Sisters Of The Screen:

Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann, 2000 Perhaps the most vital emotionally complex and lasting attachments between women occur between sisters Whether as best friends or antagonists sisters remain entangled in a common tapestry of mutual experience and remembrance family and history according to author Eva Rueschmann Although many of the women centered films in the last three decades depict the relationship between sisters as a pivotal aspect of a character's psychological development the now substantial body of feminist film criticism has not taken up this theme in any sustained way In Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann explores the sister bond in a wide range of modernist feature films that depart from the conventional cinematic rendering of women's lives Drawing on the psychoanalytic concept of intersubjectivity this book emphasizes the role of a woman's relationship and inner world in her continual quest for self knowledge Offering an original and absorbing perspective on women's filmic images Sisters on Screen reveals how post 1960s cinema has articulated the ways in which biological sisters negotiate mutuality and difference co author family histories and profoundly shape each other's political and personal identities The films in focus question standards of femininity as they probe into memory fantasy and desire bringing women's realities into view in the process Structuring her discussion in terms of life cycle stages adolescence and adulthood Rueschmann offers an in depth discussion of such films as An Angel at My Table Double Happiness Eve's Bayou Gas Food Lodging Heavenly Creatures Little Women Marianne and Julianne Paura e amore Peppermint Soda The Silence Sweetie and Welcome to the Dollhouse Rueschmann draws upon the works of filmmakers from the 1970s to the 1990s Some of the directors included in her study are Allison Anders Gillian Armstrong Ingmar Bergman Jane Campion Peter Jackson Mina Shum Diane Kurys Kasi Lemmons Todd Solondz and Margarethe von Trotta Sisters on Screen will appeal to anyone interested in women's studies film studies psychology psychoanalytic readings of cinema women directors and international modern film Author note Eva Rueschmann is Assistant Professor of Cultural Studies at Hampshire College

Sisters of the Screen Beti Ellerson, 2000 Whilst it is not possible to generalise about the role of African women in cinema there is nonetheless evidence that a growing number of women from all parts of the continent are becoming engaged in the various mediums of film video and television This book looks at the diverse experiences of both female film pioneers and women film students through a series of interviews the author discovers what motivated these women to take up film and discusses both the creative aspects of their work and their broader political concerns films have always included elderly characters but until recently old age only played a supporting role onscreen Now as the Baby Boomer population hits retirement there has been an explosion of films including Away From Her The Straight Story The Barbarian Invasions and About Schmidt where aging is a central theme The first ever sustained discussion of old age in cinema The Silvering Screen brings together theories from disability studies critical gerontology and cultural studies to examine how the film industry has linked old age with physical and mental disability Sally Chivers further examines Hollywood's mixed messages the applauding of actors who portray the debilitating side of aging while promoting a culture of youth as well as the gendering of old age on film The Silvering Screen makes a timely attempt to counter the fear of aging implicit in these readings by proposing alternate ways to value getting older

Don't Slam the Screen Door! Janette

Navickas Dehner, 2021-09-21 Don't Slam The Screen Door is a bedtime storybook inspired from a time before kids were lost to technology I wanted to write about adventures from my own memorable childhood beyond my own back door The hope is to motivate boys and girls each night one chapter and one adventure at a time to explore their surroundings with their young minds and imaginations Equally important was to model a reminder to dads and moms that it does not take much to stimulate a child's creativeness A little schooling never hurt anyone is the philosophy behind the twin's names which were intentionally chosen Selected as a strategically play of words by creating a tongue twister of sorts to get kids to articulate and identify slight word differences while reading I chuckle to think of my own grandchildren correcting my pronunciation when I am reading to them Also with our own names being similar in sound and spelling it was a life experience my twin sister and I personally identified with Foremost I wanted this to be a Christian based book weaving the simplicity of knowing and having a relationship with the Lord Placing bible scripture at the end of each chapter in faith the verse becomes a tangible teaching tool pointing to Our Father's Word In hope of initiating inquisitive minds to simply open discussion of wanting to know of the scripture's source the Holy Bible Don't Slam The Screen Door was truly inspired out of love for Our Father family and my sisters Juleen Jeanette and Joette God Bless Janette Navickas Dehner
