The Fiction Of Julian Barnes Readers Guides To Essential Criticism:

The Fiction of Julian Barnes Vanessa Guignery, 2006-01-23 Julian Barnes's work has been marked by great variety ranging not only from conventional fiction to postmodernist experimentation in such well known novels as Flaubert's Parrot 1984 and A History of the World in 10 1/2 Chapters 1989 but also from witty essays to deeply touching short stories The responses of readers and critics have likewise varied from enthusiasm to scepticism as the substantial volume of critical analysis demonstrates This Readers Guide provides a comprehensive and accessible overview of the essential criticism on Barnes's work drawing from a selection of reviews interviews essays and books Through the presentation and assessment of key critical interpretations Vanessa Guignery provides the most wide ranging examination of his fiction and non fiction so far considering key issues such as his use of language his treatment of history obsession love and the relationship between fact and fiction Covering all of the novels to date from Metroland 1981 to Arthur and George 2005 this is an invaluable introduction to the work of one of Britain's most exciting and popular contemporary writers Julian Barnes Sebastian Groes, Peter Childs, 2011-06-30 Julian Barnes is one of the most refined British writers and distinguished intellectuals of his generation whose rich body of work has been awarded many literary prizes both in the UK and abroad This critical guide provides a wide range of current critical perspectives on Barnes work The Fiction of Margaret Atwood Fiona Tolan, 2022-09-22 Winner of the 2023 Atwood Society Award for Best Book on Atwood and Her Work Margaret Atwood is one of the most significant writers working today Her writing spans seven decades is phenomenally diverse and ambitious and has amassed an enormous body of literary criticism In this invaluable guide Fiona Tolan provides a clear and comprehensive overview of evolving critical approaches to Atwood's work Addressing all of the author's key texts the book deftly guides the reader through the most characteristic influential and insightful critical readings of the last fifty years It highlights recurring themes in Atwood's work such as gender feminism power and violence fairy tale and the gothic environmental destruction and dystopian futures This is an indispensable companion for anyone interested in reading and writing about Margaret Atwood Matters of Telling: The Impulse of the Story Carlo Comanducci, Alex Wilkinson, 2018-11-26 In this book multiple authors and perspectives converge on the materiality of storytelling in order to court its potentialities and flesh out its tensions Reflecting through its methodological multiplicity not only the vast array of discourses and disciplines that concern themselves with the study of narration but also the various and variable subjects of the act of telling the collective effort of this volume is less to map or track than to amplify the possibilities of contingent situations embodied relations and specific texts in which beyond the tale the telling itself speaks and matters Ethics in Culture Astrid Erll, Herbert Grabes, Ansgar Nünning, 2008-08-27 Alongside the recent cultural turn in the humanities there has been a noticeable return to ethical considerations With regard to literature as well as other media this has rekindled awareness of a tension antagonism or even disparity between ethics and aesthetics This volume of articles takes a more systematic and cross disciplinary approach to the widely mooted ethical turn in literature and other media than has been pursued so far It brings together a wide range of critical perspectives from literary studies media and cultural memory studies and philosophy tracing the complex and sometimes conflicting relationship between ethics and aesthetics in theoretical contexts and individual case studies as diverse as colonial architecture nineteenth century literary histories and postmodern writing and art The Fiction of Chinua Achebe Jago Morrison,2009-07-23 Since the emergence of Things Fall Apart in 1958 Chinua Achebe has come to be regarded by many as the Godfather of modern African writing Over 150 full length studies of his work have been published together with many hundreds of scholarly articles This Reader s Guide enables students to navigate the rich and bewildering field of Achebe criticism setting out the key areas of critical debate the most influential alternative approaches to his work and the controversies that have so often surrounded it The Guide examines Achebe s key novels with the main focus on Things Fall Apart and also discusses his less well known short fiction Including discussion of important Nigerian scholarship that is often inaccessible this is an invaluable introduction to the work of one of Africa s most important and popular writers

The Fiction of A.S. Byatt Louisa Hadley,2017-09-16 This Guide examines the key critical responses to Byatt s fiction both her novels and short stories tracing the wider debates about realism postmodernism and feminism with which they engage The Guide also explores the themes which are central to Byatt s work such as her depiction of writer figures and her conception of artistic vision Englishness Revisited Floriane Reviron-Piégay,2020-10-27 What is Englishness Is there such a thing as a national temperament is there a character or an identity which can be claimed to be specifically English This collection of articles seeks to answer these questions by offering a kaleidoscopic vision of Englishness since the eighteenth century a vision that acknowledges stereotypes while at the same time challenging them Englishness is defined in contrast to Britishness the Celtic fringe Scotland in particular Europe and the Continent at large The effects of the Empire and of its loss are examined together with other socio economic factors such as the two World Wars de industrialization and the different waves of immigration Through a careful analysis of the arts literature philosophy historiography cultural and political studies produced in England and on the Continent over the last three centuries a composite image of Englishness emerges somewhere between centre and periphery tradition and innovation transience and timelessness rurality and urbanity commitment and isolation Englishness is thus revealed as a protean concept one which whether it is a historical or political construct a genuine emanation of a national desire or a simulacrum retains its fascination and this volume offers keys to understanding its diverse expressions Recounting Cultural Encounters Marija Knežević,2009-10-02 Contributions reprinted in this book highlight some of the wide ranging ways in which the issues of culture and identity can be approached in a literary text while focusing on the ways in which cultural encounters have been changing both the world and its reflection in literature The beginning of the twenty first century is an appropriate time to repay careful attention to these issues Understanding how our perception of the Other changes with the concept of the world we inhabit we want to emphasize the rising importance of fostering cultural pluralism and global understanding Having based their research on widespread readings in academia such as deconstruction post colonialism post modernism new historicism and narratology the authors of these papers proceed by addressing the metaphor of travel as one of the strongest metaphors for the evolution of mankind especially if considered under the light of the historically and politically imposed opposition between the progressive western and the static eastern or African societies However as the end of the imperialist era brought about poignant awareness of cultural relativism as well as deconstruction of the great narrative of progress facing the Other as an unconceptualized entity became a major moral concern of a modern traveller It is pronounced that this concern should be textually testified to dramatize the human inability to avoid verbal appropriation of the other The final question we seek to answer is whether the era of advanced technology and globalisation along with a post modern ironical attitude to hyper realities and textual transparencies has rendered the sphere of the text the only available point of concern of contemporary literature and thought in general For its argumentation strongly founded in recent literary studies and humanities in general its interdisciplinary nature and its focus on the actual global problems of abrupt cultural change and exchange its heightened understanding of the necessity of coexistence of differences in a changing world its spirit of tolerance and its international spirit in general we assume this collection will not only attract academic literary scholars but will also appeal to the general reading public
