Code of Federal Regulations ,2008 Special edition of the Federal Register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect with ancillaries The Capitalist Personality Christopher Swader,2013 Modern capitalism favors values that undermine our face to face bonds with friends and family members Focusing on the post communist world and comparing it to more developed societies this book reveals the mixed effects of capitalist culture on interpersonal relationships While most observers blame the egoism and asocial behavior found in new free market societies on their communist pasts this work shows how relationships are also threatened by the profit orientations and personal ambition unleashed by economic development Successful people in societies as diverse as China Russia and Eastern Germany adjust to the market economy at a social cost relaxing their morals in order to obtain success and succumbing to increased material temptations to exploit relationships for their own financial and professional gain The capitalist personality is internally troubled as a result of this sellout but these qualms subside as it devalues intimate qualitative bonds with others This book also shows that post communists are similarly individualized as people living in Western societies Capitalism may indeed favor values of independence creativity and self expressiveness but it also rewards self centeredness consumerism and the stripping down of morality As is the case in the West capitalist culture fosters an internally conflicted and self centered personality in post communist societies Our Voices, Our Histories Shirley Hune,Gail M. Nomura,2020-03-10 An innovative anthology showcasing Asian American and Pacific Islander women s histories Our Voices Our Histories brings together thirty five Asian American and Pacific Islander authors in a single volume to explore the historical experiences perspectives and actions of Asian American and Pacific Islander women in the United States and beyond This volume is unique in exploring Asian American and Pacific Islander women s lives along local transnational and global dimensions The contributions present new research on diverse aspects of Asian American and Pacific Islander women s history from the politics of language to the role of food to experiences as adoptees mixed race and second generation while acknowledging shared experiences as women of color in the United States Our Voices Our Histories showcases how new approaches in US history Asian American and Pacific Islander studies and Women s and Gender studies inform research on Asian American and Pacific Islander women Attending to the collective voices of the women themselves the volume seeks to transform current understandings of Asian American and Pacific Islander women's histories

Marriage as Political Strategy and Cultural Expression George Qingzhi Zhao, 2008 Marriage as Political Strategy and Cultural Expression is the first comprehensive study of Mongolian royal marriages from World Empire 1206-1279 to the Yuan dynasty 1279-1368 in Asia. This study examines the Mongolian royal family's marriage strategies and the political implications of these royal marriages specifically the intermarriages between the Mongolian royal house and its allies including the Onggirat, the Oirat, and other Mongol peoples as well as the Uighur State and Korea in Central and East Asia. This book concludes that the short lifespans of Mongol royalty after Khubilai Khan were the result of consanguineous marriage and inbreeding genetic factors that contributed to the collapse of the Mongol dynasty.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights Johannes Morsink, 2010-08-03 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Book for 1999. Born of a shared revulsion against the horrors of the Holocaust, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights has become the single most important statement of international ethics. It was inspired by and reflects the full scope of President Franklin Roosevelt's famous four freedoms: the freedom of speech and expression, the freedom of worship, the freedom from want, and the freedom from fear. Written by a UN commission led by Eleanor Roosevelt and adopted in 1948, the Declaration has become the moral backbone of more than two hundred human rights instruments that are now a part of our world. The result of a truly international negotiating process, the document has been a source of hope and inspiration to thousands of groups and millions of oppressed individuals.

The Impudent Ones Marguerite Duras, 2021-03-09 Published for the first time in English, the debut novel of Marguerite Duras, renowned author of The Lover and The War, is the story of a family's moral reckoning and a daughter's fall from grace. Marguerite Duras rose to global stardom with her erotic masterpiece The Lover (L'Amant), which won the prestigious Prix Goncourt, has over a million copies in print in English, has been translated into forty-three languages, and was adapted into a canonical film in 1992. While almost all of Duras's novels have been translated into English, her debut The Impudent Ones (Les Impudents) has been a glaring exception until now. Fans of Duras will be thrilled to discover the germ of her bold, vital prose and signature blend of memoir and fiction in this intense and mournful story of the Taneran family which introduces Duras's classic themes of familial conflict illicit romance and scandal in the sleepy suburbs and southwest provinces of France Duras's great gift was her ability to bring vivid and passionate life to characters with whom society may not have sympathized but with whom readers certainly do With storytelling that evokes in equal parts beauty and brutality The Impudent Ones depicts the scalding effects of seduction and disrepute on the soul of a young French girl Including an essay on the story behind The Impudent Ones by Jean Vallier biographer of the late Duras which contextualizes the origins of Duras's debut novel this one of a kind publishing endeavor will delight established Duras fans and a new generation of readers alike Creating Equality at Home Francine
