout of the Morte in its manuscript context arguing that the layout suggests and the correlations between manuscript design and narrative theme confirm that the striking arrangement is likely to have been the product of authorial design rather than something unusual dreamed up by patron scribe reader or printer The introduction offers a thorough account of not only the textual tradition of the Morte but also the ways in which scholarship to date has not done enough with the manuscript contexts of Malory's Arthuriad The book then goes on to establish the singularity and likely provenance of Winchester's rubrication of names In the second half of the study the author elucidates the narrative significance of this rubrication pattern outlining striking connections between manuscript layout and major narrative events characters and themes He suggests that the manuscript mise en page underscores Malory's interest in human character and knighthood creating a memorializing function similar to the many inscribed tombs that dominate the landscape of the Morte's narrative pages In short Winchester's design creates a memorializing tomb for Arthurian chivalry K S WHETTER is Professor of English at Acadia University Canada The Sense of Glory Herbert Read, 1929 An Arthurian Triangle Peter Korrel, 2023-08-14
