The Founding Years in Rotorua Donald Murray Stafford,1986 A very comprehensive and readable centennial history of interest to social and family historians New Zealand's empire Katie Pickles,Catharine Coleborne,2015-11-01 Both colonial and postcolonial historical approaches often sideline New Zealand as a peripheral player This book redresses the balance and evaluates its role as an imperial power as both a powerful imperial envoy and a significant presence in the Pacific region Kāinga Paul Tapsell,2022-01-19 Dare we elevate k inga as a way of achieving regionalised ecological accountability and in the process can we bring humanity back into balance with the universe Through his own experience and the stories of his t puna Paul Tapsell Te Arawa Tainui charts the impact of colonisation on his people Alienation from k inga and whenua becomes a wider story of environmental degradation and system collapse This book is an impassioned plea to step back from the edge It is now up to the Crown Tapsell writes to accept the need for radical change The ecological costs of colonisation are clear and yet those same extractive and exploitative models remain foundational today Only a complete step change one that embraces k inga can transform our lands and waterways and potentially become a source of inspiration to the world The New Zealand Journal of History ,2005 Destination Marketing Steven
