Export Development and Promotion: The Role of Public Organizations F.H. Rolf Seringhaus,Philip J. Rosson,2012-12-06 Companies succeed in international markets because of their competitive competence which in large measure is based on the level of knowledge and skill they bring to their international marketing activities Public organizations in the export development and promotion field play a facilitating role in this process Their mandate is to enhance the know how of exporters and thereby assist foreign market entry development and expansion The interaction between these public organizations and the companies they exist to serve is the subject of this book The book is wide ranging and up to date The work of researchers from 11 countries in both the developed and developing world is represented which means that a variety of perspectives are contained in the book These contributions present the latest thinking on this important matter The authors of each chapter are objective in their approach Consequently considerable attention is paid to the performance of the public organization support programs and activities Each researcher comes to his her own conclusions based on the individual work undertaken but readers will find that certain common themes run through many of the chapters The key objectives of the book are 1 To provide academic researchers with a current and comprehensive treatment of the role played by public organizations in export development and promotion 2 To expose professional readers officials in relevant public organizations consultants in the private sector or in international agencies to a view of their field of interest that might be broader and more critical than normal
