Crawford, 1998 If you plan to portray a national icon in less than heroic terms you had better be prepared for a fight as Richard Aldington learned even before the publication of his 1955 biography Lawrence of Arabia A Biographical Enquiry Fred D Crawford provides the first examination of all major parties and points of view embroiled in the controversy generated by Aldington's biography of T E Lawrence In two years of research Aldington made major discoveries including the extent to which Lawrence had cooperated with Lowell Thomas Robert Graves and B H Liddell Hart in the creation of the Lawrence legend For this and other reasons Aldington concluded that Lawrence was a charlatan a poseur and a fraud Upon learning of Aldington's antagonism to Lawrence a year before Aldington's book appeared a powerful group including B H Liddell Hart Robert Graves A W Lawrence and other Lawrence partisans worked behind the scenes to suppress and denigrate Aldington's biography These attempts Crawford notes reveal a great deal about how private interests can determine what the public is allowed to read The Voice of America Mitchell Stephens, 2024-06-04 WINNER Sperber

Prize 2018 for the best biography of a journalist The first and definitive biography of an audacious adventurer the most famous journalist of his time who more than anyone invented contemporary journalism Tom Brokaw says Lowell Thomas so deserves this lively account of his legendary life He was a man for all seasons Mitchell Stephens s The Voice of America is a first rate and much needed biography of the great Lowell Thomas Nobody can properly understand broadcast journalism without reading Stephens s riveting account of this larger than life globetrotting radio legend Douglas Brinkley Professor of History at Rice University and author of Cronkite Few Americans today recognize his name but Lowell Thomas was as well known in his time as any American journalist ever has been Raised in a Colorado gold rush town Thomas covered crimes and scandals for local then Chicago newspapers He began lecturing on Alaska after spending eight days in Alaska Then he assigned himself to report on World War I and returned with an exclusive the story of Lawrence of Arabia In 1930 Lowell Thomas began delivering America s initial radio newscast His was the trusted voice that kept Americans abreast of world events in turbulent decades his face familiar too as the narrator of the most popular newsreels His contemporaries were also dazzled by his life In a prime time special after Thomas died in 1981 Walter Cronkite said that Thomas had crammed a couple of centuries worth of living into his eighty nine years Thomas delighted in entering forbidden countries Tibet for example where he met the teenaged Dalai Lama The Explorers Club has named its building its awards and its annual dinner after him Journalists in the last decades of the twentieth century including Cronkite and Tom Brokaw acknowledged a profound debt to Thomas Though they may not know it journalists today too are following a path he blazed In The Voice of America Mitchell Stephens offers a hugely entertaining sometimes critical portrait of this larger than life figure Fallen Giants Maurice Isserman, Stewart Angus Weaver, Dee Molenaar, 2010-01-01 In the first comprehensive history of Himalayan mountaineering in 50 years the authors offer detailed original accounts of the most significant climbs since the 1890s and they compellingly evoke the social and cultural worlds that gave rise to those expeditions The Letters and Diaries of Colonel John Hart Caughey, 1944-1945 Roger B. Jeans, 2018-06-18 Colonel John Hart Caughey a US Army war plans officer stationed in the Chinese Nationalist capital of Chungking was an eyewitness to the battle for China in the final months of the war 1944 45 and beyond when he rose to become head of the Theater Planning Section In frequent letters to his wife as well as in several diaries he chronicled the US military s role in wartime China especially his life as an American planner when he was subject to military censorship Previous accounts of the China Theater have largely neglected the role of the War Department planners stationed in Chungking many of whom were Caughey s colleagues and friends He also penned colorful descriptions of life in wartime China which vividly remind the reader how far China has come in a mere seventy odd years In addition his letters and diaries deepen our understanding of several of the American leaders in this Asian war including China Theater commander Albert C Wedemeyer Fourteenth Air Force chief Claire L Chennault former commander of the Flying Tigers US ambassador to wartime China Patrick J Hurley famed Time Life reporter Theodore White OSS director William Wild Bill

Donovan Louis Mountbatten Supreme Commander of the Southeast Asia Command and Jonathan Wainwright who was in command when the American forces in the Philippines surrendered in 1942 and who stayed for a few days at Caughey's Chungking residence on his way home after several years as a Japanese POW in Manchuria. In his writings Caughey also revealed a more appealing side of Wedemeyer whose extreme political opinions in the postwar era probably cost him the post of US Army chief of staff. By making Caughey a member of his planning staff Wedemeyer made possible an extraordinary experience for the young colonel during the war. Caughey also rubbed shoulders with Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek and traveled to the battlefields in Southeast China with the commander in chief of the Nationalist Army He Yingqin along with a number of other Chinese and American soldiers. Following the Japanese surrender Caughey chronicled the resumption of the power struggle between the Chinese Nationalists and the Chinese Communists largely postponed during the conflict. Shortly after the war he had a brief encounter with the number two Communist leader Zhou Enlai whom he was to get to know much better during the Marshall Mission to China.

The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence George W. Wolfe, 2010-09-29 Religion and violence—the two concepts seem incompatible given the emphasis in religion on virtue, love, forgiveness, and compassion. Yet many scriptures contain martial images and stories of god-inspired military conquest. The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence confronts this theological contradiction, arguing that martial images and symbols found in religious texts are often meant to be interpreted as metaphors for an inner spiritual struggle and should never be used as a justification for war. The analysis is undertaken from an interfaith perspective that explains many of the paradoxical concepts found in theories of nonviolence. Professor Wolfe also presents a compelling case for the sustainability paradigm and for offering peace education and interreligious dialogue on a global scale. He probes the scriptures of the world, proving that nonviolence is a shared virtue and that the real enemy we must battle against and ultimately defeat is actually within us. An excellent introduction to spiritually based, principled nonviolence. Professor Wolfe's blend of different wisdom traditions is especially useful. Dr. Michael Nagler, Professor Emeritus, University of California at Berkeley. George Wolfe has put the blame for proliferating violence in the world where it belongs: on the crass interpretation of religion. A thought-provoking book. Arun Gandhi, President, Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence. Truly an enlightening book. Judy O'Bannon, Former First Lady of Indiana.
