The Rebel Nun Marj Charlier, 2021-03-02 Marj Charlier's The Rebel Nun is based on the true story of Clotild the daughter of a sixth century king and his concubine who leads a rebellion of nuns against the rising misogyny and patriarchy of the medieval church At that time women are afforded few choices in life prostitution motherhood or the cloister Only the latter offers them any kind of independence By the end of the sixth century even this is eroding as the church begins to eject women from the clergy and declares them too unclean to touch sacramental objects or even their priest husbands Craving the legitimacy thwarted by her bastard status Clotild seeks to become the next abbess of the female Monastery of the Holy Cross the most famous of the women's cloisters of the early Middle Ages When the bishop of Poitiers blocks her appointment and seeks to control the nunnery himself Clotild masterminds an escape leading a group of nuns on a dangerous pilgrimage to beg her royal relatives to intercede on their behalf But the bishop refuses to back down and a bloody battle ensues Will Clotild and her sisters succeed with their quest or will they face excommunication possibly even death In the only historical novel written about the incident The Rebel Nun is a richly imagined story about a truly remarkable heroine A Century of Italian War Narratives, 2023-06-12 This volume focuses on acts of courage defiance and sacrifice undertaken during World War I and II by individuals that mainstream history has relegated to the sidelines Drawn from different genres literary cinematic diaristic and historical the experiences that these outsiders confronted lay bare the intimate if lacerating choices that they faced in their struggle for freedom Ignored by official history the testimonials that war prisoners female partisan leaders spies deserters and disillusioned soldiers offer provide a fresh insight into the social political historical and ethical contradictions that define warfare rhetoric in the twentieth century The book's ten contributors delve into the conflicts between oppressive authorities and the desire for freedom With verve and energy they revive these largely neglected voices and turn them into a provocative medium to discuss and redefine issues still relevant today heroism pacifism national pride gender issues faith personal and collective history The Fight with Rome Justin Dewey Fulton, 1889 The Princess Nun Gina Cogan, 2020-05-11 The Princess Nun tells the story of Bunchi 1619-1697 daughter of Emperor Go Mizunoo and founder of Enshu-ji Bunchi advocated strict adherence to monastic precepts while devoting herself to the posthumous welfare of her family As the first full length biographical study of a premodern Japanese nun this book incorporates issues of gender and social status into its discussion of Bunchi's ascetic practice and religious reforms to rewrite the history of Buddhist reform and Tokugawa religion Gina Cogan's approach moves beyond the dichotomy of oppression and liberation that dogs

the study of non Western and premodern women to show how Bunchi s aristocratic status enabled her to carry out reforms despite her gender while simultaneously acknowledging how that same status contributed to their conservative nature Cogan s analysis of how Bunchi used her prestigious position to further her goals places the book in conversation with other works on powerful religious women like Hildegard of Bingen and Teresa of Avila Through its illumination of the relationship between the court and the shogunate and its analysis of the practice of courtly Buddhism from a female perspective this study brings historical depth and fresh theoretical insight into the role of gender and class in early Edo Buddhism Philly War Zone Kevin Purcell,2012 In this true story set in the 1970s you ll look through the eyes of then 14 year old Kevin Purcell who s now a professional advertising writer as he watches his perfect childhood neighborhood turn into a racial battleground where two young kids are stabbed to death including one of Kevin s friends Read as the author describes what it was like as young kids black and white from working class families suddenly find themselves on the front lines of racial upheaval

Benedictine Nuns and Kylemore Abbey Deirdre Raftery, Catherine KilBride, 2020-05-15 For one hundred years Kylemore Abbey has been home to the Irish Benedictine nuns whose monastery in Flanders was destroyed during the First World War Known in continental Europe as the Irish Dames of Ypres the community was founded in 1665 and provided education to the daughters of elite Irish Catholics during the penal era On arriving in Connemara in 1920 the Benedictines established a monastery and opened a boarding school This book provides the first fully illustrated account of the Irish Benedictines and their monastery at Kylemore It also charts the fascinating history of the castle built by Mitchell Henry and later home to the Duke and Duchess of Manchester The stunningly beautiful castle became a national landmark in the nineteenth century The twentieth century saw the Benedictines develop the gardens restore the Gothic Chapel and open the castle to the public Meticulously researched with material from the Kylemore archives this book provides a compelling account of a unique part of Irish history while the images capture the life of the nuns and the savage beauty of Kylemore and its surroundings under the Diamond Mountain Portuguese Portraits Aubrey Fitz Gerald Bell, 1917 Veiled Desires Maureen

Sabine, 2013-08-22 Ingrid Bergman s engaging screen performance as Sister Mary Benedict in The Bells of St Mary s made the film nun a star and her character a shining standard of comparison She represented the religious life as the happy and rewarding choice of a modern woman who had a complete understanding of both erotic and spiritual desire How did this vibrant and mature nun figure come to be viewed as girlish and na ve Why have she and her cinematic sisters in postwar popular film so often been stereotyped or selectively analyzed so seldom been seen as women and religious In Veiled Desires a unique full length in depth look at nuns in film Maureen Sabine explores these questions in a groundbreaking interdisciplinary study covering more than sixty years of cinema She looks at an impressive breadth of films in which the nun features as an ardent lead character including The Bells of St Mary s 1945 Black Narcissus 1947 Heaven Knows Mr Allison 1957 Sea Wife 1957 The Nun s Story 1959 The Sound of Music 1965 Change of Habit 1969 In This House of Brede 1975 Agnes of God 1985 Dead Man Walking 1995 and Doubt 2008 Veiled Desires considers how the beautiful and charismatic stars who play chaste nuns from Ingrid Bergman and Audrey Hepburn to Susan Sarandon and Meryl Streep call attention to desires that the veil concealed and the habit was thought to stifle In a theologically and psychoanalytically informed argument Sabine responds to the critics who have pigeonholed the film nun as the obedient daughter and religious handmaiden of a patriarchal church and the respectful audience who revered her as an icon of spiritual perfection Sabine provides a framework for a more complex and holistic picture of nuns onscreen by showing how the films dramatize these women's Christian call to serve sacrifice and dedicate themselves to God and their erotic desire for intimacy agency achievement and fulfillment
