Bender, 2016-05-05 First published in 1981 A Concordance to the Poems of John Keats intended to provide the user with a volume suitable to the varying and increasingly specialised interests of scholarship This title offers a high degree of inclusiveness that attends to the poems and plays the emended and authoritative headings and virtually all of the variant readings considered substantive in the riches of the Keats manuscript materials This title will be of interest to students of literature Mega-Events, City and Power Nelma Gusmão de Oliveira, 2020-10-21 This book examines the power relations that emerge from the convergence of the universe in which the sporting spectacle is produced and the universe in which a city is produced It adopts Bourdieu's concept of field to explore the interests and disputes involved in the production of sports mega events across different times and spaces and the role of host cities in these processes It aims to identify the bases that give these spectacles the power to produce disruptions in the social fabric of the host cities and countries and to enable the production of authoritarian forms of exercising power By observing the historical constitution of the field of production of sport spectacle as an autonomous field this book explores how sport mega events create both an arena and a context for radical expressions of authoritarianism of neoliberal planning models It will be of interest to students scholars and professionals in architecture and urban studies urban planning municipal governance sport and leisure studies and those interested in the relationship between State and capital in the production of urban space      Unwitting Zionists Haya Gavish, 2010 A study of the Iraqi Jewish community of Zakho that investigates the community's attachment to the Land of Israel the effects of Zionist activity and immigration to Palestine and Israel Unwitting Zionists examines the Jewish community in the northern Kurdistan town of Zakho from the end of the Ottoman period until the disappearance of the community through aliyah by 1951 Because of its remote location Zakho was far removed from the influence of the Jewish religious leadership in Iraq and preserved many of its religious traditions independently becoming the most important Jewish community in the region and known as Jerusalem of Kurdistan Author Haya Gavish argues therefore that when the community was exposed to Zionism it began to open up to external influences and activity Originally published in Hebrew Unwitting Zionists uses personal memoirs historical records and interviews to investigate the duality between Jewish tradition and Zionism among Zakho's Jews Gavish consults a variety of sources to examine the changes undergone by the Jewish community as a result of its religious affiliation with Eretz Israel its exposure to Zionist efforts and its eventual immigration to Israel Because relatively little written documentation about Zakho exists Gavish relies heavily on folkloristic sources like personal recollections and traditional stories including extensive material from her own fieldwork with an economically and demographically diverse group of men and women from Zakho She analyzes this firsthand information within a historical framework to reconstruct a communal reality and lifestyle that was virtually unknown to anyone outside of the community Appendixes contain biographical details of the interviewees for additional background Gavish also addresses the relative merits of personal memoirs optimal interviewer interviewee relationships and the problem of relying on the interviewees' memories in her study Folklore oral history anthropology and Israeli studies scholars as well as anyone wanting to learn more about religion community and nationality in the Middle East will appreciate Unwitting Zionists      Holland Thomas Colley Grattan, 2020-07-16 Reproduction of the original Holland by Thomas Colley Grattan      Martin Luther Alberto Melloni, 2017-12-20 The three volumes present the current state of international research on Martin Luther's life and work and the Reformation's manifold influences on history churches politics culture philosophy arts and society up to the 21st century The work is initiated by the Fondazione per le scienze religiose Giovanni XXIII Bologna in cooperation with the European network Refo500 This handbook is also available in German      A Nation of Deadbeats Scott Reynolds Nelson, 2013-06-04 Pundits will argue that the 2008 financial crisis was the first crash in American history driven by consumer debt But in this spirited highly engaging account Scott Reynolds Nelson demonstrates that consumer debt has underpinned almost every major financial panic in the nation's history From William Duer's attempts to profit off the country's post Revolutionary War debt to an 1815 plan to sell English coats to Americans on credit to the debt fueled railroad expansion that precipitated the 1857 crash in each case the chain of banks brokers moneylenders and insurance companies that separated borrowers and lenders made it impossible to distinguish good loans from bad Bound up in this history are stories of national banks funded by smugglers fistfights in Congress over the gold standard America s early dependence on British bankers and how presidential campaigns were forged in controversies over private debt An irreverent wholly accessible eye opening book     The Jerusalem Delivered of Torquato Tasso. Translated in the Metre of the Original. By ... C. L. Smith Torquato Tasso,1874     The Routledge Anthology of Poets on Poets David Hopkins,2003-09-02 A comprehensive record of the history and progress of English poetry It collects together writings by all the major and some of the lesser known figures from Chaucer to Yeats demonstrating their vivid responses to each other     The Jerusalem Delivered of Torquato Tasso Charles Smith,2023-10-18 Reprint of the original first published in 1874 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost
