The Feminine Eye:

The Feminine Eye Shana Alexander, 1970 The Feminine Eye Women's International Art Club, 1974 Faces in the Brain - a Behavioral, Eye-tracking and High-level Adaptation Approach to Human Face Perception Regine G. M. Armann, 2011 The Eye's Mind Karen Jacobs, 2018-09-05

The Eye's Mind significantly alters our understanding of modernist literature by showing how changing visual discourses techniques and technologies affected the novels of that period In readings that bring philosophies of vision into dialogue with photography and film as well as the methods of observation used by the social sciences Karen Jacobs identifies distinctly modernist kinds of observers and visual relationships This important reconception of modernism draws upon American British and French literary and extra literary materials from the period 1900 1955 These texts share a sense of crisis about vision's capacity for violence and its inability to deliver reliable knowledge Jacobs looks closely at the ways in which historical understandings of race and gender inflected visual relations in the modernist novel She shows how modernist writers increasingly aware of the body behind the neutral lens of the observer used diverse strategies to displace embodiment onto those others historically perceived as cultural bodies in order to reimagine for themselves or their characters a purified gaze The Eye's Mind addresses works by such high modernists as Vladimir Nabokov Virginia Woolf and more distantly Ralph Ellison and Maurice Blanchot as well as those by Henry James Zora Neale Hurston and Nathanael West which have been tentatively placed in the modernist canon although they forgo the full blown experimental techniques often seen as synonymous with literary modernism Jacobs reframes fundamental debates about modernist aesthetic practices by demonstrating how much those practices are indebted to the changing visual cultures of the twentieth century

Kassandra and the Censors Karen Van Dyck, 2018-05-31 In this pioneering study of contemporary Greek poetry Karen Van Dyck investigates modernist and postmodernist poetics at the edge of Europe She traces the influential role of Greek women writers back to the sexual politics of censorship under the dictatorship 1967 1974 Reading the effects of censorship in cartoons the dictator's speeches the poetry of the Nobel Laureate George Seferis and the younger generation of poets she shows how women poets use strategies which although initiated in response to the regime's press law prove useful in articulating a feminist critique In poetry collections by Rhea Galanaki Jenny Mastoraki and Maria Laina among others she analyzes how the censors tactics for stabilizing signification are redeployed to disrupt fixed meanings and gender roles As much a literary analysis of culture as a cultural analysis of literature her book explores how censorship consumerism and feminism influence contemporary Greek women s poetry as well as how the resistance to clarity in this poetry trains readers to rethink these cultural practices Only with greater attention to the cultural and formal specificity of writing Van Dyck argues is it possible to theorize the lessons of censorship and women s writing
