Dalley, 2023-05-31 Women's Economic Writing in the Nineteenth Century is the first comprehensive collection of women's economic writing in the long nineteenth century. The four volume anthology includes writing from women around the world showcasing the wide variety and range of economic writing by women in the period and establishes a tradition of women's economic writing. Selections include didactic tales, fictional illustrations, poetry, economic theory, social theory, reports, letters, novels, speeches, dialogues, and self-help books. The anthology is divided into eight themed sections: political economy, feminist economics, domestic economics, labor, philanthropy, and poverty, consumerism, emigration and empire, and self-help. Each section begins with an introduction that tells a story about women writers' relationship to the section theme and then provides an overview of the selections contained therein. Women's Economic Writing in the Nineteenth Century demonstrates just how common it was for women to write about economics in the nineteenth century and establishes important throughlines and trajectories within their body of work.

Teach Writing Well Ruth Culham, 2023-10-10 Ask great writers what the key to writing well is and they will tell you revision. Author Ruth Culham, both a successful writer and writing teacher, understands the challenges elementary teachers face when teaching writing and revision and now shares her knowledge in Teach Writing Well: How to Assess Writing, Invigorate Instruction, and Rethink Revision. Divided into two parts, Culham's book provides ways to teach that are both accessible to the teacher and student. You will find techniques to assess writing that are practical and results-driven. Inside you'll discover Culham's traits of writing and how to use them to read and assess student work. Ways to guide revision decisions using these traits as common language. How to address challenges students may face within the different modes of writing: narrative, expository, and persuasive. Strategic lessons to teach the writer that scaffold students towards making their own craft decisions. A chapter on mentor texts which can be used to model traits and key qualities for your students. Teach Writing Well pulls best practices together and shows writing with fresh eyes.

Technical Writing for Teams Alexander Mamishev, Sean Williams, 2011-02-11 A unique integrative team-centered approach to writing and formatting technical documents. Technical Professionals: Do you have difficulty producing high quality documents with multiple contributors when faced with a tight deadline? Do you need a process that enables global team members to collaborate online as they produce sophisticated documents?
