world of haiku where saijiki large collections called of ku illustrating hundreds if not thousands of briefly explained seasonal themes generally comprised five volumes one for each season Yet the great doyen of haiku gave this fifth season considered the first season when it came at the head of the Spring rather than in mid winter only a tenth of the pages he gave to each of the other four seasons 20 vs 200 Was Blyth Zen enthusiast not enamored with ritual Or was he loath to translate the New Year with its many cultural idiosyncrasies most common to the Sinosphere but not to the West because he did not want to have to explain the haiku It is hard to say but with these poems for the re creation of the world Robin D Gill aka keigu respect foolishness or respect fool rushes in where even Blyth feared to tread to give this supernatural or cosmological season one that combines aspects of the Solstice Christmas New Year s Easter July 4th and the Once Upon a Time of Fairy Tales the attention it deserves With G K Chesterton s words evoking the mind of the haiku poets of old the author publisher leaves further description of the content to his reader reviewers The man standing in his own kitchen garden with the fairyland opening at the gate is the man with large ideas His mind creates distance the motor car stupidly destroys it G K Chesterton Heretics 1905
