Fathers and Their Families Stanley H. Cath, Alan R. Gurwitt, Linda Gunsberg, 2013-05-13 In 28 chapters and extensive editorial commentary this book explores the changing roles of fathers changes prompted partly by societal shifts and partly by changes in the family and in traditional parental roles Among the topical studies con Googling God John Cox, 2008 In these pages author John Cox talks about some of the discoveries he s made in his search for God John grew up in apartheid torn South Africa raised in a religious brand of Christianity Life took him first to Swaziland then England and finally to the western coast of Canada as well as many other places His experience as a veterinary assistant a student a business consultant a father and yes even as a pastor has helped him search the ups and downs of life more deeply On the Holy Trinity; Doctrinal Treatises; Moral Treatises Saint Augustine, Fathers Who Fail Melvin R. Lansky, 2013-05-13 Despite the burgeoning literature on the role of the father in child development and on fathering as a developmental stage surprisingly little has been written about the psychiatrically impaired father In Fathers Who Fail Melvin Lansky remedies this glaring lacuna in the literature Drawing on contemporary psychoanalysis family systems theory and the sociology of conflict he delineates the spectrum of psychopathological predicaments that undermine the ability of the father to be a father Out of his sensitive integration of the intrapsychic and intrafamilial contexts of paternal failure emerges a richly textured portrait of psychiatrically impaired fathers of fathers who fail Lansky s probing discussion of narcissistic equilibrium in the family system enables him to chart the natural history common to the symptomatic impulsive actions of impaired fathers He then considers specific manifestations of paternal dysfunction within this shared framework of heightened familial conflict and the failure of intrafamilial defenses to common shame Domestic violence suicide the intensification of trauma posttraumatic nightmares catastrophic reactions in organic brain syndrome and the murder of a spouse are among the major symptoms that he explores In each instance Lansky carefully sketches the progression of vulnerability and turbulence from the father s personality to the family system and thence to the symptomatic eruption in question In his concluding chapter he comments tellingly on the unconscious obstacles on the part of both patients and therapists to treating impaired fathers The obstacles cut across different clinical modalities underscoring the need for multimodal responses to fathers who fail "The"
