Begin Afresh Sisir Kumar Chatterjee,2025-03-12 Begin Afresh The Evolution of Philip Larkin's Poetry offers incisive insightful and yet lucid analyses of all the individual poems contained in the four major collections of Larkin 1922 1985 It also deals with his Juvenile Poems Brunette Coleman poems those in In the Grip of Light and XX Poems as well as his last poems The book also discusses Larkin's novels and d bats It evaluates the critical opinions regarding various aspects of Larkin's poetry especially the issue of its development and shows that it may not follow a clearly identifiable linear chronological line of evolution but it does evolve in a subtle way from one phase of his career to the next The book explores how Larkin discovered his own original inimitable idiosyncratic poetic voice by truly democratising English poetry for the first time by writing accessible and pleasurable poetry and by forging a new poetic out of a philistine aesthetic which stands out as an artistic holotype It shows how Larkin restores the relation between poetry and the reading public a relation which was broken down by Modernist poets It also establishes how his poetic vision is neither optimistic nor pessimistic but realistic in that it preserves the universal human condition without moralising or philosophising The book aims to make a fresh departure in Larkin criticism and mark a new era in Larkin studies This volume will be of interest to students and researchers of Modernism twentieth century literature poetry language and literature Shades Of Green Anne
