The Seventeenth-Century Customs Service Surveyed

William B. Stephens,2016-03-03 In January 1682 William Culliford a loyal and experienced officer in the King s customs service began an extraordinary journey under Treasury orders to investigate the integrity and efficiency of the customs establishments of southwest England and south Wales as part of a drive to maximize the Crown s income from customs duties on which it relied for much of its revenue Starting at Bristol Culliford eventually completed this daunting task in Cornwall over two years later in the spring of 1684 His report on each of the ports he inspected the primary source for this book revealed widespread smuggling and fraud in the context of a customs service both lacking in efficiency and riddled with corruption The book documents the varied frauds and wide ranging abuses uncovered and their facilitation by customs officers only too ready to collude with smugglers dishonest merchants and seamen and to accept bribes to ignore tax evasion It describes too Culliford s assessment of the administrative practices of each port inspected and his judgment on the levels of probity and efficiency of individual officers detailing his recommendations for procedural improvements and the treatment of the corrupt and incompetent and incidentally of those suspected of political and religious dissent Additionally the book presents a body of statistical data on the customs revenue actually collected at individual ports in the 1670s and 1680s and surveys the extent and nature of the maritime trade of the ports Culliford examined It thus not only throws light on the history of the customs service but provides a rare insight into the interactions of economic social and political issues in the later seventeenth century and makes a valuable contribution to the particular histories of the ports and maritime districts visited by this energetic and tenacious investigator

South West Coast Path: Padstow to Falmouth John Macadam, 2018-07-03 The South West Coast Path is the longest of Britain's National Trails following the spectacular coastline for 630 miles around the southernmost tip of England from Somerset all the way to Dorset This updated volume features the second section of 169 miles 271 km from Padstow in north Cornwall to Falmouth on the south coast From the surfing mecca of Newquay and St Ives's golden beaches it hugs the rugged clifftops round Land's End and the Lizard as far south as it is possible to go in mainland Britain visiting serpentine harbours and craggy coves such as Cadgwith and Porthcurno with its dramatic open air theatre The Path is rich in wildlife offering a rare chance to see the delightful red beaked chough as well as seals dolphins and peregrines From the holiday stroller to the experienced long distance walker this guide contains everything you need to explore one of the most spectacular and varied long distance trails in the world National Trail Guides are the official guidebooks to the fifteen National Trails in England and Wales and are published in association with Walk Unlimited the official body charged with developing and maintaining the Trails

Fisherman's Friends Port Isaac's Fisherman's Friends, 2011-09-01 For the past two decades ten men from Cornwall's Port Isaac have met on the village quayside every Friday summer evening to sing rousing sea shanties and traditional folk songs for little more than free beer Then in March 2010 everything changed when stardom came to this bunch of friends who had sought neither fame nor fortune Within weeks of a record producer hearing their passionate harmonic singing they had a million pound deal and were booked to appear at Glastonbury By the end of that month a world tour was underway and Ealing Films had bought the rights to their story Their first commercially produced album went gold almost immediately and they have now played live to hundreds of thousands of people raising the roof everywhere with ballads such as The Cadgwith Anthem and South Australia The book will tell the full story of how the boat came in for this group of burly middle aged men each of whom are or have been fishermen lifeboatmen and coastguards as well as builders artisans hoteliers and shop keepers in their beloved Port Isaac Each member of the group has his own story and individual family histories tell of Cornwall's rugged harsh landscape and the ever present danger and bounty of the sea The Fisherman's Friends have found a huge and ready audience and have rekindled interest in traditional music striking a chord in the hearts of men and women young and old across the English speaking world With a new album due out in summer 2011 this is an affectionate and timely autobiography
