Te Puea: a Biography of the Maori Nationalist Leader Michael King, 1978

A History of New Zealand in 100 Objects Jock Phillips, 2022-10-18. Authored by award-winning historian Jock Phillips. The History of New Zealand in 100 Objects is gripping, inclusive, often revelatory, and deeply human. A colourful and characterful retelling of our shared past, relevant to today, particular to all of us. The sewing kete of an unknown 18th-century Maori woman, the Endeavour cannons that fired on waka in 1769, the bagpipes of an Irish publican Paddy Galvin, the school uniform of Harold Pond, a Napier Tech pupil in the Hawke's Bay quake, the Biko shields that tried to protect protestors during the Springbok tour in 1981, Winston Reynolds' remarkable home-made Hokitika television set, the oldest working TV in the country, the soccer ball that was a tribute to Tariq Omar, a victim of the Christchurch Mosque shootings, and so many more. These are items of quiet significance and great personal meaning, taonga carrying stories that together represent a dramatic full of life history for everyday New Zealanders.

Good-bye Maoriland Chris Bourke, 2017-10-15. They left their Southern Lands. They sailed across the sea. They fought the Hun, they fought the Turk. For truth and liberty. Now Anzac Day has come to stay. And bring us sacred joy. Though wooden crosses be swept away. We'll never forget our boys. Jane Morison. We'll never forget our boys. 1917. Be it Tipperary or Pokarekare, the morning reveille or the bugle's last post, concert parties at the front or patriotic songs at home, music was central to New Zealand's experience of the First World War. In Good Bye Maoriland, the acclaimed author of Blue Smoke: The Lost Dawn of New Zealand Popular Music, introduces us to the songs and sounds of World War I in order to take us deep inside the human experience of war.

Maori Music Mervyn McLean, 2013-10-01. This book is the best introduction available to Maori music: the instruments played, the songs and dance styles, and what they were used for: performance, composition, teaching, etc. Based on 30 years of fieldwork that yielded 1300 recorded songs and hundreds of pages of interviews and eyewitness accounts, this is a classic book.

Workers in the Margins Cybèle Locke, 2012. Marginalised workers of the late twentieth century were those last hired in times of plenty and first fired in times of recession. Often women, Maori, or people from the Pacific, they were frequently unemployed and marginalised within the union movement, as well as the labour force. WORKERS IN THE MARGINS tells the story of these workers in the tumultuous years of post-war New Zealand. These were years characterised by massive changes in the workforce as it expanded to accommodate a growing urban Maori population and an increasing desire for women to enter paid work. The world of trade unions and employment conflicts such as the 1951 waterfront lockout was vigorous and challenging As free market policies deregulated the labour market and splintered the union movement toward the end of the century Te Roopu Rawakore o Aotearoa the national unemployed and beneficiaries movement gave a new voice to workers in the margins The people of this history come to life through oral histories from the poet and boilermaker Hone Tuwhare building a palisade at Orakei through to activists Sue Bradford and Jane Stevens working with the unemployed in the 1980s and 90s Their experiences speak to the lives of many workers of the early twenty first century

Island Rivers John R. Wagner, Jerry K. Jacka, 2018-06-19 Anthropologists have written a great deal about the coastal adaptations and seafaring traditions of Pacific Islanders but have had much less to say about the significance of rivers for Pacific island culture livelihood and identity The authors of this collection seek to fill that gap in the ethnographic record by drawing attention to the deep historical attachments of island communities to rivers and the ways in which those attachments are changing in response to various forms of economic development and social change In addition to making a unique contribution to Pacific island ethnography the authors of this volume speak to a global set of issues of immense importance to a world in which water scarcity conflict pollution and the degradation of riparian environments afflict growing numbers of people Several authors take a political ecology approach to their topic but the emphasis here is less on hydro politics than on the cultural meaning of rivers to the communities we describe How has the cultural significance of rivers shifted as a result of colonisation development and nation building How do people whose identities are fundamentally rooted in their relationship to a particular river renegotiate that relationship when the river is dammed to generate hydro power or polluted by mining activities How do blockages in the flow of rivers and underground springs interrupt the intergenerational transmission of local ecological knowledge and hence the ability of local communities to construct collective identities rooted in a sense of place A Concise History of New Zealand Philippa Mein Smith,2012 The story of this rugged and dynamic land is beautifully narrated from its origins in Gondwana to the twenty first century Ngatokimatawhaorua Jeff Evans,2023-08-10 This is the biography of the mighty ceremonial war canoe Ngatokimatawhaorua that rests on the Treaty Grounds at Waitangi The inspiration for its construction came from Te Puea Herangi In the late 1930s the Waikato leader held a dream to build seven waka taua for the 1940 centennial commemorations at Waitangi By 1937 two waka had been commissioned Carved in Northland under the guidance of Pita Heperi Te Tai Tokerau and Piri Poutapu Waikato Ngatokimatawhaorua was one of them But it was to be many decades before the true power of the waka to inspire a people was realised In 1974 Ngatokimatawhaorua was refurbished by the late Sir Heke nuku mai nga iwi Hec Busby for relaunching during Waitangi Day ceremonies It was then that Te Puea s dream turned into reality By 1990 The Year of the Waka 22 canoes and their 2000 crew gathered at Waitangi Ngatokimatawhaorua and others became symbols of Maori unity and pride and an important part of the renaissance of the traditions of carving and voyaging around Aotearoa and beyond The Palgrave Macmillan Dictionary of Women's Biography J. Uglow,M. Hendry,2005-03-08 The Palgrave Macmillan Dictionary of Women s Biography contains details of the lives of over 2100 women from all periods cultures and walks of life from queens to TV chefs engineers to stand up comics pilots to poisoners With subsections for further reading comprehensive subject index and a bibliographical survey this dictionary of women s biography is an invaluable reference source
