Fat and Thin (Le Ventre de Paris) Émile Zola, 1888. The Fat and the Thin Émile Zola, 2017-04-26. We can recommend Mr Vizetelly's translation of Le Ventre de Paris as a very satisfactory rendering of a remarkable book. Mr Vizetelly, while suppressing the grossness which makes the original obnoxious to English readers, has preserved the passion, the humour, and the terrible insight of the original. Zola has never drawn a picture more pitilessly faithful to the lower side of our common humanity than this. It is a drama which reads like a page torn out of the book of life itself. SPEAKER Intensely realistic. Some of the characters are drawn with a master hand and the two rival beauties will bear comparison with any of the portraits in the author's literary gallery. GLASGOW HERALD M Zola seems equally at home with all phases of life in Paris and nothing could be more striking and realistic than his story of existence in and around those gigantic Central Markets of the gay city. The Fat and the Thin must be regarded as a life-like and vigorous work. PUBLIC OPINION The book contains some of the most poetical and idyllic scenes M Zola has ever written. The adventures of Cadine are very beautifully told. NORFOLK STANDARD One of the most striking of Zola's novels. The story puts into a book the life of the great markets of Paris, familiar to tourists as one of the sights of the town. If not the best of its author's novels, it is at least a new and characteristic work and the appearance of so excellent a version will be welcome to a great number of English readers. SCOTSMAN The Fat and the Thin Emile Zola, 2024-01-02. The Fat and the Thin is an ancient Realism social story book written by Emile Zola. The Fat and the Thin is a timeless traditional which explores attractive topics such as human nature and the pursuit of delight. Zola's book, which chooses the realism technique, honestly depicts the lives that individuals lead from several socioeconomic degrees, mainly in an attractive research of class boundaries and cultural requirements Zola's protagonists are meticulously crafted each unmarried one representing a critical societal problem from the wealthy elite to the underprivileged who perform in fantastic style including fervor and complexity to the narrative Zola's creative work is noteworthy for its lovely visible and incisive social statement which receives rid of gloom from the maximum horrible factors of the human scenario while simultaneously demonstrating moments of compassion and redemption Emile Zola a French author have come to be curious approximately elements are even though writing on society morals and human nature
