The Prophet-King Wayne Meeks,2017-07-24 Among modern analyses of the origin and development of John's Christology the socio religious analysis of Wayne A Meeks advances one of the most compelling and suggestive theses in recent years addressing the riddles pertaining to the puzzling presentation of Jesus as a prophet king like Moses in John 6 14 15 Whereas the Logos motif of the Johannine Prologue and the Father Son relationship in the Johannine narrative convey high christological thrusts his receptions as a rabbi teacher and prophet elsewhere in John's story of Jesus are far more mundane and earth bound Was the origin and development of John's presentation of Jesus here political historical theological sociological or some combination of the like These are the issues Wayne Meeks addresses in his first of several important monographs and his work continues to impact New Testament studies to this day From the Foreword by Paul N Anderson

Anti-Judaism in Galatians? Michael Bachmann,2009-06-15 Several modern interpretations of Paul's letter to the Galatians claim to uncover an underlying attitude of anti Judaism Michael Bachmann refutes those claims with his own detailed exegesis and astute examination of comparative material from the religious environment of that day revealing instead how Paul embraces both Jews and Gentiles Bachmann holds that in the determination of meaning the literary context of Galatians should be considered over historical background Nonetheless he does engage parallels in Qumran material and archaeology as secondary methods to confirm his exegetical arguments Through his rigorous examination Bachmann shows that Galatians exhibits evidence of anti Judaism not in itself but only in its reception Rich in scholarship and sound exegesis Anti Judaism in Galatians is an ideal text for scholars and students seeking the whole truth about Paul In Search of the

Scarlata, 2012-06-28 This study is an examination of the principal ancient translations of Gen 4 1 16 in the Hebrew Bible The goal is to understand the translation techniques adopted by the translators to what extent external influences may have affected their work and how each version communicates its message through its literary form In addition to the versional renderings of the Hebrew text this inquiry also takes into account various ancient Jewish and Christian interpretations of the Cain narrative The primary focus of the work is on the

Jewish Martyrs in the Pagan and Christian Worlds Shmuel Shepkaru,2006 This book presents a linear history of Jewish martyrdom from the Hellenistic period to the high Middle Ages Following the chronology of sources the study challenges the general consensus that martyrdom was an original Hellenistic Jewish idea Instead Jews like Philo and Josephus internalized the idealized Roman concept of voluntary death and presented it as an old Jewish practice The centrality of self sacrifice in Christianity further stimulated the development of rabbinic martyrology and the talmudic guidelines for passive martyrdom However when forced to choose between death and conversion in medieval Christendom Ashkenazic Jews went beyond these guidelines sacrificing themselves and loved ones Through death not only did they attempt to prove their religiosity but also to disprove the religious legitimacy of their Christian persecutors While martyrs and martyrologies intended to show how Judaism differed from Christianity they in fact reveal a common mindset
