Framing the Fight against Human Trafficking Amanda D. Clark, 2019-06-04 Nongovernmental organizations NGOs in the anti human trafficking movement have proliferated over the past few decades many of these NGOs have joined coalitions to pool resources and expertise How do changes in the external political environment or the internal coalition structure impact NGO framing strategy

Framing the Fight Against Human Trafficking: Movement Coalitions and Tactical Diffusion uses a unique dataset to analyze the discursive processes of fifteen U S anti trafficking NGOs involved in the Alliance to End Slavery and Trafficking ATEST from 2008 2014 This analysis shows that ATEST has targeted the state contentious politics and private industry private politics to advance its agenda Sex trafficking has normally been met with tactics from the contentious politics model due to its historical legal connection with prostitution labor trafficking conversely has been approached via the private politics model due to its connection with business However the coalition s formal organizational structure has enabled members to learn from each other and apply these models in innovative ways This study builds theory by showing how learning in social movement coalitions can diffuse tactics and provide new action repertoires for members The Fight for the Crown William Edward Norris,1898 The ARVN and the Fight for South Vietnam Nghia M. Vo,2021-09-09 With the withdrawal of French forces from South Vietnam in 1955 the U S took an ever widening role in defending the country against invasion by North Vietnam By 1965 the U S had Americanized the war relegating the Army of the Republic of Vietnam ARVN to a supporting role While the U S won many tactical victories it had difficulty controlling the territory it fought for As the war grew increasingly unpopular with the American public the North Vietnamese launched two large scale invasions in 1968 and 1972 both tactical defeats but strategic victories for the North that precipitated the U S policy of Vietnamization the drawdown of American forces that left the ARVN to fight alone This book examines the maturation of the ARVN and the major battles it fought from 1963 to its demise in 1975 Despite its flaws the ARVN was a well organized and disciplined force with an independent spirit and contributed enormously to the war effort Had the U S Vietnamized the war earlier it might have been won in 1967 1968
