The Fields Beneath The History Of One London Village:

The Fields Beneath Gillian Tindall,1980 The streets of London s Kentish Town follow the patterns of older settlements which in turn were shaped by the natural life of the land The author shows how richly rewarding it is to uncover your town s past

The Diary of a Nobody George Grossmith, Weedon Grossmith,2008-11-20 The Diary of a Nobody the spoof diary of Charles Pooter a London clerk first appeared as a book in 1892 and has never been out of print since The hilariously trivial doings of the accident prone Pooter his wife Carrie and their troublesome son Lupin have inspired many writers since including the authors of Bridget Jones s Diary and The Secret Diary of Adrian Mole The satirical novelist Evelyn Waugh called it the funniest book in the world This enduring classic of Victorian social comedy is now available in a newly edited Broadview edition This edition includes a critical introduction comprehensive notes on the many historical allusions in the text and a wide selection of relevant contemporary materials on the clerk s life suburbia spiritualism and domestic economy A selection of Weedon Grossmith s original illustrations also accompanies the novel

London in the Twentieth Century Jerry White,2009-11-10 Jerry White s London in the Twentieth Century Winner of the Wolfson Prize is a masterful account of the city s most tumultuous century by its leading expert In 1901 no other city matched London in size wealth and grandeur Yet it was also a city where poverty and disease were rife For its inhabitants such contradictions and diversity were the defining experience of the next century of dazzling change In the worlds of work and popular culture politics and crime through war immigration and sexual revolution Jerry White s richly detailed and captivating history shows how the city shaped their lives and how it in turn was shaped by them

Chaucer and the City Ardis Butterfield,2006 Presenting essays exploring Chaucer s identity as a London poet and the urban context for his writings this volume addresses the centrality of the city in Chaucer s work and the importance of Chaucer to a literature and a language of the city

The Real Oliver Twist John Waller,2005-10-06 From a parish workhouse to the heart of the industrial revolution from debtors jail to Cambridge University and a prestigious London church Robert Blincoe s political personal and turbulent story illuminates the Dickensian age like never before In 1792 as revolution riot and sedition spread across Europe Robert Blincoe was born in the calm of rural St Pancras parish At four he was abandoned to a workhouse never to see his family again At seven he was sent 200 miles north to work in one of the cotton mills of the dawning industrial age He suffered years of unrelenting abuse a life dictated by the inhuman rhythm of machines Like Dickens most famous character Blincoe rebelled after years of servitude He fought back against the mill owners earning beatings but gaining self respect He joined the campaign to protect children gave evidence to a Royal Commission into factory conditions and worked with extraordinary tenacity to keep his own children from the factories His life was immortalised in one of the most remarkable biographies ever written A Memoir of Robert Blincoe Renowned popular historian John Waller tells the true story of a parish boy s progress with passion and in enthralling detail

1970s London Alec Forshaw,2011-02-15 Following a sheltered childhood and a sequestered education in

Cambridge and having missed out on the swinging sixties Alec Forshaw was ready for a dose of the wider world London in the early 1970s was where the lights shone brightest In reality it was still a city struggling to find its post war identity full of declining industries and derelict docklands a townscape blighted by undeveloped bomb sites demonic motorway proposals and slum clearance schemes The streets were full of costermongers and greasy spoon cafes but enlivened by ghettos of immigrants and student culture Ideas of traffic constraint and recycling rubbish were in their infancy It was a decade which saw the three day week the Notting Hill riots and the last of the anti Vietnam war protests This sequel to Growing Up in Cambridge portrays the London of over thirty years ago as it appeared to a young man in his twenties finding his feet coming of age and stumbling across the sights and sounds of an extraordinary city The Past is a Foreign Country David Lowenthal, 1985-11-14 Lowenthal looks at the benefits and burdens of the past how we study the past and how we change it

Dolly's Creek Susan Lawrence, 2000-06-11 Between 1990 and 1992 a group of archaeologists mapped the remains of the settlement on the Moorabool and excavated four houses there Like the miners they were drawn to the site by the desire to dig for treasure In Dolly's Creek Susan Lawrence tells the story both of their archaeological research and of the community they uncovered Dolly's Creek uses landscape material objects and documents to gain an understanding of the nature of the diggings community and of the ways in which it changed as the gold rush passed Susan Lawrence's imaginative exploratory approach invites us to engage in the clue finding jigsaw like quality of the archaeological hunt This is a beautifully written book historical ethnography at its best

The Past Is a Foreign Country - Revisited David Lowenthal, 2015-10-01 The past remains essential and inescapable A quarter century after the publication of his classic account of man's attitudes to his past David Lowenthal revisits how we celebrate expunge contest and domesticate the past to serve present needs He shows how nostalgia and heritage now pervade every facet of public and popular culture History embraces nature and the cosmos as well as humanity The past is seen and touched and tasted and smelt as well as heard and read about Empathy re-enactment memory and commemoration overwhelm traditional history A unified past once certified by experts and reliant on written texts has become a fragmented contested history forged by us all New insights into history and memory bias and objectivity artefacts and monuments identity and authenticity and remorse and contrition make this book once again the essential guide to the past that we inherit reshape and bequeath to the future

Educating the Respectable Professor W E Marsden, W. E. Marsden, 2005-08-18 Under its first headmaster W B Adams Fleet Road Board School was an outstanding success described by a contemporary journal as the finest elementary school in Europe This study explains the school's success using contemporary sources and newspapers and the oral evidence of ex-pupils Bearbrass Robyn

Annear, 2014-03-26 Just a little way down Collins Street beside Henry Buck's is a perpetually dark but sheltered laneway called Equitable Place Here you'll find a number of places to eat and drink Settle yourself in the window of one shut your eyes and picture this scene of yore In this much loved book Robyn Annear resurrects the village that was early Melbourne from the arrival of white settlers in 1835 until the first gold rushes shook the town and brings it to life in vivid colour Bearbrass was one of the local names by which Melbourne was known and Annear provides a fascinating living portrait of the streetlife of this town In a lively and engaging style she overlays her reinvention of Bearbrass with her own impressions and experiences of the modern city enabling Melburnians and visitors to imagine the early township and remind themselves of the rich history that lies beneath today's modern metropolis The original Bearbrass won the A A Phillips Award for Australian Studies in the 1995 Victorian Premier's Literary Awards Annear writes with an historian's eye for detail and a flair for ironic observation An affectionate journey rich in detail and character The Age Robyn Annear is an ex typist who lives in country Victoria with somebody else's husband She is the author of A City Lost and Found Bearbrass Nothing But Gold The Man Who Lost Himself and Fly a Rebel Flag She has also written several pieces for The Monthly magazine London In The Nineteenth Century Jerry White,2011-06-08 Jerry White's London in the Nineteenth Century is the richest and most absorbing account of the city's greatest century by its leading expert London in the nineteenth century was the greatest city mankind had ever seen Its growth was stupendous Its wealth was dazzling Its horrors shocked the world This was the London of Blake Thackeray and Mayhew of Nash Faraday and Disraeli Most of all it was the London of Dickens As William Blake put it London was a Human awful wonder of God In Jerry White's dazzling history we witness the city's unparalleled metamorphosis over the course of the century through the daily lives of its inhabitants We see how Londoners worked played and adapted to the demands of the metropolis during this century of dizzying change The result is a panorama teeming with life Plein Airs and Graces Adrian Mitchell,2012 Plein Airs and Graces examines the extraordinary life of George Collingridge de Tourcey a landscape painter of the late nineteenth century just ahead of the Australian impressionists When he emigrated from France to Australia he grew passionate about the possibilities of his new country and worked tirelessly to contribute to it not least for his Discovery of Australia 1895 in which on the evidence of ancient maps he argued controversially for Portuguese and Hispanic pre discovery of Australia Valued Environments John R. Gold,Jacquelin Burgess,2019-03-21 First published in 1982 People care about places Inhabitants demand more participation in the changes proposed for their local environments activists urge greater protection of countryside and natural environments decision makers feel threatened by the antagonism aroused by their powers and plans The essays in this book have been drawn together to discover what lies behind these expressions of concern and discontent Valued environments are places for which people feel commitment and affection places which support a sense of personal identity and well being The authors explore the character and constituents of valued environments asking how our experiences of environments may be enhanced What is the impact of environmental change How can the future be accommodated in both rural and urban environments without destroying their essential qualities The reader will find substantive evidence from case studies of environments valued by inhabitants and outsiders which answer these questions Examples are taken from wilderness areas fenland market towns and large cities commercial streets and residential neighbourhoods environments of the past and those imagined in science fiction The essays are united in their focus on the meaning of places and landscapes The subtle but highly significant role of valued environments is examined thoroughly in the book It will be of interest to all who care deeply about their surroundings reflecting perhaps some of their own experiences as well as conveying information about the environmental experiences of others Students of geography environmental planning and conservation should also find the book directly relevant to their interests in man environment relationships

Writing the History of Memory Stefan Berger,Bill Niven,2014-02-13 How objective are our history books This addition to the Writing History series examines the critical role that memory plays in the writing of history This book includes Essays from an international team of historians bringing together analysis of forms of public history such as museums exhibitions memorials and speeches Coverage of the ancient world to the present on topics such as oral history and generational and collective memory Two key case studies on Holocaust memorialisation and the memory of Communism

Landscape History and Rural Society in Southern England Eric L. Jones,2021-03-08 This book applies an economic and environmental perspective to the history of landscape and the rural economy highlighting their inter connections through specific case studies After explaining how the author made his discoveries and when they started it analyses relations between documentary and landscape evidence It is based on exceptional first hand observation of a dozen sites and close consideration of topics in the ecological and economic history of southern England They range from reclaiming chalk down land occupying low lying heaths and reconstructing parkland to wool stapling and the manufacture of gunstocks for the African slave trade Additional themes include the tension between ecology and institutions in decisions about the location of economic activity the decay of communal farming ahead of enclosure and other interesting puzzles in rural economic history This book offers an original approach to questions in economic history through its synthesis of different types of evidence It will be of interest to a diverse range of readers because it addresses how economic change was registered in the landscape and how that change was influenced by landscape It is a book with highly original features contributing simultaneously to economic agricultural environmental and landscape history

Envisioning the Past Sam Smiles,Stephanie Moser,2008-04-15 Envisioning the Past Archaeology and the Image is a groundbreaking collection of original essays that brings together archaeologists art historians and anthropologists to provide new perspectives on the construction of knowledge concerning the antiquity of man Covers a wide variety of time periods and topics from the Renaissance and the 18th century to the engravings photography and virtual realities of today Questions what we can learn from considering the use of images in the past and present that might guide our responsible use of them in the future Available within the prestigious New Interventions in Art History series published in connection with the Association of Art Historians

Context Eric Parry,2015-05-08 Demonstrates how a building s setting should inform and inspire rather than constrain architectural design Context Architecture and the Genius of Place is a highly engaging informative discussion of context in architectural theory and practice Eric Parry one of the UK's most highly regarded architects whose work has been widely lauded for its innovative response to its setting addresses the contemporary definition of context and its importance for sustainable everyday living and urban design Looking beyond the formal agenda to explore the fundamentals that give new social and cultural perspective to this vital point of departure for designers this book turns the urban statistician's telescopic focus on global trends inside out for a better understanding of the cultural and physical conditions that make archetypes like the Parisian Caf the London High Street the Baltic City Square and the Mumbai Market part of the architect's lexicon From pavement to landscape readers will examine how context must be taken into account at every stage in the design process This book draws on the author's extensive experience within complex urban settings to show how the existing fabric and social conditions can provide an essential starting point for new design offering a framework for thinking about design responses and their relationship to cultural origins of place Discover the importance of orientation Develop a sequential understanding of urban space Hear the dialogue between parts within a whole Differentiate the uses of formal and informal Whereas existing urban settings particularly historic city centers are generally regarded as limiting to architectural creativity this book presents context as grounds for inspiration rather than constraint When used correctly these techniques create the feeling that a new building has always been there simply because it fits Context explains the methods behind brilliant architecture helping designers create buildings that not only belong but can provide a catalyst to urban life
